

REPORTED THAT THE NAVY YARD BILL PASSED

SAID THAT SENATOR FLETCHER'S AMENDMENT, APPROPRIATING ONE MILLION WAS PASSED BY CONGRESS.

It was reported in Pensacola last night that Senator Fletcher's amendment to the naval appropriation bill, introduced just before adjournment, passed, but this could not be confirmed. The amendment in question would allow about $1,300,000 for a graving dock, sea wall, etc., at the navy yard. Admiral Young and other naval officers had heard the report, but it was not official. There was much confusion at the end of congress, and if the amendment passed it is not likely that Senator Fletcher himself knows of it, as none of those with whom he was in correspondence have been advised.

Intervention Means War, Says Mexican Official

vers, were taken prisoners on Mexican territory and not American soil as falsely has been reported by the press.

The two prisoners referred to in the statement are both Americans who joined the insurgents operating along the Rio Grande. They were captured by Mexican federal troops and are now in prison. It has been stated that both men were taken after they crossed the boundary into the United States.

Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, confidential agent here for the Mexican revolutionary party, today made reply to Jose Yves Limantour. Dr. Gomez declares the minister of finance to be a part of the "system" of the Diaz government and as such his suggestions in reference to a cessation of hostilities are of little value. The revolutionists, Dr. Gomez said, will lay down their arms until the Diaz regime is overthrown.

"In regard to damages suffered by foreign interests," said Dr. Gomez, "the revolutionary party desires to be distinctly understood that when it shall have assumed control of the federal government, it will hold itself strictly responsible in accordance with requirements of international law for full compensation for all such damages."

GEN. CARTER IN COMMAND.
Major General William H. Carter, who will be in command of the army in Texas, left tonight for San Antonio. General Carter appeared to be the most tranquil influence at the war department today notwithstanding the responsibility which he is about to assume. He handled thousands of men in actual field service in the Philippine insurrection, but apparently there is no thought of actual war in General Carter's mind just now.

After months of study, the general staff has adopted an entire new system of field movements and tactics. These have been tried in a small way by the many small units into which the army is divided, but never before has there been a proper opportunity to demonstrate the workings of the new system on a large scale.

It has been many years since the commissary department has had an opportunity to test its facilities for supplying an army division with food through a campaign and no one knows how it can respond to this sudden demand for the rapid transportation of thousands of men from various army posts to one particular point.

The army officers who are making this experiment appear to be honestly desirous of conveying the idea that they are going to play the war game and nothing more and they assert with the utmost positiveness that nothing in the plans which they have prepared and are now working out contemplates the crossing of the Mexican boundary line by any of the troops.

IMPORTANT BEARING.
Whether the concentration of a fourth of the standing army of the United States along the Mexican border and the moving of a portion of the navy southward along both sea coasts is or is not an extensive movement, yet many persons here familiar with political conditions in Mexico regard the action of the United States at this particular time as likely to have an important bearing on future events in the Diaz republic.

Persistent reports have been received in this city that a change in the cabinet of President Diaz soon will be made and the state department also has been so informed unofficially. In these changes the American government is keenly interested. Apart from any moral effect on the treatment accorded American interests in the present disorders, it is suggested that the military demonstration of the United States, whether so intended or not, may have a potential influence on the political crisis in Mexico City.

Senator Limantour, Mexican minister of finance, who is now in New York, is slated for the post of minister of foreign affairs. He has long been recognized as an advisor in whom President Diaz placed much reliance.

INFANTRY AT FT. ROOT ORDERED IN READINESS

By Associated Press.
Little Rock, Ark., March 8.—Col. Loosier, of Fort Logan H. Root, has received orders from headquarters to hold the third battalion of the Fourth Infantry in readiness and to grant no furloughs. This order is taken to mean that this battalion may be ordered to Texas at any time and it would not be surprising if the orders to move come today. The activity about the fort gives every indication that the soldiers are expecting to receive moving orders. Col. Loosier says his command is in perfect readiness to go at any time.

A NEWSPAPER ADVERTISEMENT PROBABLY SAVED HIS LIFE.

In December 1905 I suffered severely with pains in my kidneys and could not sleep nights on account of backache. I became run down, fell off in weight and was at that point when I thought I would have to stop my work as saw filer at the Cedar Creek Saw Mill Co.

