Miss Boyd
Following from the Columbia State will be of interest to Boyd's many friends in Palatka:
Marriage yesterday afternoon of Louise Boyd, teacher of vocational college for women, to Neil Green, of Chester, Pa., was a surprise to the many friends of the bride. It was celebrated at 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. T. J. Watson in the apartments, the Rev. Joseph Baker, rector of St. Timothy's church, officiating, in the presence of a few intimate friends. The bride was given in marriage by Watson.
A young couple are remaining in Palatka for the present. It is probable that she will return to Columbia and fill her position through the year, but as the marriage was hurriedly decided upon yesterday upon the arrival in the city of Green for a short visit, no plans have been made.
Yesterday's ceremony was the culmination of a romance which began when Miss Boyd and Mr. Green were students in Gainesville, Ga., the first at Brenau college and the second at Riverside military academy.
Members of the Young Matrons Club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Browning as hostess, at her home in the Davis apartments on South Eighth street. Browning has invited her friends for three-thirty o'clock.
Friends of Charles P. Phillips regret to hear that he is confined to his home by his illness and hope for his early recovery.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hart are enjoying a portion of the week in Jacksonville.
Edith Kupperbusch, Mrs. A. Mrs. Charles Kupperbusch, Mrs. Bess O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. James spent this afternoon at Augustine Beach.
Mr. and Mrs. James, Miss Edith and Mrs. L. A. Smith leave tomorrow for Jacksonville to see Miss O'Neil off on a boat trip to her home in New York.
Lester Bush as hostess, at the dining room, where the guests met for a pleasant chat over coffee, was simply and prettily decorated with golden-rod and purple. Toward the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Bush entertained with fruit salad, cake, and punch.
Following yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Bush, were: Mesdames Louis

Jarmon, J. B. Darby, L. B. Barstow, J. W. Browning, C. E. Anderson, and Misses Winifred Browning, Mildred Williams and Florence Smith.

Burglar Turns On Lights and Rifles the Richard Home

A burglar entered the home of H. C. Richard at No. 415 North Fourth street last night about 10 o'clock, rifled all dresser drawers, carried off $35 in money and some small articles of wearing apparel and jewelry. The robbery was one of the boldest reported in Palatka in a long while.
Mrs. Richard was visiting neighbors and Mr. Richard was at his office during the evening. When Mrs. Richard returned home she noticed lights burning which she had turned off before going out. She thought Mr. Richard had returned home and called to him, but there was no response. She went back into the house and noticed that all dresser drawers were opened and it quickly occurred to her that some stranger had intruded and might possibly be in the house. She gave the alarm and when the police arrived a thorough search was made but the intruder had made his escape.
Mrs. Richard reported to the police that several nights ago she had observed a white man peeping in at one of the windows.
Entrance was effected last night by raising a screen by some one standing on a fence right near the house. It is believed that he was some one familiar with the customs of the residents, and that he watched the opportunity to gain admittance.
China says she must fight Japan with words. Well, a Chinese word looks like a lethal weapon.

INTERLACHEN NEWS

The hostess served her guests with cakes and refreshing iced tea. The semi-monthly schedule of meetings will now be resumed and continued during the winter season, the next meeting date being Wednesday, Oct. 25, at the Lake Veiv.
Dr. and Mrs. Wilcox of Princeville, Ill., the old home town of the Coburns, were stopover guests of Miss Coburn last week, while on their way to their winter home in Titusville.
The latest word from Mrs. Amelia Corthell is to the effect that their plans for an early home coming have been delayed because of business matters, and it is now not quite certain when they will start south.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Nelson came from Jacksonville Monday and will have a week of freedom to spend in their cottage home here.
The heavy rain of last Friday has greatly refreshed all vegetation, and encouraged people to go on with planting of winter gardens.
Building activities are being hastened as rapidly as possible, in order to have the new homes ready for early occupancy. The commodious bungalow built by Mr. Francis for the use of his poultry superintendent
