

FOREIGN SUSPECTS IN TIFLIS SOVIET HAVE A HARD TIME

(By Associated Press.)
Tiflis, Soviet Georgia, Oct. 21.—What happens to the foreigner picked up as a political suspect even under the supposedly mild rule of this Soviet, may be judged from the case of Mrs. Liana Edwards, the Russian wife of James Edwards, of Youngstown, O., who has just been released through the efforts of the Dutch consul, representing United States interests here.

Mrs. Edwards had a perfectly good passport, obtained as the wife of James Edwards, whom she married here 16 months ago while he was an officer of the Near East Relief. He went away on business, so he told her, and has not since returned.

When Georgia passed again into the hands of Moscow last March, after several years as an independent republic, she fled with many others to Batum but there decided to remain and take her chances.

She worked for a time as translator of English under the new Soviet and then in August was arrested by the secret police, charged with being a foreign spy and was offered money to go to Constantinople and work for the Soviet. This she refused and so she was sent here and imprisoned.

In prison most of her clothes were taken away, ostensibly to be burned during the cholera epidemic and those she had on fumigated. She was not given a bed but told to sleep on the floor. Her food, so she related later, consisted of a pound of bad bread per day, with hot water in the morning and thin soup at night. She scrubbed floors during the day. Also, each day she was told she would be shot as a bourgeois.

What aroused the special hate and attention of the Bolsheviks was her maiden name of Romanov. She stated that her mother was an American Liana Davenport, and that she was born in Taskent, where her father was governor general. Because of the name Romanov she was suspected of being related to the family of the late Czar.

She gave her last possessions of jewels as a bribe to a released woman prisoner and got word to the Dutch Consul who after various de-

FLORIDA HAS HER HARDEST BATTLE ON A GRID TODAY

(By Associated Press.)
Jacksonville, Oct. 21.—The University of Florida football eleven will engage in its hardest struggle of the season thus far when it meets Tennessee at Knoxville, tomorrow. Florida's showing this season has given promise of the best squad the university has turned out in several years, and the Tennessee game is looked upon as a real test.

Rollins and Stetson University come together at DeLand for their annual clash, this game apparently making up the major portion of their card. Both teams are of the light and fast caliber and they should stage an interesting contest.

The high school card for the week is somewhat split between today and tomorrow. Lakeland and Lake City ushered in the week end with a complete upset of predictions when Lakeland ran away to the tune of 26 to 0. Tomorrow's high school schedule follows:

DeLand at Orlando.
Charleston, S. C., and Duval.
Sanford at Ocala.
St. Petersburg at Palmetto.

Hillsborough Wins, But Outplayed
Tampa, Oct. 21.—Although outplayed from whistle to whistle, the Hillsborough High football team won over the Plant City eleven here today by the score of 7 to 6. Hillsborough earned its touchdown in the last quarter by a clever criss cross, back play, and Half Back Hebble took the ball for a 35 yard run and touchdown. Plant City's score was made in the third quarter.

Summerlin Wins Easily
Bartow, Oct. 21.—Summerlin Institute trounced Fort Meade High today by the score of 27 to 6. The game throughout was hard fought, although the result was never in doubt.

Lakeland Wallops Lake City
Lakeland, Oct. 21.—Lakeland High football eleven conducted an aerial offense that completely baffled Lake City High here today and won 26 to 0. The visitors only once came within thirty yards of the locals goal. Only two of Lakeland's forward passes were unsuccessful.

LABOR BOARD STIFFENS UP TO TEST ITS REAL POWERS

for violation of its decrees.

In connection with the Labor Board order to defer strike action it was pointed out the Big Five union chiefs yesterday informed the board that the strike could not be postponed as no arrangements for such a contingency had been made, although it could be settled.

The board's announcement today came as one of the most sensational developments in the rail crisis since the Big Five unions let it become known that they were formally sending authorization for a strike. It was issued virtually without warning and at a time when the consensus had been that this governmental agency met an impasse in its attempts to settle the strike when its conference yesterday with union chiefs was adjourned with the announcement that no results had been attained. Coming as the first instance where the board so decisively expressed authority which many railroad and labor men had maintained it did not possess, the board's action found most of the interested leaders too astounded to comment.

Tonight local railroad presidents refused to discuss the pronouncement other than to say that it would be complied with so far as they were concerned. They declared that they had not violated the board's decision and took the attitude that the citation really was directed at the unions alone, saying that carriers were called in simply because it was necessary to have both sides in the decision represented.

The impression was given that the administration feels other avenues are open by which a settlement may be reached. No indication was given, however, as to what course would be followed or what information the government may have had from the Labor Board. It was made plain by high officials that they believed the use of war powers was not necessary, meanwhile declaring that "this nation is at peace." Belief was expressed that amicable and definite results could be obtained through negotiations rather than by use of force such as involved in the exercises of war powers.

(By Associated Press.)
No War Powers to Be Used
Washington, Oct. 21.—Use by the government of its war powers to avert the threatened nation wide strike, while suggested in some quarters, will not be exercised, was stated late today in administration circles.

DERBIES FOR SENIORS
Gainesville, Oct. 21.—Seniors at the University of Florida in future will be distinguished by their derbies and canes. The class at a recent meeting voted to adopt the derby and cane as a method of identification which would enable the remainder of the awe-stricken student body to recognize one of the dignitaries on sight. Derbies will be worn at all athletic events, to all chapel exercises, week-ends in town and at any time on the campus the seniors see fit.

The largest farm in the world is at Nobleford, Alberta, Canada, operated by a former American, Charles Noble, who has more than 19,000 acres under cultivation.

on the Peniel road. Mr. Cubbedge was closing up, according to Officer Green, when a tall mulatto negro approached him and attempted to rob him. Mr. Cubbedge ran into his store and slammed the screen door. The negro, he said, thrust the muzzle of a revolver through the screen, but Mr. Cubbedge called for help and some cowboys camped a short distance away responded and the negro made his escape. A search was made for him in the adjacent woods, said Officer Green, but the flash light batteries gave out and at 3:30 the trail was lost.

search of the county and examinations of several men resulted in the holding only of the two men who were tried.

After his arrest at that time (Vanzetti) was identified as one of a band who held up a pay master at Bridge-water the previous December. For that crime he was convicted and is now under sentence of ten to twelve years at the state prison.

BENJAMIN H. KAUFFMAN Reading, Pa.

"There's no doubt in my mind that Tanlac saved my wife's life," was the positive statement of Benjamin H. Kauffman, 505 Bingham St., Reading, Pa., popular clothing salesman for the well-known firm of Croll & Keel.

"I was almost desperate from worrying over her condition, as she had suffered so long without getting relief and I can hardly believe my own eyes now when I see the change in her. Why, she doesn't show her age by twenty years and declares she never remembers feeling better in her life. Her health was failing steadily for a year as a result of catarrh of the stomach, and I have never seen anybody suffer as much from indigestion and nervousness as she did."

"After a five weeks' course of Tanlac she was like another person, and I'm firmly convinced that years have been added to her life. It makes me shudder now when I think what the result might have been if she hadn't taken Tanlac in time."

Tanlac is sold by Aekerman-Stewart Drug Co. and all leading druggists.
