Personal and Social.

Percy Bevins left last week for his home in Vermont.

Miss Helen Tillinghast has been spending some days at Daytona Beach.

Miss Alma Burckhalter of Aiken, S. C., is the guest of Miss Ruby Mathis.

Mrs. J. A. Phillips has been quite seriously ill for the past two or three weeks.

Mrs. J. H. Babers and Miss Madge Wise of Huntington were visitors here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Noble and Mrs. Dr. Royston of Chicago, were Saturday arrivals at Grove Hall.

Mrs. J. C. L. Bastford of Como was in town last week—shopping and visiting friends and relatives.

Rev. J. C. Dorward left last week for New York. Mrs. Dorward and little daughter are still here.

Miss Abbie Miller entertained her classmates in the high school at 6 o'clock dinner last Friday evening.

The Crescent City base ball team has reorganized for the coming season and will go after all local scalps.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Hurlong of Atlanta, arrived last week on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. E. L. Mathis.

Mrs. J. J. Horton and Mrs. A. B. Torrey spent the week end in DeLand, guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Waterman.

There will be special services appropriate to Easter at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. A special musical program will be provided.

Capt. and Mrs. Geo. S. Crotty have moved into their new residence on north Prospect street, one of the coziest in this little city of cozy homes.

Mrs. C. H. Preston entertained some 15 ladies at a tea given in honor of Mrs. H. L. Tibbets, and her niece, Mrs. Christian of Indianapolis, last Saturday afternoon.

The ladies of the Musician Club are preparing to give a musicale and social at the Auditorium on the evening of April 3d, and at which ice cream and cake will be served. Keep it in mind.

Ernest Norris has purchased a half interest in the merchandise business of J. W. Long and is now attending to that business. The store and stock is to be enlarged immediately.

The office in the Bank of Crescent has a new and beautiful clock of the Colonial pattern to tick off the time, and which was presented to the bank by its vice-president, Mr. M. H. Read.

The "Bull Frog" is the name of A. B. Torrey's trim 7 1/2 horse power launch, which was put in the water last week. The boat will be used both for towing and for pleasure purposes. It was built by Capt. John D. Figue.

The ladies of the Church of the Holy Comforter (Episcopal) will give a sale and supper at V. I. A. hall next Wednesday evening, March 30th. This supper, also, should receive the patronage of the people generally. Remember the date.

Wallace Smiley is again chief clerk in Chamberlin's store. Mr. Smiley is one of the most popular young men in the place, whose services are always in demand, whether it be for managing the packing of oranges, or in merchandising.

The Southfield Hotel, which has been doing a good business through the winter, and has made many fast friends, will keep open during the summer months. Mr. Kinard expects to make many improvements during the dull season of summer.

Jesse McCormick, who has been shipping considerable truck from his farm, lost quite heavily by the late frost. Many of his potatoes and other growing crops were injured. Mr. McCormick had been shipping considerable truck up to the time of the cold last week.

Rev. R. W. Parrott will preach next Sunday morning and evening in the Methodist church. On the Saturday and Sunday following, April 2d and 3d, will be the quarterly meeting, when the presiding elder, Rev. Edward F. Ley of Miami, will be present and officiate.

At the annual election of the V. I. A. last week the following officers were chosen: President, Mrs. A. B. Torrey; 1st vice-president, Mrs. C. H. Preston; 2nd vice-president Mrs. Eaton Cliff; secretary, Mrs. W. M. Miller; librarian, Mrs. E. H. Williams. The office of treasurer was left vacant until next meeting.

The Sprague House, under the management of Mr. E. B. Couant, has been doing a very satisfactory business this winter. Its central location makes it easy of access to people arriving by boat and travelers for St. Johns Park have given this house a good patronage. Mr. Couant will keep the house open all summer.

Mrs. J. H. Bunker of Springfield, Mass., a lady who has spent several former seasons here and who has a large circle of sincere friends and admirers in Crescent City, is again at Grove Hall for the balance of the season. The launch "Josephine," Capt. La Bree's newest passenger boat on the lake Stella run, was so named in honor of Mrs. Bunker.

The supper given by members of the Catholic congregation last week, and in aid of the fund for the new Catholic church, was one of the best patronized church suppers ever given in the town. The ladies of the place quite generally donated to the supper and the tables were well supplied. The net proceeds of the supper and dancing party after were $106.50. This amount was swelled by outside donations to something like $130. As a social proposition the supper was as much a success as it was financially.

