

LAKELAND LACONICS

Mrs. H. B. Carter and children are now at Hendersonville, N. C.

Mr. Charlie Hendrix is quite ill, his friends will regret to learn.

W. E. Jacques, who formerly manufactured a spraying preparation, and carried on other business in Lakeland, has been adjudged a bankrupt.

Mrs. J. L. Skipper is spending a couple of weeks at Green Springs enjoying the pleasure of that noted resort.

Mrs. Frank Smith returned yesterday from a pleasant week's visit at Leesburg, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Richey.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Stephens left today for Hot Springs, Ark., where they will spend some weeks. They are making the trip in their car, and anticipate a very delightful outing.

Mr. W. W. Chase and family are now in Asheville, where they are enjoying life to the limit. They will be away for at least six weeks yet.

It was stated in yesterday's Telegram that Mr. Loring Bracken had arrived in Lakeland, but this was an error, as he will not be able to come at this time, as was expected.

Mr. Billy Norvell has returned from the peach orchards of Georgia, and also before returning home he enjoyed a pleasant visit with relatives in Macon.

Messrs. W. C. Norvell and S. E. Jones have formed a real-estate firm, with offices in the Deen & Bryant building. Mr. Jones will be the active manager and the arrangement will not interfere with Capt. Norvell's railroad duties which he will continue to perform.

SAFETY WORK

The meeting of the Lakeland District Safety Committee was held in the office of J. F. Council, superintendent, yesterday morning and many items of interest for the safety and welfare of the men were discussed, and acted upon. This work was started in October, 1918, and much has been accomplished towards making the railroads safer for employes and the public. The following members were present:

- J. F. Council, superintendent.
- J. A. Sult, trainmaster.
- Geo. Burnham, agency supervisor.
- W. C. Norvell, conductor.
- C. A. Windham, flagman.
- M. L. Bradley, law agent.
- Gus Daniels, roadmaster.
- A. D. Boring, engineer.
- R. S. Izard, yard conductor.
- Miss Catherine Funk, secretary.

The Lakeland Shop Safety Committee held their meeting this morning.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Ellen Watson Hostess to Epworth League
Miss Ellen Watson, ably assisted by her father, Mr. George W. Watson, delightfully entertained the Epworth League at the hospitable Watson home last evening, a large number of young people enjoying this most pleasant affair.

In various progressive games—a different game at each table, Miss Frances Ruth Grambling proved the most efficient, and she was presented the first prize, a book, while the booby went to Miss Lucy Wilkinson. In a memory contest, in which those present were to name over 41 different articles, which they had only a few moments to examine, Mr. Tolliver Bryant proved to have the best memory, and he was presented a box of candy, while the consolation, a stick of candy, went to Miss Helen Stacy.

Delicious refreshments were served. Those enjoying this very pleasant affair were Misses Katherine Young, Ruth Carter, Reed, Mary Weaver, Evelyn Yarnall, Elma Robison, Fay Leach, Olga Lindgren, Lois Bell, Helen Stacy, Sybil Fox, Elizabeth Carter, Frances Ruth Grambling, Mary Louise Boulware, Dorothy Carter, Lucy Wilkinson, Alberta Carter, Messrs. Dwight Robison, Norris and Ralph Upson, William Skipper, Earl Futch, William Watson, Clifford Wilson, Myron Booth, Fred Ivey, Arthur Clonts, Robert Boulware, Tolliver Bryant and Irving Fraley.

Patton-Wilburn Nuptials

Friends in this city are in receipt of the following interesting announcement:

to

Mr. Henry Lee Patton on Thursday evening, the fifteenth of July, nineteen hundred and twenty Henry Watterson Hotel, Louisville, Ky.

At home

After July 20th, Horse Cave, Ky.

Mr. Patton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Patton of this city, and visited them here last winter. He and his bride are coming to Lakeland this fall for a visit. Mr. Patton is a prominent business man of Horse Cave, Ky., where they will make their home.

Miss Mildred Hampton Entertains

Miss Mildred Hampton very delightfully entertained three tables of Five Hundred yesterday afternoon at her home on South Kentucky avenue.

