FLORIDA MAN MADE PRESIDENT OF SHOE DEALERS

Friends in Palatka of Ridley R. Wilkinson will be pleased to learn of a signal honor conferred on him recently at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Shoe Retailers Association when he was elected president, succeeding Charles P. Brady, of Atlanta.

Mr. Wilkinson is manager of the shoe department of the Choen Bros., big store in Jacksonville and is considered one of the best shoe men in the entire southeast. He has a large number of friends here, having married Miss Lucille Kennerly, one of Palatka's most popular girls.

The Southeastern Shoe Dealers Association is composed of retail shoe men from Georgia, Florida, Alabama, South Carolina, and Tennessee, and in addition to choosing Mr. Wilkinson president selected Jacksonville as the next place of meeting.

MIAMI DISTRICT METHODIST WENT OVER THE QUOTA

Rev. M. H. Norton, presiding elder of the Miami district of the Florida conference, preached at St. James Methodist church Sunday night and held quarterly conference Monday morning, making the important announcement that in the Methodist educational fund drive the Miami district exceeded its quota of $95,411 by between one and two thousand dollars.

Reports from headquarters at Nashville have already been received to the effect that Florida was the first state to exceed its quota.

ST. PETE TRYING TO PUT BAN ON RENT PROFITEERING

(By Associated Press) St. Petersburg, June 14.—As a step toward prevention of high rentals the local Chamber of Commerce proposes to have drawn a standard lease to be used by property owners which would contain a clause providing that in no instance should a house or flat be sublet at an increase of more than 10 per cent. above the original price, and that upon violation of the provision the lease becomes void.

GOTHAM BANKERS SENT MONEY TO ELECT NEWBERRY

Washington, June 14.—Henry Ford's contest for the seat of Senator Newberry, of Michigan, threw the senate committee hearing today into a division as to how far the inquiry should go into charges connected with the financing of the 1918 campaign.

Alfred Lucking, Ford's counsel, demanded the right to check Mr. Smith's bank account and the witness agreed, but Chairman Spencer, over the protests of Senator Walcott, New York, democrat, and minority members, said the committee would take the step under advisement.

Mr. Smith, when pressed, said he didn't want to repeat gossip but that "officials of the American Exchange National Bank were very anxious to have Newberry nominated and that the Chatham Phoenix "might have" sent money too.
