For Germany, defeat in this, her supreme effort, means the end; for us, should she be successful, it means only that we will begin to fight.

The Tallahassee Record has adopted as its slogan, "Marshall in 1920," and we're here to state that it's a mighty good slogan, too.

We are by no means bloodthirsty but we hope the fellow who reports a hundred thousand Germans killed every day is correct in his count, and that in his haste he may have missed one or two instead of counting the same dead one twice.

The colored people of Lakeland are going to give the drafted men who leave next Sunday a big send-off. In this the colored people are setting us an example we could well follow. Twenty-one white men are leaving the county in answer to their country's call. We ought to show them their sacrifice and patriotism are appreciated.

"Destroy the Ox Warble," is the counsel a headline in an agricultural paper gives us. Sure. If any ox goes to warbling in our vicinity, we'll do what we can to discourage the effort. Some one has a gentleman jennet within a few blocks of our domicile, and his warble is all sufficient, to say nothing of a friend who is practicing "Over There" and "Jonah Vark." Hence, no ox warble for us.

Arcadia has invited the Lakeland Chamber of Commerce to come down next week and take a look at the aviation camps, and incidentally visit with her. We have no doubt but that the acceptance will be as cordial as the spirit of the invitation, and that a very large part of the membership will avail themselves of the opportunity to visit our pretty and progressive neighbor, and give Uncle Sam's bird-men and their equipment the once over. It will be a trip well worth while in more ways than one.

Lakeland citizens are not strong for tinkering with their charter, and even meritorious amendments are sometimes turned down. A new charter, embodying the ideas that make for better and more effective government should be prepared and presented to the next session of the Legislature. If the best and most patriotic people of the community could get together and frame such an instrument, they would do a public service of great value.

The High School Cadets marched through the business section of the city this morning and made a splendid showing—a sight long to be remembered. The boys drill like veterans, and when their time comes, if it should, they will each have a marvelous advantage over their fellows from their present military experience.

Wavelets From The Deep C. Green

There's something doing over there, but "mustard" gas isn't in it with American "pepper" sauce.

Hobson has stirred up a beehive, and it wasn't "Hobson's choice," either.

I got up an hour later this morning, just to see how the new daylight law is going to work. Fine, ought to make it three hours. By getting up at ten o'clock breakfast could be eliminated, a heavy dinner at 2 o'clock, light lunch at 5 o'clock and retire at 8:30. That would give a person fifteen and a half hours' sleep to enable him to stand the rest of the day.

War News: Deep cannonading was heard along the Lake Hollingsworth front last night, but it was discovered to be Dad Francis snoring.

"George Ade recently wrote a very clever set of rules on 'How to Be a Hun.' He told how to sow dissension in a neutral country, how to form conspiracies against the United States and how to lie about the Red Cross. The skit was taken as a fine and patriotic addition to war literature. But what would have happened if the humorist of the Times Union had attempted the same thing?"—Miami Herald. He would have to have "first ade" treatment.

Many a woman stamps her foot but don't know where to send it.

"The Tampa Tribune observes that Congressman Drane and Senator Trammell are making a fine record in Washington. Are we to understand that it takes two of them to do it?"—Palm Beach Post. Yep. It's a duet record, being made at Washington by the Columbia.

You don't necessarily have to be a king to have "king-ky" hair.

"We hereby nominate Asheville, N. C., as the proper place for the first convention of the 'Woman's Party.' Why shouldn't it be? Isn't it a—sheville?"—St Pete Times. How about Sweet Gum, Ga?

The Jewish Passover

(By M. Agress.)

The Jewish Passover on the eve of the 15th day of the Month Nison 5678 (March 27, 1918) the Jews all over the world will begin a seven-day festival devoted to prayer and thanksgiving to the Author of Liberty, in commemoration of the deliverance from the bondage of Egypt. During this seven days, unleavened bread will be eaten, exclusively, by the Jewish people, in token of the hasty exodus the Israelites made in obedience to the command of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in fulfillment of his promise that after four hundred years of bondage he would deliver them from the oppression of the Egyptians that they might become the exponents of liberty and the promulgators of human freedom. The Jewish laws forbid servitude because mankind are in a covenant relation with God that God entered into with mankind through Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Man is consecrated to serve God and no one else. "Thou art my servant, sayeth the Lord God, and no one else."

The Passover is the celebration of the first declaration of humanity's independence; the Passover is the anniversary of the solemn proclamation on the banks of the Nile of the inviolable principle of human freedom, human equality and human dignity; the Passover marks the era of the God-given right of liberty and security of man. From every Passover the Jew draws new inspiration and new vigor to battle in the cause of human liberty, freedom and justice, while every struggle and triumph in the cause of liberty for the last 3,000 years has drawn inspiration from Israel's struggle and triumph which the Passover commemorates. Israel had triumphed because Israel had been willing to struggle; Israel had made great sacrifice. Those that have been willing to follow the leader of liberty have reached the promised land of milk and honey; those that murmured, longing for the flesh pot and garlic, died during the 40 years' wandering in the wilderness. Here the Almighty has exemplified to mankind that those that are not ready and willing to make sacrifice and battle for the cause of liberty, freedom and justice are not only undesirable citizens but are undeserving of life and unfit to be counted among the family of freeman.

FIRST WOMAN WHO RECEIVES OFFICER RANK

Dr. Kate Karpeles a First Lieutenant in the United States Army—Graduate of Johns Hopkins

The first woman to receive the relative rank of an officer in the U. S. Army during the present war is Dr. Kate B. Karpeles, who will have the equivalent rank of first lieutenant.

Dr. Karpeles has been assigned as assistant surgeon to the emergency dispensary of the medical department now in the process of organization and equipment at 6th and B St., Washington, D. C. In addition to her regular duties as one of the staff assistants of the dispensary, Dr. Karpeles will be in charge of the physical examination of women employees of the War Department in Washington. In the opinion of officers of the medical department, Dr. Karpeles is peculiarly fitted for the position assigned her because of high personal qualifications as well as her professional standing. She is a graduate of the medical department of Johns Hopkins university.

The emergency dispensary, for emergency cases arising among civilian employees of the war department, will be located in the same building as the general war dispensary planned for officers and their families and enlisted men. Both dispensaries will work under the same direction and under the immediate supervision of the medical department of the U. S. Army. The building will contain an eye dispensary, dental clinic, surgical
