

ROTARIANS WILL STAGE BALL GAME ON NEXT FRIDAY

Full-blown baseball phenoms among the members of the Rotary Club will put on spangles next Friday afternoon and play a game for Capital Removal Championship at the ball yard. There will be charge at the gate, which will swing open at 4:30, and the cost of jumbo peanuts, blonde cigars and scarlet pop will be on the losers.

Challenge for the game was issued at the regular luncheon yesterday by Bert Jarrett, who is the designated leader of the Reds. Champion Julius McCrocklin immediately accepted the defi, after being urged, and the battle was arranged for Friday afternoon.

The two peerless leaders announced their teams last night, and the galaxy of stars assembled on each side indicates that there will be something doing every minute, even if it isn't much.

The Reds, headed by Captain Jarrett, will line-up as follows: pitchers, H. M. Fearnside and Goode Guerry; catchers, Jimmy Spence and Jack Randolph; first basers, Herb Yelverton and Louis Knibfield; second basers, Jack Blake, and Joe Haughton; third basers, Bert Jarrett and Ed Earnest; short stoppers, Ed Ferrell and Doc Hedick; outfielders, Charley Hudson, Walter Tilghman, Carl Davis, H. E. Merryday and H. M. de Montmolin.

The Blues, under the leadership of General Julius McCrocklin, former star bat boy in the Corn Dropper's League, will line-up as follows: pitchers, Neal Killman and Howell Davis; catchers, A. W. Houston and Herbert Wilson; first basers, Arthur Corcoran and Howard Gardner; second basers, F. E. Wayner and Fred Merrill and Earnest Mobley; third basers, Julius McCrocklin and Arthur Selle; shortstoppers, Doc Warren and Johnny Murphy; fielders, Morris Cochran, Walter Hilliard, Earnest Rowton, Sam Browning and George Hilly.

It is the purpose to pick the best players from these two teams and then challenge the Ocala, Gainesville, Sanford, Orlando, St. Augustine and Daytona Rotary clubs to a match game, catch as catch can.

Depressing Introduction.
The chairman of a club in an Indiana city was introducing the speaker of the evening. After announcing the name of the lecturer and her subject, the chairman in conclusion said: "Last year we went in debt on account of our lectures and so this year we decided that we would have cheaper talent."

BASEBALL TODAY; BUNNELL VICTIMS, SAINTS TOMORROW

With Bunnell here today and St. Augustine tomorrow, baseball fans will be able to see two good games in Palatka this week. It was not announced until late yesterday afternoon that a game had been arranged with Bunnell, but everybody looks forward to the game on Thursday afternoon with a great deal of anticipation and pleasure, for the local boys are determined to have revenge on the Saints for their defeat of last week. The game promises to be one of the hardest fought contests on the local circuit of the season. Captain Barstow has been getting his arm in trim for the game and states that he has not been in better shape this season.

No announcement has been made for the battery against Bunnell this afternoon, but it will probably be Lepper and Larzo.

Bunnell makes its appearance on the local ball lot as an unknown quantity, for nothing has been heard from the team, what they have done, who they have played or anything else of them. However, they have several very good players on the team and should put up a strong fight.

Nothing need be said about the striped Saints from the Ancient City. Their fame has spread far and wide.

LEGISLATORS IN FIGHT OVER PAY FOR SERVICES

Baton Rouge, La., May 10.—Following a session lasting far into the night and enlivened by four personal encounters among the delegates, the constitutional convention late last night adopted an ordinance providing $15 per day for the state's legislators. The present pay is $5 per day.

Little damage was caused by the four fights staged during the proceedings, the belligerents being separated in each case before the fights progressed very far.

and all baseball fans of Palatka know them by their reputation if not otherwise. It has already been said that they defeated Palatka last Thursday and that it was not pleasing to the local boys to have such an aggregation defeat them. So their only hope of revenge lies in the forthcoming game tomorrow. And the belief is prevalent among the fans here that this opportunity for revenge will not be passed up.
