

GIRL GRADUATES OF HIGH SCHOOL ROTARY'S GUESTS

Young lady members of the Putnam High School will be guests this evening of the Rotary Club at a picnic and dance to be given at the Elks Club. The wives of the Rotarians will also be guests.

A picnic supper will be served following the rendition of a Rotary program, beginning at 6 o'clock. Following this program dancing will be indulged in for the remainder of the evening.

The boys of the graduating class were guests of the Rotarians at luncheon last Tuesday, and the program this evening has been prepared especially for the girls. The program includes some serious as well as laugh provoking numbers.

ROTARIANS MAKE A BIG HIT AT SING

Filled with pep and harmony from start to finish, the community sing conducted by Palatka Community Service last night on the court house lawn was a big success. A large crowd gathered, with special reservation for the children and Rotarians. The audience was ushered to seats by Girl Scouts, dressed in their white middies.

The list of songs used was typical of all community sings. J. E. Johnson opened the entertainment by leading in "America". This was followed with more patriotic songs led by Mr. Teeters. Then came that famous old song, "My Bonny Lies Over the Ocean", and the way they sang "Bring Back My Bonny to Me" would surely think that Bonny was "Over the Ocean" to stay.

A number of folk songs followed, led by Mr. Bennett. "Swanee River" and "Old Black Joe" were the favorites as usual.

Next on the program were some special songs sung by the Girl Scouts. The Scouts marched out in double formation and made a very pretty spectacle dressed in their costumes. They sang "School Days" that has made such a hit here in Palatka, also "Let the Rest of the World Go By". Everybody joined in the chorus.

After these numbers a few rousing pep songs were sung including that "Long Trail, Home Fires" combination, and that famous rube song, "Howdy". These were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The Rotarians were then introduced by Mr. Teeters and led by Mr. Ed Ferrell. This august body proceeded to sing, "Today is Monday", that "slumgullion" army song. It was indeed surprising how these men forgot their dignity in public. "In a Little Prairie Flower" came next with the "too rah raa" turn in it. This was followed by that typically Rotarian song "Shoo Fly Don't Bother Me". All these songs were given a hearty round of applause.

The sing was brought to a close with "Dixie".

A fine orchestra helped out considerably last night and deserves great credit. The personnel of the orchestra was Mrs. Mann and Miss Aloe Everton, accompanists, Miss Grace Eric, Lew Barstow, Mark Shaw and Carl Alderman. It is hoped that this splendid orchestra can lend their volunteer services at all the future sings as their presence was a big factor towards making this community sing a success. It is interesting to know that these sings are contagious and Mr. Teeters has announced that Hastings is anxious to get started in this form of community work. The first sing will be held in that town next Wednesday in the Methodist church. Mr. Teeters will lead the singing.

THIEVES ARE ON THE JOB AGAIN

Saturday night someone entered three stores and houses in Palatka and secured some valuables and a little money. The store of W. H. Wigg was again robbed and the office of the Chero Cola plant was opened and a few things taken out, and the pool room of Joe Rivers on North Tenth street entered. The matter was reported to Deputy Livingston on Sunday about noon and he immediately got on the job, began running down clues and soon had a negro man under arrest, who fitted the details as they had been given him. Deputy Livingston says that the footprints of the man correspond to those which were found around the burglarized places.

Upon further investigation, it was found that the negro under arrest has a very bad record, having just finished serving an eighteen months' sentence on the county gang of Dade County. The negro gives his name as Cleo Sanders. The evidence against him is not sufficient to send him up for burglary, so he is being held on a charge of vagrancy.

CHECKER CLUB HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The Palatka Checker Club under the auspices of Community Service had their first meeting at the fire house last night. While there were not many of the fans out, there was a great deal of enthusiasm and plans were made for the ensuing months. It is hoped that the "old timer" will brush up on this nobler game and take advantage of this chance to get some real competition. The club will meet every Tuesday starting next week. Meetings will be held at the fire house. Any who have not turned in their names may do so at any time.

A number have expressed the desire to learn to play chess and Mr. Chas. Bennett has agreed to teach this game to all who care to learn. There is also interest in checkers the women and it is rumored that these ladies will challenge the men after they have run off their tournament. Anybody who desires to take advantage of this excellent chance to learn chess may turn in their names to Mr. Teeters or Mr. Bennett.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL AT JAX FOR WORLD WAR VETERAN

Jacksonville, June 6.—Impressive military honors marked the funeral here of Sergeant Thomas A. Quinn, whose body was recently returned from France. Quinn was killed in action while serving with the Third Trench Mortar Battalion.

