BY ALL MEANS, LET US BE FAIR.

In spite of the national disapproval of attacks on unarmed merchantmen by German submarines...

Great Britain has shown insufferable impertinence toward this country; she has interfered with our commerce...

Her desire to "starve" Germany into surrender deserves no aid from the United States...

The Metropolis believes in fair play. Now that Germany has been given her orders, let us give England hers...

And in the meantime, let there be an embargo on war supplies of every kind for the belligerent nations...

THEY STILL BLAME WILSON.

No President of these United States for fifty years, has been forced to face such trying ordeals as those confronting President Wilson...

Even a paper like "Colliers," supposedly fair and non-partisan, tries to stab him to the heart...

This was the hideous old traitor who murdered Madero, the only decent president the republic of Mexico has known for half a century.

But what care these people whose only estimate of mankind is made in dollars and cents?

This monied aristocracy abuse Wilson for not urging Congress to declare war on Germany...

President Wilson has proven himself a humane official. He realizes that his people are not prepared for war...

For the past two years, just as rapidly as American factories could make a rifle, there was a British soldier ready to use it.

The SOUTH, after the lapse of nearly fifty years, still suffers from its indiscretion from getting into a fight with nothing to fight with...

We are somewhat like the old negro cook who boasted,—"jist gimme de grievances and show me how, and I'll cook as fine a dinner as anybody!"

We are not going to see a real good scrap going on and stand idly by and watch it. We are just as fond of this pastime as the next man...

the higher court with a bill of exceptions that contained hundreds of pages and took weeks to prepare. Every possible objection was made during the trial and in each instance where the defense lost exceptions were taken...

But the court took the broad ground and looked at the whole case rather than at tiny parts of it. It reviewed the whole case and determined that Mendenhall had had a fair and impartial trial and had been convicted justly. It refused to reverse the judgment of the lower court because no error that was prejudicial to the defendant that affected the verdict had been committed...

Making Democrats of Republicans.

Orlando Reporter-Star: Editor Triplett of the St. Cloud Tribune is getting the credit for changing the Republicans at St. Cloud to Democrats. No doubt Editor Triplett's influence has been toward this end, but we rather suspect that the change of policy had already taken place or was in the process of forming when Editor Triplett appeared on the scene...

POMONA NEWS.

Our winter residents are fast taking their departure and while we very much regret to bid them good bye, we wish them a pleasant summer, and look forward to an early return next season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stevens left Monday for their home at Hopewell Junction, N. Y., and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wing who live in the summer time in Paterson, N. Y.

Mrs. C. L. Smith who has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Piplar, has gone to points farther south to spend the summer season with relatives.

Miss Marjory Rogers has returned from Brunswick, Ga., where she has spent the past five months, and her friends are pleased to see her again. Rev. R. C. Drisko attended the State C. E. Convention held in DeLand last week, and a number of other members of the Pomona society, motored down Sunday for the day, reporting a most enthusiastic and enjoyable convention.

Rev. W. Hopkins of Atlanta, Ga., Supt. of Congregational work in the South, preached here on Easter, morning and evening to large and appreciative audiences. Mrs. E. H. Byrons had charge of the C. E. service which held a short session, giving the time to Mr. Hopkins who our people were much pleased to have an opportunity of hearing again. Next Sunday we shall have a visit from Rev. Geo. B. Waldron, Supt. of the work in this state, and he will conduct the morning service to which all are earnestly invited.

Leland Williams has moved his household goods to Bartow, where he and his family will reside in the future.

Friends of Miss Mary Summer who for a number of weeks was the guest of Mrs. Grace Cook, will regret to hear that soon after her arrival in Boston, she sustained a fractured shoulder and arm by a fall in her home. We hope for her a speedy recovery from the accident.

Mrs. E. H. Byrons and small daughter Dora, left Wednesday for their home near Danbury, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edmonds terminated their visit here Saturday, and returned to Daytona Beach where they have a pleasant winter home.

