Specimens of Florida brick, from the Sable Brick Yard, passed through Palatka yesterday, on the way to the Sub-Tropical Exposition.

The steamer Crescent City passed here for Jacksonville some two hours later than usual yesterday.

Fans have been in great demand for the last two days.

Warm weather is causing orange trees to open up their blossoms somewhat earlier than is desirable.

Jack Frost, put in an appearance it would prove very disastrous to next year's crop, and injury to the trees would be of no little extent.

Quite a crowd of visitors, tourists, etc., came in on the John Sylvester yesterday afternoon.

The friends of Mrs. Charles H. Smith will be pleased to learn that she is fast recovering from a protracted illness.

The 10 o'clock train, south, on the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West Railway was thirty minutes late yesterday morning.

Mr. L. C. Canova is remodeling the old Ethel into a trim little steam yacht at Lucas' boat yard, north of the Florida Southern Depot.

Yesterday, about noon, Miss Mack, an enterprising school mistress of this place, had her pupils arranged in the Hammock, on River Street, before a Photographer's camera—the result can readily be guessed.

The members of the Musical met last evening at St. Mark's Academy for the purpose of practicing for the coming concert to be given next week.

The Milkmaids met last night at the armory. A pleasant time was passed.

The regular meeting of the City Council takes place to-night in the Council Chamber at 7:30 o'clock.

At 2 o'clock yesterday a Savannah, Florida and Western Railway box car jumped the rails near the crossing at the head of River street, tearing up the ties generally.

The new steamer Georgiana, lying at the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West Railway wharf, is nearing completion.

An infallible sign of warm weather when the fathers of marriageable daughters commence buying gate hinges.

Do the railroad companies in this city observe the law regulating the speed with which their trains are run within the city limits?

We are frequently asked by various parties whether it is possible to obtain a good plunge bath in town.

Arbor Day is not far distant and the citizens of this burg should make preparations accordingly.

Mrs. G. W. Winchell has closed the Palatka House on the corner of Laurel and Second streets.

A new millinery store, rumor has it, is soon to be established in Palatka.

Do not forget the Gala Week meeting at the Yach Club rooms to-night.

PERSONAL... Mr. B. M. Miller, an enterprising citizen of Seville, and formerly editor of the Seville Gazette, visited the city yesterday.

Prof. Sulzner, of St. Augustine, formerly of Palatka, took dinner at the Hutchinson House Sunday.

Our acquaintance, Mr. S. L. Davis, a resident of St. Augustine, was doing the city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. K. R. Huntington, the founder of the beautiful little town by the same name, some eighteen miles south of Palatka, on the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West Railway, in company with Mrs. E. P. Wilson, were in the city yesterday.

Mr. W. H. Newell, a conductor on the Orange City, Blue Springs and Gulf Railway, well known to our citizens as being connected at one time with the Florida Southern Railway, paid Palatka a flying visit yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Sparkman, of Starke, Fla. is visiting Mrs. Jennings, on Second street.

Mrs. O. B. Robinson, of Como, who has been for the past week seriously ill at the Bangor House, is now rapidly improving, and will probably be able to return home in a few days.

The Gala Week... The meeting of the executive committee of the Gala Week yesterday was mainly devoted to informal discussion of plans.

If the food is not properly digested it becomes corrupt, and poisons the system it is intended to nourish. This is indigestion.

"My wife has suffered for many years with indigestion. After trying everything else recommended, she tried Simmons Liver Regulator. In three days after taking it according to directions she was in perfect health; she does not suffer at all and can eat anything she wants without any of her previous symptoms."—W. C. SUMMERS, Bainbridge, Ga.
