THE DOVE OF PEACE HOVERS OVER MEXICO

But the Sale of Firearms to the Revolutionists Continues Brisk.

PROVISIONAL SECRETARY OF STATE SAYS THE OLDER MADERO HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THE WAR AND THAT ONLY FRANCISCO MADERO, JR., AND THE MEN IN THE FIELD CAN STOP THE FIGHTING.

By Associated Press. El Paso, March 30.—The dove of Mexican peace seems to be hovering over the border, but the sale of firearms to revolutionists continues brisk.

His coming here is considered improbable, unless by an agreement with the United States, as there is a warrant out for him here for inciting a revolution against a friendly nation.

ANOTHER WEEK WILL TELL THE TALE IN MEXICO

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Tex., March 30.—Another week will tell whether there is to be peace or further war in Mexico, according to Alfonso Madero, brother of the rebel leader, Francisco I. Madero.

A synopsis of the talk between Jose Yves Limantour, the Mexican minister of finance, and Francisco I. Madero, Sr., at New York, in which tentative proposals were made, has been sent to the insurgents' chiefs.

My brother," said Don Alfonso, "if he is convinced of the sincerity of the government to grant the concessions demanded by the people, will appoint envoys to meet the government representatives.

SENOR DE LA BARRA PASSES THROUGH SAN ANTONIO

By Associated Press. San Antonio, Tex., March 30.—Senor de la Barra, the new Mexican minister of foreign affairs, passed through here today, but was not joined by any of the Madero family, who are expected

WAS JUSTIFIED IN KIDNAPPING

RICHARD P. STACK, WEALTHY LUMBERMAN, WILL PUT UP SUCH DEFENSE IN HIS TRIAL SOON.

By Associated Press. St. Louis, March 30.—Richard P. Stack, the wealthy Escanaba, Mich., lumberman, who is on trial here on a charge of kidnapping his son, John King Stack III from the home of his former wife's relatives here, will attempt to justify himself, it became evident today, on the ground that his former wife, Mrs. Roy Burbank, had declared that the boy should never again visit his home in Michigan.

In an interview Stack said that he has no objection to letting his former wife see their child, but would not tell where he has concealed his son. A writ of habeas corpus is expected to produce the boy in court.

Man Hanged For Murder; Joked of Death to Very End

By Associated Press. Pottsville, Pa., March 30.—A remarkable display of nerve was made in the county jail yard here today by Joseph Christock as he was about to be hanged for the murder last fall of Mrs. Ann Richards. Declining the proffered assistance of a priest and deputy sheriff, the man walked smilingly from his cell to the foot of the gallows and ran lightly up the steps.

ANOTHER TOWN IS DESTROYED

POLLOCK, LA., IS PRACTICALLY WIPED OFF THE MAP BY FIRE WHICH DID $200,000 DAMAGE.

By Associated Press. Alexandria, La., March 30.—A two hundred thousand dollar fire practically wiped out the business section of Pollock, La., during last night. Twenty-eight buildings, including two hotels, several stores and residences were destroyed.

COX'S CASE IS DRAGGING ALONG

JUDGE HUNT WILL HAVE TO RULE ON AFFIDAVIT CHARGING JUDGE GORMAN WITH BIAS AND PREJUDICE.

By Associated Press. Cincinnati, March 30.—The case of George D. Cox today went back to the status it maintained eleven days ago, when two of the three judges appointed to hear the mandamus proceedings against Judge Hunt rendered an opinion ordering him to rule in the affidavit filed by Cox's attorney charging "bias and prejudice" against Judge Gorman.

HOPE TO SETTLE THE N. Y. FIGHT

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS WILL HOLD A SECRET CAUCUS AND IT IS PROBABLE A MAN MAY BE CHOSEN.

By Associated Press. Albany, N. Y., March 30.—The Democratic senators hope to settle the senatorship contest at a secret caucus tomorrow morning.

EXPRESS MESSENGER WITH $50,000 STILL MISSING

By Associated Press. El Paso, Tex., March 30.—Officials of the Wells-Fargo Express Company declared today that A. W. Hawkins, the express messenger who disappeared at the same time as a shipment of $50,000 in currency from the Banco de Sonora in Hermosillo, to its branch in Guaymas, has been seen at Mazatlan.

ROBBERS HELD UP TRAIN. St. Petersburg, March 30.—Robbers held up a train at Widsow, a small station on the Warsaw and Graceland line last night and secured $40,000 which was to have been used for the payment of railroad employees.

BUCKET SHOPS DO NOT VIOLATE LAWS OF LAND

Amendment Defining "Bucketting" Declared to Be Unconstitutional.

SUPREME COURT OF DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA DECLARES IT DEPRIVES CITIZENS OF THE RIGHT TO CONTROL—CRUSADE OF DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE WILL THEREFORE PROBABLY COME TO NAUGHT.

By Associated Press. Washington, March 30.—"Bucket shopping" in the District of Columbia is a lawful occupation, according to a decision handed down today by Justice Wright, in the district supreme court, and as a result, the widespread crusade waged by the department of justice to end the practice in several cities threatens to come to naught.

