City Happenings and Personal Mention.

Louis A. Smith and Chas. E. Rowton made a business trip to Jacksonville on Tuesday.

Mrs. E. P. Gates of Welaka is visiting in the city this week, the guest of Mrs. Martin Griffin.

Gov. Broward has signed the Key West railway extension bill introduced by Senator E. S. Crill.

Mr. Holstein and family have moved into the comfortable flat formerly occupied by Wm. Ivers, on Lemon street.

Postmaster Harrison of Denver was in the city yesterday on his way home from a business visit to Jacksonville.

A commodious carriage shed is being erected by Lee Kennedy on the lot on Lemon street adjoining his livery stable.

Rev. M. C. Welch, the venerable pastor emeritus of the Putnam Congregational church, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Robt. Ragin has accepted a position in the grocery store of Silas Smith and entered upon his duties Monday morning.

The last social of the Woman's Fortnightly club this season will be held at Miss Mulholland's on Saturday, May 26, at 3 p. m.

Robt James has received word from Mrs. James, who is at the home of her parents in New York state, announcing the arrival of a son.

Messrs. Herbert Crook and J. H. Randall gave a launch party Wednesday evening to about 25 of their gentlemen and lady friends on the launch Bobbie.

Miss Lillian Morris arrived here on Wednesday from Jacksonville. Miss Morris comes to spend a few weeks as the guest of Miss Mulholland before going to Connecticut for the summer.

Dave Partin's ice cream parlors did a big business last Saturday, the day being known as Woman's club day. The receipts were over $50, of which amount the club receives a generous percentage.

The Veteran Association of Blue and Gray with their friends are enjoying the annual picnic of the association at Holston today. Nice, short trip. Go if you can. Round trip 10 cents. Nice river ride.

The steamer Crescent has for some days past been unloading freight at the G. S. & F. bulkhead. On last Saturday she brought in 700 barrels of potatoes from Federal Point and other places along the river.

Mrs. Geo. B. Selden has resigned as organist at St. Marks church. Her playing has been an attractive feature in the church's service and there is widespread regret over her decision to retire; the hope is expressed that her retirement will only be temporary.

Mrs. H. Cowart and Miss Maud Priddy of Tampa are here this week on a visit to their mother, Mrs. E. M. Priddy. Fred Priddy of Jacksonville is also expected to day, and Mrs. Priddy says it is the first time in years that the family will all be together.

Contractor Beaks has begun the work of building a Baptistry under the tower of St. Marks church, an Easter gift to the parish from some friends of the pastor. The Baptistry is to be finished in express, tiled, and will add greatly to the appearance of the church's interior.

H. R. Zosinger, secretary of the Florida Land and Improvement company of Philadelphia, former owner of the Putnam House in this city, was here on Wednesday. Mr. Zosinger came to complete the final transfer of the Putnam House property to L. H. and W. A. Merryday, who are now the sole owners and without the least shadow on their title.

Mayor Usina has notified the police to arrest all women found in saloons. The women of the demi-monde have been in the habit of visiting the saloons in the upper part of Lemon street. They are not to be allowed this privilege further. The mayor has also ordered all soiled dove coats within two blocks of saloons to be vacated, and the order is being enforced by Chief of Police Hagans.

Miss Rosalie Price and Capt E. Noble Cuthbert entertained a large party of society young people last Monday night at the Armory. The party was in honor of Miss Genevieve Merrill and Mr. Frank D. Wattle's, whose marriage will occur at eight o'clock next Wednesday evening. Hearts were played until 10 o'clock after which dancing was indulged in until midnight. Dainty refreshments, including ice cream and cakes, were served. The prizes were won by Dr. Rosenberg, Miss Bassett and Miss Vorns. The Armory was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

E. T. Redding of Interlachen was in the city a couple of days this week shaking hands with his numerous friends. Mr. Redding has opened a general merchandise store in Interlachen, and is delighted with the prospects of the little town. A real estate has been purchased in the town during the past winter by new settlers and the citizens, knowing they have a pleasant and healthful place of residence, have gotten together in a development association for the purpose of conveying this information to others. Growth is the slogan of all of the citizens of the place now.

