

OCALA SOCIAL AFFAIRS

If You Have any News for this Department, Call Up Five-One

Ocala's bride and groom are right in the center of the storm that is lashing the South Atlantic coast. The Times-Union says: "The Arapahoe of the Clyde Line, steamed yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Jacksonville for New York via Charleston. No fears, however, are entertained for the ship, as she had ample warning and has probably put well out to sea to avoid the worst of the blow."

Miss Marguerite Porter went to Gainesville yesterday, to visit friends until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walters are paying a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Armour, at Panasoffkee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McLin and children are making their home at the manse, and taking their meals at the Arms House.

Capt. L. M. Graham, of Grahamville, is in the city today, the guest of his son, Maj. John M. Graham, and family.

Miss Blanche Whaley left this morning for Green Cove Springs, where she will spend several days, the guest of one of her young friends, Miss Wilson. One day next week, Mrs. Whaley and daughter Miss Olive will leave for a visit to the Springs, where they will be joined by Miss Blanche.

At the Episcopal church last evening, Bishop Mann, after delivering an eloquent sermon to a large congrega-

Ship is Safe

At 1 o'clock today, the Star wired to the Jacksonville Metropolis for news of the steamer Arapahoe, on which Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Beck sailed for New York yesterday. At 2:30 the following laconic message was received:

Jacksonville, July 14.—Arapahoe sailed and is O. K. Johnson.

Apprehension in Ocala

Unmitigated apprehension has been excited in Ocala by the appearance in many show windows of a typographical terror, announcing the appearance of the Commercial Club minstrels at the Temple theater Wednesday evening, June 26. It seems that Lester Lucas, who has been paroled from Covern's minstrels for the summer, has wearied of living a quiet and inoffensive existence, and associated with himself Carlton Ervin, Linn Sanders, Pat Anderson, Alfred Green, Sibbald Wilson, Rea Ferguson, Usher Norwood, Carol Blalock, Bryan Butler, Jack Halton and others whose predilection to such an outbreak has long been suspected, and who have only needed a leader and an opportunity to perpetrate an atrocity on the defenseless public. We have seen the program and are prepared to declare that anybody who can survive it will be able to stand anything. We will guarantee that those who attend the performance will for the time being forget all their other troubles, and will be so glad when they escape that life for the next month or two will seem like a happy dream. The bunch of alleged artists as well acquainted with half the people and all the scandals in town, so if you go you are likely to hear yourself and some of your neighbors shown up. Some comic songs that haven't been heard since George Washington was a boy have been discovered and will be sprung on the audience as new, also the jokes with which Noah and his sons whiled away the time in the ark; they have been forgotten and are much better than those we have been hearing every day since the civil war. The one redeeming feature of the occasion will be that the doors will not be locked, and anybody can escape at any time they want to. Remember the date, July 26, and try to be out of town.

The Star is informed that three of Ocala's young high school graduates—Messrs. Alfred Green, Arthur Crago and Westlake Hollinrake—will attend the University of Florida next year.

Mrs. Delbert Haskell of Bellevue was visiting Ocala friends today.

Miss Ruby Alexander of Ocala arrived in the city last Sunday evening and is pleasantly spending several weeks with her uncle, Mr. D. S. Cappleman. Miss Cappleman has made several visits to the city and has many friends among the younger class who will be glad to know that she has returned.—Brooksville Argus.

Miss Maude Alexander left Monday morning for Ocala, where she will make a pleasant visit to her friend, Mrs. E. T. Helvenston. She will probably be away from the city for several weeks.—Brooksville Argus.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Sparker have arrived from Ocala, and will make Jacksonville their home.—Times-Union.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Winston and Mrs. Whitfield of Ocala, motored to Eustis Monday and will be the guests of Prof. and Mrs. R. B. Bowers for several days.—Eustis Lake Region.

W. L. Denham, district manager for the Mutual Life Insurance company, has returned from New York, where on July 6th and 7th he attended the convention of representatives of the company. Mr. Denham reports a fine meeting, and he was honored by election as vice president of the Southern field division. He brought from New York the loving cup offered by the company to the division which secured the largest amount of business during the past fiscal period, and the Southern division was that sprightly. Mr. Denham was accompanied by Mrs. Denham and their daughter and son, Miss Jessie and Master Barco, and all had a very delightful time in the biggest city on earth.—Gainesville Sun.

The picture story, "Maria Rosa," at the Temple last night, was one of the best, displaying the unexcelled talent of Geraldine Farrar, and giving interesting insight into the homes and customs of the people of Old Spain. The entertainment this evening is the final number of "The Mystery of Mary Page," and some excellent features go with it.
