The City Council.

The regular meeting of the city council on Tuesday night did some new business.

It made B. F. Hagan Sanitary Inspector to serve till October 1st without prejudice to his position as a policeman. He is simply a policeman.

The city clerk was authorized to issue burial permits, Mayor Usina having refused to issue them on the ground that it was no part of the mayor's duty.

A. S. Willard voiced the "kick" of all residents on Main street when he appeared before the council and made complaint that the railway company was using that street as a yard for storing cars. He urged the council to take some action. City Attorney Hilburn, who was present, said he had taken the matter up with the railway company, making demands that it cease to use the streets in the manner complained of. Then the council requested the city attorney to prepare an ordinance that would correct the nuisance.

N. S. Collins was employed to audit the books of the city collector and treasurer, and his pay for the work was fixed at $20.

An ordinance "to prescribe the fire limits and provide for fire protection in the City of Palatka" was read for information and referred to the ordinance committee.

An ordinance granting certain privileges to Postal-Telegraph-Cable company was read for information and also referred.

An ordinance granting the G. S. & F. Ry. Co. a franchise and right of way for its track along a portion of Laurel street and to operate its trains and cars thereon as a main line, which was read for the first time at last meeting was placed upon its second reading and passed by a unanimous vote. The ordinance appears in full in this paper.

Walter Thomas sent a communication complaining against the storage of loud smelling fertilizer by the W. A. Merryday Co. and his communication was referred to the sanitary committee.

The street committee was authorized to make a fill on Bronson street at a cost not to exceed $50.

Eminent Reformer to Speak.
Hon. Christopher Matheson, the brilliant reformer and eloquent advocate of Glinesville, will deliver an address on temperance at the Methodist church next Wednesday, May 24th, at 7:30 p. m. The address is to be in the interests of the coming local option election.

Mr. Matheson is one of the state's most gifted orators. He took a leading part in the recent wet and dry campaign in Alachua county, and in his address here will speak of the experience of his own county under the dry side. All who desire to give this question candid consideration would do well to hear Mr. Matheson on this occasion, and the committee in charge of the campaign cordially invite all to be present.

Mrs. R. O. Burton, Dead.

Mrs. R. O. Burton of Crescent City, wife of the well-known purser of the steamer Crescent, died at her home yesterday noon at 12:30 p. m. after an illness of two weeks, during most of which time her condition was considered most critical.

Mrs. Burton was formerly Miss Atkins and a niece of the late Dr. J. H. Harrison. She was active in the Episcopal church and the V. I. A. or Woman's club, at Crescent City, and a force in the social life of the place. Her home life was ideal and her death is a sad blow to her devoted husband, and little children, of whom there are four.

All members of the family were present at the time of her death. Her sister, Mrs. D. N. Gantler of Fitzroy, Ga. arrived on Tuesday and was also present. Another sister, Miss Florence Atkins, arrived from Savannah but a few moments after her sister's death.

The funeral will occur this morning.

Honored by Masons.

Judge E. E. Haskell of this city has received almost unprecedented honors at the hands of the various branches of Masonry in this state.

At the meeting of the Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons of Florida, in Jacksonville last week, he was presented, along with other living Grand High Priests, with a beautiful Grand High Priest's Jewel.

Judge Haskell filled the office of Grand High Priest in 1900. In 1899 he was Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of Florida and as such has the Grand Commander's Jewel.

Judge Haskell is the present Deputy Grand Master of the F. & A. M. of Florida, and according to the custom of that order is in line of promotion next year to the Grand Mastership. After he has filled this latter office Judge Haskell will fill a unique position in the history of Masonry in Florida in that he will have had the highest honors bestowed upon him of any Mason in the state.

Help Wanted. 1

The Griffing Bros., nurserymen at Jacksonville, Maclenny and Miami are advertising on the inside page of this paper for 100 experienced fruit pickers and 200 pickers and field hands. The Griffing's have 700 acres now planted in peaches and are preparing to plant 200 acres more. They are also large growers of cantaloupes. The help is wanted to gather these crops.

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Ackerman & Stewart.

The Diocesan Council of the Protestant Episcopal church, in session at St. Augustine last week, pronounced against professional base ball on Sunday. The council did not care to go on record as opposing the playing by amateurs on that day.

The legislative committee appointed to inspect the state convict camps had this in its report: "We find all the camps and prisoners in as good condition as circumstances will allow, with the exception of Messrs. Varn Bros. in Escambia county, where we find that in our opinion the prisoners are mistreated, and their health is poor. In nearly all cases, if not all, we find their feet swollen and in some cases so badly swollen that they could not wear shoes, and we recommend that the state inspector look into the matter. We find the eating department in bad condition, and recommend that the state inspector investigate."

The Mansfield Sale.

The auction sale of town lots at Mansfield yesterday was interrupted by a Deputy U. S. Marshal, who served notice that title to the land was in dispute. It seems D. S. Thompson of Boston and Palatka claims a one-fourth interest in an ancient tax title.

Mr. Pritchard of the Mansfield company claims it is a "hold up," that Thompson's claim is not valid, but this will be determined by the courts. The crowd at the auction was not large and no attempt was made to sell after the notice was served. The notice was not an injunction.

Mrs. Geo. Parrott, the aged mother of Hon. J. R. Parrott of Jacksonville, died at her home in Oxford, Me., last Sunday. Mr. Parrott, who had but just returned from a visit to his mother, left on receipt of the news to attend the funeral.

Harry Bonford of Tampa who shot Capt. G. E. Park, has been released on a $2,000 bond. Capt. Park's wound is healing and he is said to be out of danger. Bonford was too intimate with Mrs. Park, and the captain discovered them together in his own house some two weeks ago—then there was some shooting.

CURED HIS MOTHER OF RHEUMATISM.
"My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Ackerman & Stewart.
