The Presbyterian Sunday School will observe Children's Day with an appropriate and interesting program of music and recitations on Sunday, the 31st, inst. This will be a special service and will be at 11 o'clock a. m. in the church instead of the Sunday School room. Next week we will publish the program of exercises.

James Pdagett, Sr., who has been spending the past several months with relatives at Coleman and other points in the state, has returned home. Mr. Pdagett seems much improved in health.

The Crescent Realty Company has vacated its offices in the Astorbilt block on Central avenue, near Wall street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ganas visited Palatka last Monday on business and pleasure.

W. A. Warner, cashier of the Bank of Crescent City, was drafted for jury service in the United States court this week, thus making it compulsory for the president of the institution to do a little work.

'Tis said that T. C. Darby, serving as clerk at the Hotel Garden, Waynesville, N. C., can say "25 per day" to applicants for rates at that hostelry in such a pleasant manner and voice that they consider it a pleasure to pay the bill and express regrets at being obliged to leave.

Cheap foreign goods would impoverish the American workman, and then he wouldn't be able to pay the taxes necessitated by Europe's inability to pay the interest on her debt.

The things the Irish do to the King's constables are surely no more atrocious than the things Americans do to the King's English.

Why worry? Blood is thicker than the skulls of jingoes.

Orange Grove Properties

In the best fruit growing section of Florida are not going a beggin' for purchasers; in fact few of them are for sale. But there are a few such, and one of them came into my hands during the past week. There are nearly Eight Acres, and the trees are filled with fruit. One of the most desirable groves in the environs of Crescent City on good road, handy for shipments.

Why not join the Florida Citrus Exchange?

- Other means of marketing fruit having failed to yield uniformly satisfactory returns
Why not join the Florida Citrus Exchange?
- Experience having shown that speculators lack in regard for the growers' interests—
Why not join the Florida Citrus Exchange?
- Since the growers are entitled to know where their fruit sells, when, to whom and for how much money—
Why not join the Florida Citrus Exchange?
- Because the only way to make an institution better is to get on the inside and assist in running it—
Why not join the Florida Citrus Exchange?
- Inasmuch as co-operative marketing is based on the principle that the growers together have the ability to handle the selling of their products—
Why not join the Florida Citrus Exchange?
- Since the need for the growers' own organization is greater today than ever before and since its efficiency may be increased by every additional member—
Why not join the Florida Citrus Exchange?

Will you not agree that the Florida Citrus Exchange has accomplished much and that to join NOW would give the organization the benefit of your experience and judgment?
