Dr. Montgomery of Micanopy is in our county jail again.

The number of times Doc has been in our jail is a compliment to that structure. He seems to have a positive affection for it.

He will probably remain there for some time now. We don't know but what all the trouble should be blamed on Lou reen. Lou is Doc's official guardian The other day he took his family and wen on a vacation. The agreement was that Doc wouldn't come to town a little bird whispered to Doc that Lou was gone. Doc has also an affection for Ocala, and we suppose he came to the logical conclusion that being Lou wasn't here, he couldn't ask permission, so he would come over and get another. No matter what his theory was, he was prompt with practice. He put his usual armament in his car and statred for Ocala, indulging his playful disposition as he came along. Several people held up by him phoned to Ocala, and the police

However, about 41/2 miles noth of Ocala, Doc had car trouble, which brought him to a halt. He didn't care to bother with the car, and thinking he had found a good place to spend the night, and being of a sociable disposition, he tried to add to the general satisfaction of the world by causing everybody to stop and stay with

After awhile somebody got a phone message thru from Kendrick to Sheriff Galloway, and that cavalier at once mounted his fiery Ford, and with Deputy Perkins set forth to quell this incipient insurrection. They found Doc blocking the traffic a little this side of Kendrick. Several carloads of people were nearby, patiently waiting to be shot. Doc was half-shot, making steady calls on a bottle of moonshine. When the sheriff arrived, Doc held him up also. The sheriff lined his gunsights on him and was about had nothing but a bottle in his hand. He made himself known to Montgomery, who apologized and offered the sheriff a drink. The big sheriff was rather wrathy tho'; he handcuffed Doc and told the weary waiters to go on their way. He found a fine doublebarreled shotgun loaded with No. 1 buckshot, and a new Colt's automatic. caliber .38, and plenty ammunition for both in the car.

The sheriff brought Montgomery to jail, and it will probably go hard with poor Doc. There is half a dozen charges against him, and he stands a good chance of going to the penitentiary. If he does, he will arrive too