Thos. H. Stryker had the road to Oakwood spread with pine straw at his personal expense, thereby securing to himself the thanks of all who use the road.

Major J. L. Burton has been appointed county registration officer for this precinct and will have his books ready for all who want to register to-morrow (Saturday) the 25th. All who are qualified should register.

Harry Powell has returned from Nashville, Tenn., and taken his old place in the Preston-Miller mills. As soon as he can secure a house his family will come. It is a little over a year since Mr. Powell and family left here for Nashville. He is a fine workman and the mill and tub factory was glad to get him back.

A. K. Hawkes Co., the well-known opticians of Atlanta will have a special-ist here on April 8th and 9th, who will make headquarters at Lounds drug store.

Mr. Lounds says he has assurances that a licensed man of undoubted ability will represent the company, and states that all who are in need of glasses can meet him in full assurance that they will get scientific treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pratt expect to leave for their northern home today, stopping enroute at Green Cove Springs and Savannah, at which latter place they will spend two or three weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Porter Pierpont. The people of Crescent City say au revoir to these good people for the summer season regretfully, and will await with pleasant anticipation their return in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pratt expect to leave for their northern home today, stopping enroute at Green Cove Springs and Savannah, at which latter place they will spend two or three weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Porter Pierpont. The people of Crescent City say au revoir to these good people for the summer season regretfully, and will await with pleasant anticipation their return in the fall.

Mrs. Agnes W. Seaton and her son, Mr. George Seaton, of Saugerties-on-Hudson, who have been spending some weeks here, left last week for Green Cove Springs. Mrs. Seaton expects to build a beautiful home in Crescent City next winter on the property fronting Lake Crescent, next north of the Williams grove, and which she purchased of Hon. Wm. Ryan. It is one of the most beautiful building sites in the place.

Rev. Father P. Barry of Palatka was here on Tuesday making arrangements for the building of the new Catholic church, which will be a part of his parish. Father Barry stated that he had already ordered the brick for the building. The plans show a church edifice of pleasing design, and somewhat artistic. Father Barry expressed himself as wonderfully well pleased at the success of the recent church supper, and is entering into his work at this place with great enthusiasm.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Wilson of Utica, Ohio, who spent several days here last week, guests at the Southfield Hotel, were so well pleased with the place that they decided to make Crescent City their winter home. Mr. Wilson purchased the Smith place out two miles on Union avenue. This place consists of about 20 acres of land and 400 trees. There is also a large house on the place. It is also Mr. Wilson's intention to build a fine bungalow on one of our town lots and Mr. M. H. Read has already selected a beautiful location for them.

Mr. Eaton Cliff has made a suggestion that the News trusts will appeal to many of our winter residents. This is that they get into the forthcoming U. S. census as a part of Florida's population. Mr. Cliff says that it is his purpose to do so; that he has large property interests here, lives here six months of the year and that he feels he is a part and parcel of the state of Florida. Mr. Cliff says that he expects to leave for the north on the 16th of April, but that as soon as he learns who is to do the work of the census here, he will apply to him to give in his family and property statistics. The work of the census will begin April 15th. Let other winter residents and orange grove owners consider this subject from Mr. Cliff's viewpoint.

Mr. M. H. Read celebrated his 70th birthday last Sunday, the 20th inst. On Saturday evening and all day Sunday many friends called and left bouquets and small remembrances of the occasion, together with their hearty congratulations. Mr. Read has resided in Crescent City almost continuously for the past 20 years and has done his full part in the development of the place, both in the way of improving his own property and talking others into the notion of coming here to settle. He is vice-president of the bank, does a real estate business and talks Crescent City all the time. May he live long, and prosper.

The special services at the Methodist church which were brought to a close last Tuesday night, were not generally so well attended as their importance demanded, probably because of the great number of special meetings previously held at the other churches. The attendance Sunday night completely filled the church, and the attendance at the week-night meetings showed a steady growth and increasing interest. Rev. Howard Dutil of Palatka, who was in charge of the meetings, is an eloquent and impressive gospel preacher, and his series of sermons constituted a powerful appeal to men to forsake sin and lead a Christian life. It is doubtful if a series of more intensely interesting sermons was ever delivered in Crescent City. There is nothing of the sensational in Mr. Dutil. He preaches the simple gospel, and his appeals are to the head and heart. There were several conversions, but these alone do not measure the full benefit to the community of his work for the Master.