I had used about everything and had called in my doctor, but all to no avail. After seeing your advertisement in the newspaper, I made up my mind to try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as a last resort. After three months treatment I passed a gravel stone and at the end of one year's treatment, I was positively cured of all kidney troubles. After taking the first bottle I could sleep at night.

Now I am perfectly healthy and I honestly believe Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to be a thorough cure for kidney trouble.

I will allow you to publish this where it may aid others who are suffering and in closing I wish to thank you for my present good health.

Yours very truly,

By Associated Press.
New York, March 8.—First of the naval detachment to get away was the range ship Lebanon, which put to sea early this forenoon. Other units of the fleet division which, besides the armored cruisers, are the supply ships Celtic and Culgo, the hospital ship Solace, the repair ship Panther and the naval tenders Patapasco, Fatuxent and Xantong, were expected to get away at any time.

SEVEN HUNDRED MARINES SAIL FROM PHILADELPHIA

By Associated Press.
Philadelphia, March 8.—Seven hundred marines fully equipped for any service sailed south from the Philadelphia navy yard late this afternoon on the transport Prairie. They will be followed by a like number of sea fighters tomorrow on the transport Dixie. Instructions from Washington ordered the marines to mobilize in this city give the destination of the two transports as Guantanamo, but many believe that these orders may be changed and that the marines will be landed at a Texas port.

If the marines go Cuba they will arrive about the time the Atlantic fleet departs from Hampton Roads for spring practice.

The special trains bearing the troops will be run directly to the military reservation.

MOBILIZATION OF THE ARMY CAUSES TALK IN LONDON

By Associated Press.

London, March 8.—The mobilization of an army at the Mexican frontier has excited great interest among London politicians and business men but all are still in the dark as to whether the movement is for political or purely military reasons.

The foreign office denies that the British government suggested the action taken by Washington. But these officials speak in such diplomatic terms that their statements are not necessarily convincing.

There is little doubt expressed by the public and the newspapers that the political situation in Mexico caused President Taft's strong move. It is questioned, however, whether this government had any share in the matter.

So far as any extension of the power of the United States on the American continent is concerned, it is doubtful that such an outcome would be popular with the British public just at this time. The talk of the future annexation of Canada has created a protest on this side and this protest is just as strong against the political expansion of the United States generally.

Dealings in American securities today indicated that the stock exchange did not consider the general security of the country seriously threatened. Mexican bonds remained unchanged as did Southern Railway shares. Mexican railway securities ordinary 21-4 points, first pd. 13-4 and second pd. 13-4.

These always have been of a speculative character. Mexican National shares, which dropped several points recently, fell off 3-4 today.

Miguel Covarrubias, Mexican minister to Great Britain, was exceedingly annoyed over reports that foreign intervention in Mexico is possible. Such an outcome would be wholly unnecessary, he said.

"All Mexico is absolutely tranquil," declared Senor Covarrubias today, "except where a number of marauding bands are making raids in the extreme north among inaccessible mountains and these the government is holding in check."

"Any steps taken by the United States to patrol its own frontier will be welcomed as preventing insurrectionary movements from the United States across the border. This can be the only object of that government which is perfectly aware that most of these movements originated in the United States where Madero carries on his propaganda."

"As a matter of fact, the revolutionary leaders in the United States are themselves most anxious that no foreign intervention shall be endangered."

Westman Harold Miller Pearson, M. P., head of the contracting firm of S. Pearson & Sons, Ltd., which is the British concern having the greatest interests involved in the situation in Mexico, asserted today that he did not regard conditions there as in any way alarming. He said:

"We are constantly in receipt of cables from Mexico which suggest that the disturbances are merely brigandage. We have not heard direct from the affected area but hear constantly from Mexico City where all the news would be received from."

WHITE BOYS TURNED OVER TO THE COUNTY

THREE YOUNG BOYS CHARGED WITH ENTERING STORE ON EAST HILL WERE GIVEN HEARING IN CITY COURT YESTERDAY MORNING.

Frank Barlow, Bennie Ridgley, better known as "Spooks," and Willie Everett, three young white boys, were turned over to the county authorities and committed to the county jail yesterday morning after a hearing before the recorder on the charge of entering a store on East Hill Tuesday night and stealing some money.