Our school closed Saturday afternoon with a pleasing little entertainment by the pupils, and a large number of patrons and friends were present. At the close of the program Mrs. Byrons gave a short farewell talk followed by remarks by the school trustees, W. M. Williams and W. E. Mew. Miss Natha Mew won the prize in the principals room for attaining the highest average, and in the primary department the reward was received by Donald Middleton who possessed the largest number of merit cards...

Miss Claude Green after a month's visit home, has returned to her work at Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Burlington, Iowa, have been guests at the Wedertz home for a few days.

NASHUA NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pierre left Saturday evening on the Osceola for Jacksonville where they will sail on a Clyde Line steamer for their summer home in New York City.

Mrs. B. W. Bray spent several days last week in Palatka with her daughter, Mrs. deNazario.

Services were held Sunday afternoon and an excellent sermon was preached. There was special Easter music. A duet by Mrs. C. W. Loveland and Mrs. Bray. There was some beautiful flowers consisting of pond lilies and sweet peas.

Many will be sorry to learn of the home of Dr. Mitchell's being destroyed by fire Tuesday night. The fire started in the gable about ten o'clock. Nothing could be saved. Dr. Mitchell's house was one of the nicest homes in this section. The house is better known as the Highland house, owned by Mrs. Dunbar. For a good many years Mrs. Dunbar ran a boarding house; after her death it was sold to Dr. Mitchell of Manitowish, Wis. The fire was a great loss to this community.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Coombs left Wednesday morning for their summer home in Sandown, N. H. We hope to see them returning early in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bard spent Sunday with friends and relatives in Norway.

Farmers Attention!

To those who are interested in the canning of fruits and vegetables this summer, and intend to buy a canning machine, which, by the way, is an indispensable part of the work, should make it a point to drop in at the board of trade and examine the canning machine that Miss Sipprell, the county agent of the Girls Canning Club, has on exhibition, and get prices on same before purchasing.

These are excellent machines and the manufacturers, in order to get them before the people, are offering them at a very low price.

I highly recommend them to any one that contemplates canning vegetables and think you would make no mistake in buying one of these machines.

Yours in the service, L. CANTRELL, County Agent.

Canning Club News. It will no doubt be interesting to the people of Putnam county to know that we have had with us for the past two days Miss Harris, the State Agent in charge of Home Demonstration work at the State Woman's College, Tallahassee. Miss Harris is very much interested in watching the development of Putnam county in this line of work...

Watch For Melon Aphids. The melon aphid is one of the most troublesome followers of the melon crop. It usually depends on it. It feeds on citrus now because the melons are not ready. It will soon migrate to watermelons, cantaloupes, cucumbers and any other member of the melon family that happens to be convenient.

Monday morning Miss Harris and I talked over the condition of the work in this county, and laid plans for beginning a new, and heavier campaign for the coming season. We are working for a far greater average in canning, preserving and jelly making than ever before.

Monday afternoon we went by auto to Springville, to visit the plants of the canning club girls. At Mr. Conway's we found a fine field of strawberries, and they were preparing them for market while we were there. From Mrs. Loreta Conway, two of our club girls, we hope to have a fine exhibit in strawberry preserves and jelly for the fall contest. At Mrs. Canning's we found some more club girls, who have been doing fine work so far with the tomato plants. From them we expect a fine exhibit in canned tomatoes. We visited other places, talking canning club work and household conveniences.

Tuesday morning was spent, giving a demonstration in canning tomatoes. The meeting was at the school house at Peniel and we set the canner up, under the oaks, and proceeded to can the fresh tomatoes. About 15 persons were present, and a great deal of interest was manifested in this line of work.

Tuesday afternoon we held a similar demonstration at the school house at Rodman. About 30 persons were present, including the school children. We visited five homes in Rodman in the interest of this work, after which we looked over three of the girls' plants. Notwithstanding the drought and frosts, we found the girls plants in fairly good condition, and they are keeping good record books.

The canning season will soon be on and I would like those interested in buying canners to visit the board of trade rooms where I have a canner on exhibition. We try to find a canner, especially fitted for the use of club girls, at lowest possible price. Persons interested may write me, or call $100 Reward. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is an old dreaded disease that has been able to cure in all the states that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. It is a constitutional disease, and Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution, assisting nature in doing her work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for literature. P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
