MAKE TABLE RESERVATIONS
 NOW FOR ST. PATRICK'S NIGHT

The management of Hotel Clarendon suggests that table reservations for St. Patrick's night be made as early as possible. Tickets for the ball will be issued to dinner guests upon leaving the dining room, which plan worked out so successfully at the George Washington ball. Every effort is being made by the management of Hotel Clarendon to make this affair the greatest social event of the winter season.

A Bit to Think About.

On the doorway of an Italian cathedral are three inscriptions. The first, beneath an arch of roses reads as follows: "All that pleases is but for a moment;" the second, beneath a cross, "All that troubles is but for a moment;" and under the main arch, "That only is important which is eternal."

FUNERAL OF GERMAN PRISONER

At South-End-on-the-Sea, at the mouth of the Thames, large numbers of captured Germans are kept on liners. The photograph shows the funeral of one of these prisoners. He was buried with full military honors and the other prisoners were allowed to act as pallbearers and join in the cortege.

ENJOYED LUNCHEON AT THE BIG HOTEL SUNDAY

Among those who took luncheon at Hotel Clarendon on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. Bogart, Dorothy J. Bogart and Mrs. F. C. Comstock, all of whom are from Milwaukee, Wis., and are at present touring the south. C. L. Anderson, of Ocala, Fla., spent Sunday at the big hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ebbets gave a dinner party to a few of their friends at Hotel Clarendon on Saturday evening, followed by dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Ebbets had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. William Klem, Dr. Morrisey and Wilbert Robinson.

Try Thumb Tacks.
 If thumb tacks instead of ordinary tacks are used to fasten white oilcloth to pantry and cupboard shelf, the oilcloth may be easily removed when cleaned.

A Threat.
 A cavalry regiment was starting for the front. Just before the column reached the railway station where they were to entrain the noisy cheering of the crowd in the street caused a big bay mare ridden by a weather-beaten sergeant to grow very restive and troublesome. She reared and plunged so that her rider was overheard to remark as he held her firmly with one hand and patted her neck with the other: "Be done, Lucy! Be done! A little more of this and you shan't go with us at all. I'll leave you at home, I will."