The trial of these boys on so serious a charge had an amusing side, the fact being brought out at the trial that a black cat was the cause of their arrest. It is said that one of the boys stepped on the tail of the cat, which was asleep, and caused it to make a noise which aroused the keeper of the store and led to their discovery.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from loaf sugar, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no "superior for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.

GENERAL ORDERS TO THE VETERANS

The following general orders have been issued to Confederate Veterans: Headquarters First Brigade, Florida Division, United Confederate Veterans, Pensacola, Fla., March 1, 1911: The Brigadier-General commanding hereby notifies the camps that the 18th Annual Reunion of the First Brigade will be held at DeFuniak Springs, March 18, 1911. A fine program for the morning exercises is being prepared, and also an interesting entertainment to be conducted by the Daughters of the Confederacy during the afternoon. The officers of the Florida Chautauqua have sent out a pressing invitation to all Confederate and Daughters of the Confederacy to attend.

Matters of importance will come before the convention and all the camps are urged to send delegates to vote upon these questions, as well as for a commander for the ensuing year. The camps are reminded that their reports should be forwarded at once to Lieutenant-Colonel F. E. Day, Adjutant-General and Chief of Staff, at Milton, Fla. These reports should include a list of officers and members, the number of deaths during 1910, together with a remittance of five per capita fees of five cents a member.

The general hopes that each camp will appoint a sponsor and make of honor for the reunion and bring them. The death rate is rapidly increasing from year to year, and the commander desires to have a fitting memorial to departed comrades as part of the exercises of the coming Confederate Day, very similar to that of last year, and he believes that all comrades will make a special effort to be present at this solemn service.

Low transportation rates are promised, and it is hoped that convenient arrangements will be made for meals at reasonable rates, under the supervision of Brigade Commissary General. Everyone present enjoyed the last reunion, and the General has promise of a better one this time.

Camp commanders and other officers are urged to secure information as to railroad rates in ample time, and to make the same known to comrades, and to encourage them to attend.

Rates and other information will be published later.

The Empathetic Young Lady.

At the Georgia State Insane Asylum the harmless demented inmates are sometimes permitted to participate in dances and afternoon receptions arranged for their amusement. On one occasion a member of the Georgia legislature was present at a lawn party at which were gathered many of these mild-mannered unfortunates.

He saw one particularly pretty and attractive looking girl seated on one of the benches under the trees, and he engaged her in conversation. "Surely," he said sympathetically, "you are not an inmate of this place?" "Yes," she assured him; "I am."

"But you don't look a bit insane."

"Well, I'll tell you how it is," she explained. "I was put here because I can't keep from cursing. You see that man with the mop over there?"

The lawmaker nodded.

"Well, I formed the habit of writing cuss words on the walks. He goes around to wash them off. I'm two damn and a hell ahead of the mop now."

The woman moved on. Magazine.

Struck Blind.

An old man who had lived all his life on the moors, and had never seen a railway, was persuaded by his two sons to accompany them on a trip to Sheffield. Arriving at the station the old man was terrified at the sight of the train rushing into the station and exclaimed: "Let's go back, lads, or something will happen." But his sons bustled him into a carriage, where he sat looking terribly upset, and muttering to himself "Something will happen. The climax was reached when the train dashed into a tunnel, the old man crying out: "I knew something would happen. I'm struck blind."—Argonaut.

A noble lord, who had rooms in the buildings which adjoined the master's house, and who, contrary to regulations, kept a dog in college, went to college of the noise made by cats. After he had expatiated for some little time on this grievance, Dr. Scott said, with the gentle, slow drawl which lent additional force to his sallies: "Is that a cat, Lord Donoughmore, that I hear barking on your stairway every night?"—Argonaut.

St. Louis, March 8.—Secretary of the Navy Meyer has written to the Business Men's league that the battleship Idaho, Captain H. O. Dunn, will be ordered to St. Louis early in May. The information came in response to the league's request that the battleship pay a visit to this river port. If it arrives here it will be the farthest inland port of this country ever reached by a battleship. The Idaho is now with the North Atlantic fleet in Cuban waters. She normally draws only twenty-four feet eight inches of water and will be stripped of some of her equipment. Her displacement is 13,000 tons.