The ladies in charge of the supper, for benefit of the new Catholic church, wish to tender their most sincere thanks for the liberal patronage given by the people in general in making it a success, financially, as well as socially.

Grove Hall Guests Entertain.

The ladies at Grove Hall, with Mrs. Geo. H. Herrick of Attleboro, Mass., Mrs. Frank Buck of Philadelphia, Mrs. Damp and Miss Malcolm of New York in charge as a committee on arrangements, gave a reception to the ladies and gentlemen of Crescent City on Wednesday evening of last week in the parlors of the hotel.

There were some 60 or more present and the evening was delightfully passed with music and games and guessing contests. Ice cream and cake were served during the evening. Those present pronounce this affair to have been one of the most delightful social functions of the present season.

LAKE COMO.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Davidson of Cleveland, O., are the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gates, at their beautiful bungalow, "Bonnie View."

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Jenkins have returned from Daytona, where they spent several days.

Miss Agnes Force has gone to St. Augustine to meet her parents, and all will return here after some days sight seeing in the Ancient City.

Miss Florence Haight, a very charming and attractive young lady of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Dusenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bromell and Miss Florence Haight, visited St. Johns Park recently.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Bromell entertained at a "bridge whist" party on St. Patrick's day, in honor of Mr. Williams, whose birthday occurred on that day. Refreshments of ice cream and cakes were served, all the decorations and refreshments being in green and white. A most enjoyable evening was spent, and best wishes were extended Mr. Williams for many happy returns of the day.

A great number of trees have been planted in the village by the former ladies V. I. A. Having a balance left, they set out the trees, which in time, will beautify the village greatly.

The stockholders of the Como Hall gave a delightful party at the hall recently—a large number were present and a most delightful evening was spent. Several selections on the violin by Mrs. C. C. Wheeler, were greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Wheeler is a violinist of exceptional ability—she was accompanied by Mrs. A. Skilton. A solo by Leonard Mainz was heartily enjoyed. Mrs. J. D. Mitchell sang a solo, and was encored. C. C. Sullivan made a speech in regard to the hall, which was followed by a song and dance by him—which was encored. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and dancing followed, old and young heartily entering into it.

Services were held at the M. E. church Sunday morning. Willie Gable led a very interesting league meeting in the evening, a solo, "Face to Face" by Leonard Mainz was beautifully rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward and son, of Connecticut are occupying the parsonage for a while.

A Useful Reminder.

Ad M. P. who in his magisterial capacity periodically visited a private lunatic asylum told the story of a man of some position in the legal world who went to see a patient who had occasional lapses into sanity. The patient made a great impression on his visitor as a well informed, healthy minded gentleman and was assured that his case should be inquired into.

On leaving, the grateful patient courteously conducted his morning caller to the front door, affectionately pressing his hand at parting.

"You won't forget what I've told you," he pleaded, with tears in his voice.

"No," responded the visitor, turning round to descend the rather long flight of steps.

"I don't think you will," said the patient dreamily, "but lest you should you know—"

And, lifting up his foot, he gave the unsuspecting, defenseless visitor a kick behind that sent him spinning down the stairway and sprawling on the gravel.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Bird's White Feathers.

The occurrence of white feathers in a bird's plumage is very common. It is, of course, due to lack of coloring matter and is liable to appear in both young and old birds. I have known of several old birds to exhibit this peculiarity (mostly in the wing feathers, however), and it may be due to imperfect nutrition and circulation as the bird ages. I have also noticed it in young birds in a number of instances. The phenomenon thus cannot be said to occur simply as a result of old age, but is rather one of those slight changes in the bird's system the causes of which we do not know. There is this much more to be said, however—when a young bird starts out with a few white feathers they are usually retained throughout life, molting each time in a similar manner. Old birds may exhibit this loss of coloring at any time.—St. Nicholas

Patrick Henry's Fee.

It is said of Patrick Henry that during his practice of law in the Virginia courts and when he was familiarly addressed as "governor" a man who had been arrested for stealing a hog and who was out on bail went to the governor to have him defend him.

The governor said, "Did you walk away with that shout?"

"I don't like to say."

"Out with it."

"Yes, sir."

"Yes, you got the carcass?"

"Yes, sir."

"You go home, you wretch, cut the pig lengthwise in half and hang as much of it in my smokehouse as you keep in yours."

At court the governor said, "Your honor, this man has no more of that stolen shout than I have."

The man was cleared.—National Monthly.