The decision was rendered in the case of Edward Altman, of Jersey City, and Louis A. and Angelo Cella, who operated a so-called bucket-shop under the title of the Standard Stock & Grain Company.

By Associated Press. Cincinnati, March 30.—The case of George D. Cox today went back to the status it maintained eleven days ago, when two of the three judges appointed to hear the mandamus proceedings against Judge Hunt rendered an opinion ordering him to rule in the affidavit filed by Cox's attorney charging "bias and prejudice" against Judge Gorman.

PROHIBIT JEWS FROM HAVING CHRISTIAN NAMES

St. Petersburg, March 30.—The holy synod today issued an edict prohibiting Jews bearing Christian first names.

NEW WORLD'S AUTO RECORDS ARE MADE

By Associated Press. Jacksonville, March 30.—Two new world's records were hung up in the Pablo Beach automobile races today. Driving a Buick in the twenty-mile race for all Bob Burman made the distance in 15 minutes and 11.82 seconds or at the rate of 91.06 miles an hour.

SUPPLIES FOR THE CHINESE

INDESCRIBABLE SUFFERING WILL BE RELIEVED IN CHINA TO SOME EXTENT BY ARRIVAL OF TRANSPORT.

By Associated Press. Washington, March 30.—The United States transport "Buford," bearing the relief supplies to the starving people of China, arrived at Shanghai today.

Announcement of the arrival of the Buford in Chinese waters reached Washington almost simultaneously with mail advices to the state department from Shanghai and Nanking detailing pitiful tales of the indescribable suffering of the starving millions.

By Associated Press. Berlin, March 30.—The projected international aviation races from Paris to Berlin and Brussels and London probably will be abandoned owing to the attitude of the Paris Journal, one of the papers contributing to the prize, which yielded to the French agitation against flights in Germany.

By Associated Press. Lima, Peru, March 30.—A band of 160 bandits is levying tribute on the merchants in the north. Troops have been sent against them. The government is criticized for not having maintained sufficiently equipped garrisons in that district.

QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS RAISED FOR THE RAILROAD

FLORIDA FEE SYSTEM Example No. 5.

Table with columns for Case-State vs. Tom Cook, Justice Court, Sheriff, Clerk, and County Solicitor, listing various legal fees and costs.

Megargel Immediately Files Acceptance of Franchise and Bond of $10,000.

ALSO FILES WITH THE CITY CLERK A CERTIFICATE OF DEPOSIT OF $100,000 AS REQUIRED BY ORDINANCE, AND PROPOSES TO START WORK OF SURVEYING DURING NEXT MONTH.

With the subscribing of the quarter million dollars last night by citizens, Roy C. Megargel, promoter of the proposed railroad between Pensacola and Jasper, Ala., filed his acceptance of the franchise ordinance with the city clerk, and at the same time filed his bond of $10,000 and certificate of deposit of $100,000 as required by the ordinance.

With all of this done, and the assurance by Mr. Megargel that he will open offices in Pensacola about the middle of next month, and his intention of commencing work upon the proposed road within a very short time, the prospects of a railroad assumed a much brighter aspect than at any time for a long period of years.

The money subscribed by the citizens is not a donation to the promoters, but the subscribers will receive first mortgage bonds in return, which will be a good investment.

WANT A NEW TRIAL

CONFER ON THE WAGE QUESTION

By Associated Press. Chicago, March 30.—W. L. Park, general manager of the Illinois Central railroad; H. P. Parham, of St. Louis, representing the telegraphers, and J. W. Miller, of the Louisiana division of the telegraphers union, conferred here today on the wage question.

At a strike vote recently taken, 95 per cent of the 1,600 telegraphers voted to go out unless there was a satisfactory wage increase granted.

The Chicago conference was expected to last two days if no satisfactory agreement could be reached before that time, as all parties interested had announced an intention to avoid a strike if possible.

BACK TO THE COAL MINES FOR THOMAS E. LEWIS

By Associated Press. Pittsburgh, Pa., March 30.—When Thomas E. Lewis relinquished his position as president of the United Mine Workers of America to-morrow night, he will leave the headquarters in Indianapolis for his home in Bridgeport, Ohio, and on Monday will take a place as a miner in the Wheeling mine creeks of the Loraine Coal & Rock Company.

The Wants Will Help

"I've decided to accept a place in another city and I must dispose of all my household goods, rent or sell my house and prepare for the journey in a few days"—you've heard a friend or acquaintance express himself in that way, haven't you?

New York, March 30.—The appalling disaster in the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory, at Nos. 23-25 Washington Place, in which upward of 300 men, women and young girls were burned or crushed to death, cost more lives than any other fire in the history of the city.

On learning of the disaster George McAneny, president of Manhattan Borough, ordered attaches from the department of buildings to begin an investigation at once. District Attorney Whitman at once set the machinery of his office in motion to see if any of the building or fire department laws have been violated and indictments are expected to follow.
