Crescent City News

CRESCENT CITY.

is one of the most beautiful locations in Florida. Tourists will find it an ideal spot to spend the winter, or pass a few days of keen delight.

The town is on Crescent Lake (an arm of the St. Johns River) and is 100 miles by water, and 77 miles by rail from Jacksonville.

The all day river ride on the steamer Crescent, from Jacksonville to Crescent City, is one of the delightful experiences of Florida travel. The steamer leaves Jacksonville at 8 a. m. every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, reaching Crescent City at 6 p. m. This trip is the only daylight ride up the broad and picturesque St. Johns. The steamer has pretty cabins and offers a delightful outlook even in stormy weather.

Crescent City is the center of the orange growing industry in middle Florida, and beautiful groves surround the place.

Good boating, hunting and fishing will afford amusement for sportsmen.

Naptha launches can be secured cheaply for water trips.

Crescent City has good hotels and boarding houses at moderate rates.

Beautiful shaded walks and bicycle paths.

Personal and Social.

The hour for evening service at the Presbyterian church has been changed from 7:30 to 7 o'clock.

R. B. Bethel is again quite well and attending to business. For a time Mr. Bethel's condition was considered serious.

The steamer Crescent after undergoing repairs and official examination at the hands of the local government inspectors is again on its regular run.

Frank Gautier's new home on Prospect street is nearly ready for occupancy. The house is being painted by Messrs. J. L. Torrey and Will Carrier.

Capt. R. C. Ivory returned last Saturnay and is again at his pretty home on Market street. Mrs. Ivory and Mrs. Lynch expect to arrive about the first of November. All are glad to see Capt. Ivory back.

Some 18 or 20 hogs and pigs were impounded by the marshal last Friday afternoon. They were caught in the town limits. Crescent City will allow the privileges of the streets to cows but it draws the line at hogs, and it is a taut line, too.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dawes returned from New York last Friday evening and are again at their pleasant home in the northern part of town. Mr Dawes has been greatly benefitted by his summer's outing and all who have seen him since his return say they never saw him looking so fleshy and well.

The Village Improvement Association is preparing to enlarge the hall by an addition to the rear and as soon as Mr. Eaton finishes his present work he is expected to take this in hand. The new addition will be as large as one of the present side wings to the hall, thus giving considerable extra room.

The sad but not unexpected death of Elmer E. Smith was received here last week. After a long illness he died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Pierson, at Louisville, Ky., and his mother was with him to the last. Mr. Smith was formerly a popular citizen of this place, and was a brother of Paul C. Smith, of this place and Mrs. C. J. McGrady of St. Augustine.

Lounds' drug store is making a medicine for chills and fever which has had a good sale during the past season and which has been very successful as a cure. Mr. Lounds states that the medicine is equally effective as a cure for colds, billiousness, headache, malaria and even grip. The medicine is known as No. 44, and is advertised on this page of the News.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Norris, who have been spending the summer at their old home in Wellsville, Ohio, with their daughters, expect to return in a very short time and reopen their pretty cottage at the corner of Summit st. and Florida avenue. Mr. Norris writes that he has not been well for the last month, but is improving slowly, and will start for Florida just as soon as he feels able to stand the trip.

Rev. Frederick Pasco, presiding elder of the East Florida district of the M. E. church south, was here last Saturday and Sunday and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Johnson of Grovesdale. Mr. Pasco preached to large congregations in the Grovesdale church on Sunday morning and evening. At the quarterly conference on Saturday it was decided to petition the presiding bishop to make one charge of Crescent City and Grovesdale, the plan being to ultimately build a church of this denomination in Crescent City.

Mr. Faris of Virginia, who has purchased the home of Rev. D. Spencer at Silver Pond, it is understood is a photographer and will open a photograph gallery here this winter.

Miss Mabel Braddock was brought back from the hospital at St. Augustine last Friday evening and is again at her father's home in Denver. Her condition is said to be serious, though early in the present week she had rallied some.

Some 15 or 16 children come in to school each morning from the Denver neighborhood in a comfortable two horse conveyance provided by Mr. Jos. J. McGrady. These children constitute a merry party and all seem highly pleased with the arrangements.

C. L. Chamberlin has some pleasant furnished apartments for light house keeping over his store. Parties from the north who contemplate spending the winter here should not overlook the advantages of these centrally located and pleasant rooms.