The rooms were lovely with their decorations of pink roses, which were used most effectively. At the conclusion of the games, it was found that high score had been made by Miss Bess Chamberlain, and he was presented a box of handsome stationery, while the cut prize fell to Mrs. J. P. Getzen.

Delicious refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, olives and iced tea were served. Those enjoying this pretty party were Misses Bess Chamberlain, Florence Conibear, Ruby Turner, Evelyn Cowdery, Georgia Pelham, Genevieve Morrow, Annie Cargill Mayes, Gladys Wilson, Mrs. J. P. Getzen and Mrs. Malcolm McMullen.

Party for Young Visitors To Montgomery

The Montgomery Advertiser contains the following account of a party given in that city by Mr. and Mrs.

WM. WATTS BARRY DIES SUDDENLY AT SPRINGFIELD, MO.

The news of the death of Wm. Watts Barry, 20 years old, July 2, at Springfield, Mo., will come as a great shock to his many friends. He was here for a year attending second year at high school and attending Methodist church South. Away on his vacation he was taken violently ill and was hurried to the hospital where he was operated on for appendicitis. But peritonitis developed and he lived only one week. His mother was with him all the time at the hospital. Watts Barry, as he was known to all, was a universal favorite with a promising future in commercial and business life.

T. P. Jeffers, former residents of Lakeland, for Mrs. A. L. Dorman's two children, Mrs. Dorman also being a former resident of Lakeland:

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Jeffers entertained a number of little folks at their residence, 62 Virginia avenue, Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, in honor of their little nephew and niece, Lawrence and Virginia Lee Dorman of Daytona, Fla.

On the spacious porch at the conclusion of the games, a most tempting ice course was served by Mrs. J. H. Hatfield, Mrs. E. C. Cooner, Mrs. Ralph Griffin, Mrs. R. B. Ripers and Mrs. Dorman, of Daytona, Fla.

The porch was artistically decorated with potted ferns and hanging baskets filled with shasta daisies and in the center of the veranda was a large table covered with a lace cloth, over yellow, on which was placed baskets filled with candies and other dainties. On the lawn were found two miniature lakes upon which were placed souvenirs for the children, one lake's gifts corresponding with the other. In this manner the little boys sought their partners for the afternoon and together they were served a delicious ice course.

The guests included:

Alice, Mary Julia, and Eugene Mathlack, Louise Meadows, Francis and Caroline Hatfield, Lillian and Eugene Cooner, Leona and Jeanette Shelkofsky, Amanda and Richard Moon, Emalyne and Thomas Pulliam, Helen and Mattie Smith Mizell, Sarah and Margaret Finney, Norman Tracey, Josephine Engler, Annie Lee Hollis, Lillian Beadnoar, John Anderson, Virginia Lee and Lawrence Dorman.

SPECIAL SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be special service at the First Baptist church this evening, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. A number will be baptized and Mr. Entzinger will speak on "How God Measures Blessings."

A large attendance is expected and it is especially requested that all will bring their Bibles.

LARGE CROWDS TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE BARGAINS AT LAMODE

When the doors of LaMode were opened at 9 o'clock this morning, and the big $30,000 sale was formally "on" there were several hundred shoppers waiting to take advantage of the many bargains offered, and the large force of clerks were soon busy wrapping packages—for to see was to buy.

All day the store has been thronged, and there yet remains many money saving bargains in all lines, which it will pay shoppers to investigate. Mr. Ott stated he was going to cut the price and those who have filled the store all day long find his statement entirely correct. The advertisement carried in yesterday's Telegram, giving prices of marked-down goods, certainly brought the crowds, and the same advertisement, in larger form, will be found again on Page 2 of today's issue.

ATTENTION, FIRST CLASS SCOUTS

Merit badge examinations on Swimming and life saving will be given tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp on Crystal Lake, Flaming Arrow Camp. All first class scouts in good standing are urged to make applications at once. A pinetree patrol, made up of eight first class scouts, with 10 merit badges each, is being formed. Watch the work of this patrol. SCOUT EXECUTIVE.