Miss Fannie M. Thomas, for the past two years manager of the Western Union Telegraph company's office in this city, has resigned and on Tuesday left for Jacksonville. Her marriage with Mr. W. L. Brenner, chief clerk for the superintendent of the company in Jacksonville, has been announced for the 18th inst. to take place in that city. During her stay here Miss Thomas has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Haughton, and they, together with all others who have had the pleasure and privilege of her acquaintance, are wishing her a long and happy life.

Well Pleased With Palatka.

Chas. J. Smith of St. Albans, Vt., came here last week and after staying a few days liked it so well he determined to locate. Mr. Smith is an optician and jeweler and seeing a good opening at his business in the Perry Kenner stock he bought it and has leased the present store room.

Mr. Smith was seen in the store on Wednesday taking account of stock and arranging it all in an orderly manner. He is a young man of energy, thoroughly posted in every detail of his business and states that he is going to give the people of Palatka a high-grade stock of goods to make selections from.

Besides a full line of jewelry, watches and gems Mr. Smith will carry a stock of etchings and other pictures, bric-a-brac etc., together with a stock of optical goods. He fitting the eyes and understands the business thoroughly.

Mr. Smith states that he likes Palatka very much. He will leave for New York early next week to purchase new goods, and will be gone some ten days.

The stock was sold to Mr. Smith by F. J. Fearnside.

The City Council.

At the regular meeting of the city council on Tuesday night an ordinance granting the G. S. & F. R. Y. privilege of laying track on Laurel street for four blocks, between Fourth and Jones street, was read for information and laid over. A new building ordinance went through the same process.

H. H. Sanders was appointed a policeman to take the place of G. G. Sanford resigned. Mr. Sanders served for a time last year. Mr. Sanford had been on the force for nine years and was a good officer. He resigned because he could do better in a financial way, and has accepted a position as bartender for J. P. Brennan last Tuesday.

T. J. Thompson for the past year or more superintendent of the street railway system, was made a special policeman for six months.

The Confederate Flags.

The Florida flags of the Confederacy, of those of them that were captured by the Federal army during the civil war and which have been held by the general government up to a month ago when they were returned to the state, were publicly received with solemn and impressive ceremony in the Hall of Representatives at Tallahassee last Tuesday.

The hall was crowded to the doors by members of both branches of the legislature, distinguished visitors, Veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy.

Ex-Gov. E. P. Fleming delivered an eloquent speech and Gov. Broward also addressed the gathering. The flags were brought into the hall by old veterans who had fought under them, and many were visibly affected by again looking upon the faded and tattered colors.

Mr. McLeod Again.

Rev. S. J. McLeod, the venerable Baptist preacher against whom the late grand jury failed to find a true bill on the charge of accusing another of crime, was in the city last Friday.

The reverend gentleman feels that the News has done him an injustice. This paper had no such intention. Mr. McLeod says he has been the victim of blackmail and malicious presentation and that the persons who were guilty of it are dangerous and the community would do well to get rid of them. All the News has done was to publish the charges against Mr. McLeod. The grand jury has said by its action that there was nothing in them. That ought to suffice, and does.

Beale-Renault.

Mr. George F. Beale and Miss Alice Christine Renault were quietly married at the bride's residence on Lemon street Monday evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. Father Patrick Barry, pastor of St. Monica's Catholic church in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives.

Mr. Beale is a valued employe of the Palatka ferry and is well liked and popular with all who know him.

Miss Renault is the daughter of the late Dr. Renault, who was a prominent physician in the early days of Palatka, and is a lady of an unusual charming and sunny disposition, admired and respected by all.

The newly wedded couple have begun house-keeping in the cozy little home of Mr. Beale in the north end of the city, and the well-wishes of a host of friends accompany them.

Woman's Fortnightly Club.

On Friday April 28, the Woman's club held a very interesting meeting at their club rooms.

After the usual business was disposed of the president introduced Mrs. James S. Church, who then addressed the club on "Domestic Science." Mrs. Church, who formerly occupied the chair of domestic science in the University of Illinois, proved herself an admirable speaker and showed a thorough knowledge of her subject.

After the meeting light refreshments were served, and a pleasant half hour was spent socially, during which Mrs. Gates of Welaka favored the club with one of her delightful readings. —Press Correspondent.