Eaton Cliff has returned to his home in Providence, R. I. Mr. Cliff did not sell his place while here, but left word that he and Mrs. Cliff would return in a short time and occupy the house for the winter. Since visiting Crescent City last winter the stork has called at their home, so that when they return there will be a little Cliff.

Capt. Thos. P Haddock of Savannah spent a few days here this week the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. C. Grimsley. Capt. Haddock who is interested with Mr. Grimsley in orange grove properties on the east side of lake Crescent, is a conductor on the Southern R'y running between Jacksonville and Savannah.

Building operations are pushing at the Longs Station turpentine camp and many a Crescent City workman is finding profitable employment there. The new company is putting up many buildings and getting in shape to do an extensive business. The lands of the company extend to Lake George and covers many thousands of acres of turpentine trees.

Mrs. J. W. Miller and the children returned from a three month's sojourn in the mountain districts of North Carolina last Friday, and are all now quite well, though for some time during their absence both the children were ill. Capt. Miller has not made much improvement, but he is now under the care of a specialists at Asheville and has great hopes of securing benefit.

Mrs. David L. Hurst, nee Miss Willie Buchanan, an always popular young lady in Crescent City, is again with us and will be the guest for the winter of her sister, Mrs. Jas. Padgett, jr. Mrs. Hurst was married last winter, and her husband died suddenly within three months after their marriage while living in Atlanta. Her many admiring friends in Crescent City are delighted to have Mrs. Hurst with us again

Chas. Curtis has been engaged during the past week in laying pipe in the streets for the municipal gas plant. Mr. Curtis says he will have all the pipe laid in about 10 days, and then there will be the street lamps to place—then turn on the flame and Crescent City will be in a blaze of glory these dark nights and you won't have to be so particular where you step.

Among the young groves about Crescent City none present a more thrifty appearance than does that of Mr. B. F. Tillinghart of Davenport, Iowa, which lies a mile south of town on the Seville road. This grove was badly injured by the frost of last winter and many of the smaller branches of the trees were killed. These dead branches were not generally disturbed. During the summer the trees have made a vigorous growth, and those in the south end, particularly, ought to be heavy bearers the coming year.

William C. Norton has received word from Rev. L. S. Chafer that the Southfield Bible conference will open here on February 15th. At a later day the News hopes to give the names of speakers who will figure on the program. If this bible conference is to become a permanent thing something ought to be done to arouse greater interest abroad and provide accommodations for those who will come. As conducted for the past two years they have been little more than local affairs with indifferent interest at home.

The new blackboards for the school arrived last week and were put in place by Mr. Eaton last Saturday. These boards run the full length of the school rooms on one side and also across one end, giving ample blackboard space. The school is receiving fresh additions very day and now numbers nearly 90 pupils. The children and parents all seemed pleased with the school and there seems to be no reason why the ensuing year should not be one of great progress with the pupils.

Rev. Lamar C. Stewart, pastor of the Fruitland circuit M. E. church, south, is now in Atlanta undergoing treatment at Dr. Calhoun's sanitarium for his hearing. At last report he had submitted to one operation with some benefit, but would have to undergo other operations. During his absence the work of the circuit is being taken care of by Rev. J. P. Besant of Satsuma Heights, whose visits and sermons are greatly enjoyed by all privileged to know and hear him.

POMONA.

School commenced Monday morning, Miss Manier having returned Saturday much improved in health.

W. H. Cook is building a large packing house to be in readiness to handle his crop of oranges which will be largest for many years.

The horse belonging to W. E. Hobbs who is in New Hampshire, and which he recently left in care of E. L. Eames, met with an accident Saturday while attempting to jump a wire fence, resulting in him having to be killed.

Master Talmage Middleton from Hortense, Ga., will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn.

The V. I. A. ladies are making preparations for a Hallowe'en party to take place in the hall on Hallowe'en night, October 31st. The frolic for a part of the evening will be an affair of masks and appropriate costumes for Hallowe'en, and the committee in charge will, from all accounts, give a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rayburn of Lulaton, Ga., are pleasantly located in the new cottage belonging to W. S. Middleton.

Miss Margaret Bradt of Huntington has been the guest of Mrs. O. S. Hendrick.