Company F, National Guard of Florida, furnished a squad to fire the funeral salute at the cemetery, and an honor guard to accompany the remains.

Hundreds of members of the local American Legion formed part of the procession. Flags over municipal and federal buildings were lowered to half mast under recent orders from Washington that such honor should be rendered during the funeral of a world war veteran.

Sergeant Quinn is survived by only one relative, his sister, Miss Maude M. Quinn, who was instrumental in having his body returned to his homeland.

ROBERTSON CAUGHT WITH A STILL AND SOME HOOTCH

Will Robertson, colored, was arrested and landed in jail by Officers Fennell, Green and Ferrell on a charge of making whiskey, Saturday. Robertson had an improvised still, made of a big tin can and some iron pipe and about a pint of whiskey which he had just run and about ten gallons of mash not quite ready to be put through the improvised still. The stuff was found at his home in Fearnside's addition.

GIRL SCOUTS TO SWIM

The Girl Scouts are reminded to meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the pool back of the Saratoga for a plunge. Arrangements have been made to accommodate the girls at this time and parents need not worry as there will be someone there to look after their girls.

COUNCIL TO NAME CHIEF OF POLICE AT MEET TONIGHT

Patrolman I. E. Fennell, who recently put a stop to the burglaries being committed in Palatka by shooting an escaped convict who confessed that he had burglarious intentions, will tonight be nominated by Mayor Fearnside to be the next Chief of Police of Palatka. His confirmation by the council, if the usual precedent is followed, will follow.

It was stated yesterday that an effort will be made to override the nomination of the Mayor and that the names of some dark horses will be submitted to council. It is not believed, however, that council will violate the precedent, especially in view of the splendid record that Officer Fennell has made, not only as a member of the police force, but as a deputy sheriff for three years.

It was rumored yesterday that Policeman Barber and Acting Chief W. G. Terry will be applicants for the position, also but this could not be confirmed last night.

The special park committee appointed by council will also make its report, and the special committee appointed by the Rotary club to cooperate with council in this important matter will be present to urge the purchase of the Burt property located south of Carr street.

BAUPTISTS DEFEAT METHODISTS

In a seven-inning game yesterday afternoon the Baptists defeated the Methodists by a score of 9 to 4. The game was much faster and more interesting than the games have been played heretofore and everybody enjoyed it very much. For the Methodists the heavy hitting was done by Stelts and Snell and for the Baptists the big stick wielding was done by L. Buck, S. Buck, Palmer and Hancock.

WATCH IS HOOKED "DOC" IS GUILTY

Doc Williams was arrested Sunday on complaint of Joseph Johnson, who left sixteen dollars and a watch at his home Saturday afternoon while he went out to a frolic and when he got back the watch was gone as were the sixteen dollars. His mother, with whom he was staying, said that she thought Williams was the guilty party. After the police were notified, they began to keep a watch out for Doc and on Sunday afternoon, Chief of Police Terry and Deputies Capnon and Dyal went out to the house where Doc was stopping and when he saw them coming, he jumped and ran. Mr. Dyal was almost too quick for him and when Doc started down the back stairs of the house, M. Dyal was the ahead of him. When arrested the colored "gemmin" had no watch on his person but it was found upstairs in the bathroom behind the bath tub. He says that he just put it there as he was tired of carrying it. He was bound over to October term of court, at which time he will have a little tete-atete with the grand jury of the county.

Grand Today.
A South African story by Cynthia Stockley serves as Ethel Clayton's latest Paramount vehicle, "Sins of Rosanne." The picture pleased the audience last evening at the Grand theater where it opened today. Miss Clayton plays the most unusual film heroine seen in many moons. Saved from death as an infant by an old Malay woman, the daughter of a wealthy English widow living near the Kimberley diamond mines grows into womanhood imbued by the Malay with an insatiable craving for bright stones. This leads her into a diamond smuggling scheme, in which she is the accomplice of a sinister jeyeler. But romance enters her life and, after exciting adventures, she is freed from the Malay's influence and becomes her real self. "Sins of Rosanne" attracts by the unusual character of its story and by the sterling work of Miss Clayton in the heroine's role. The cast also includes Jack Holt and Fred Malatesta. Tom Forman directed the picture and Mary H. O'Connor was the artist.