Manager John Kane.

John Kane has been promoted to be manager of the local Western Union Telegraph office and is now in charge. He is probably the youngest manager of such an important office in the state. This new manager is a son of the late Pat Kane. He entered the office some eight years ago as a "little kid" and has practically grown up in it. He is a competent operator and his friends are predicting that he will be more than equal to his new responsibilities and dignity.

BAIR-DERBY WEDDING

Solemnized Wednesday Evening in St. James M. E. Church.

One of the prettiest weddings of the spring season was that on Wednesday evening at St. James M. E. church, south of Miss Agnes Volund's Derby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Derby, and Mr. Robert Bruce Bair, prominent young people of this city.

Long before the hour for the ceremony the church was crowded with an assemblage of interested friends, even the vestibules being packed to their utmost capacity. The decorations throughout the church were beautiful, a color scheme of white and green being very effectively employed.

Shortly before 8 o'clock, Mrs. Wm. G. Tilghman, the talented organist of St. James, rendered a short program of a few selections. After this Miss Susie Lee Walton and Mabel Holcomb, the signal attendants, handsomely gowned in white organdies, entered the church. At this juncture the beautiful congratulatory march began and the wedding party entered in the following order: First, the ushers, Messrs. J. T. Dunn, H. Finley Tucker, D. F. Partin and Ernest Holcomb, followed by the bride's attendants, Miss Pearl Ringham, Clyde Estess, Joseph Haskell and Alta Brakeman, all the latter attired in beautiful white organdies, and carrying large clusters of white oleanders. Following these came the groomsmen, Mr. Chas. Burr and the bridesmaid, Miss Nellie Marshall; next the maid of honor, Miss Annie Carlisle Bucky, followed by the flower girls, little Misses Ollie Tilghman and Priscilla Haman. The bride then entered leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Edward Derby. They were met at the altar by the groom, attended by his brother, Mr. Benj. B. Bair, as best man. The party formed almost a complete circle around the chancel rail, and then Rev. C. T. Gates, the pastor of St. James, in a most impressive manner pronounced the words that united the young couple.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white peau de soie with lace trimmings, and white brider veil and carried a large cluster of brides roses. Her only ornament was a handsome pearl buckle, an heirloom of her father's.

The maid of honor, Miss Minnie Bucky was attired in a beautiful princess costume of white habutai silk and carried a large shower bouquet of pink roses.

The flower girls, little Misses Ollie Tilghman and Priscilla Haman, were dressed in pure white, and with their hair in little baskets, filled with white and pink rose pedalis, presented a charming picture.

The young lady attendants all wore white organdies.

The gentlemen of the party were attired in the conventional costumes of black.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the organist rendered a selection from Taubhauser, and the bridal party filed out of the church by the south aisle, preceded by the little flower girls strewn rose pedalis in the pathway.

The party then repaired to the home of the bride's parents on Kirby street, where a reception was held. Some two hundred invited guests were present to give congratulations and best wishes. The parlor, library and dining room were prettily decorated with evergreens and oleanders. An elegant collation was served, and Misses Susie Lee Walton and Mabel Holcomb gracefully presided at the banquet table. Those assisting Mrs. Bair to receive her guests were: Mesdames John N. Walton, John Q. Tilghman, I. R. Steels, A. G. Phillips, and Miss Hattie Bucky, while Mrs. O. L. Pierce superintended the serving of refreshments, assisted by Messrs. Haskell, Ringham, Brakeman and Estes.

The newly wedded couple were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bair enter upon their wedded life under auspices most flattering, and have the best wishes of a host of admiring friends for a life full of contentment and happiness. For the present the young people will reside in this city, but expect to move to South Carolina.

Bicyclists of the city seem to have lost sight of the fact that there is an ordinance requiring bells and lamps to be used on wheels. This ordinance should be enforced as the recklessness of some riders makes it dangerous to pedestrians on the sidewalks where a "copper" is scarcely ever seen.

Dangers of Defective Plumbing.

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs of contagious diseases to which the human system readily succumbs.

Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures.

If in doubt, consult us regarding the piping and replacing defective fixtures with "Standard" Porcelain Enamelled Ware—acknowledged as the best sanitary equipment.
