The Legislature and the Wailes Claim.

The treatment which the claim of Col. S. I. Wailes for services rendered to the state of Florida has received at the hands of the present legislature is anything but creditable to that body.

Men that would spurn the idea of repudiating a personal debt have not hesitated to put the state of Florida in the attitude of refusing to pay a state obligation.

All that the aged claimant desired was to be permitted to enter suit and prove his claim in court. He was willing to take his case into the courts and abide by the verdict thereof.

If his claim was good and the courts so decided, then every honest citizen of Florida would desire that it be paid.

The Journal is unable to understand on what ground the legislature could have turned the proposition made by Colonel Wailes down.

Senator Bailey managed to get into the newspapers again. This time he is mentioned in connection with an unsavory transaction over some stock.

Secretary Bryan's Dry Dinner.

Secretary of State Bryan gave a small dinner to a number of representatives of foreign governments at Washington. Both Mr. Bryan and his wife are teetotalers from principle and neither drink wine nor serve it at their tables.

A number of Bryan baiters, and they are numerous in republican circles, seized upon this little incident as an excuse for another fierce attack on the Nebraskan.

Moreover these same critics would have assailed Mr. Bryan as harshly had he served wine. They are Bryan baiters. That's all.

While Senator Fletcher is in Europe he will not have to worry over Florida patronage.

How the Fee System Works.

The story goes that a man died in Jersey City four years ago, leaving property valued at $2,500. He left no will and had something like twenty relatives to inherit the property.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation. A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.

ers-on got fees. The four years' litigation was somewhat expensive and on final settlement the heirs got exactly five cents each from the estate.

It may be remarked that this reads like the history of the winding up of the affairs of many a defunct bank. The dollars go out for fees and the five-cent pieces are given to the depositors.

The fee system, in all its phases, moods and tenses, is a marvelous institution.

South Carolina gets the appointment of a federal judge. Even Cole Blaise cannot hold the Palmetto state brace.

King Nicholas has come down from his high horse and will surrender Scutari, provided he gets other territory in return.

Ambassador James Bryce has said his farewells and departed for England. During the six years he served at Washington as representative of the king of England he worked to enlarge the spirit of friendship between his nation and this country and was universally esteemed in America.

Florida came pretty near losing a United States senator the other day. The senators on the monitor Tallahassee were shooting at a target and mistook the yacht Dolphin for the target and fired on her.

VOX POPULI.

Describes conditions in some insane asylums. Editor Pensacola Journal.

Tuesday morning's Journal contained an account of the imprisonment of a sane woman in an insane asylum. This is not so rare an occurrence as some way think.

The Journal also has an article on the forcible feeding of women in England. People read these things with feelings of horror, but they do not know how often they occur in this country.

I have seen the same cruel treatment of women in the South, not once, but many times. Not only this, but I, myself, have been "forcibly fed," and only those who have suffered know how cruelly painful and humiliating it is.

When I was carried from Florida to Mississippi without requisition papers, judge, jury or examination, and locked up in an insane asylum, I could not eat their coarse food, often half cooked and always served on tin plates, chunks of fat meat with skin and hairs on it, vegetables half cleaned by insane patients.

Only a low half partition separates the dining room from the women and the rattle of tin plates and iron knives and forks on the bare tables, while five or six hundred insane men and women talked, laughed, sang or cried, almost—but thank God not quite—drove me crazy.

In that place I could not have swallowed the daintiest food even after a queen, so they resorted to forcible feeding. Two women held my arms, a third stood behind me and bent my head back, while another, with a big iron spoon, shoveled the vile, greasy food down my throat.

The men looked on, laughing and jeering. A patient dared not show sympathy if they felt it, although one day when I was too weak to walk after the cruel feeding was over, a big crazy woman snatched me up in her arms and carried me through the long room, across the bridge leading to the wards and laid me on my bed. She cursed every step of the way, with curses not loud but deep, but her touch was tender as a mother's. I proffered her profanity with kindness, to the Bible reading and church-going attendants, with cruelty.

I saw patients fed with a rubber pipe but never endured that form of suffering myself. Ignorance of the law is the cause of many women being sent to insane asylums.

When they have a voice in the making of laws they will know what their rights are and it will not be so easy for a man to bury his wife in an insane asylum.

ALICE SHEAR. Explains entertainment to be given the secretary. Editor Pensacola Journal.

I want to correct some erroneous ideas which seem to prevail regarding the proposed entertainment of the secretary of the navy.

Tickets must be purchased to the luncheon. The price is $2.00. Participation in the boat trip will be by invitation from the commercial association. There is no connection between the two, except that in selecting guests for the boat party, we shall be inclined to ask those who will afterwards attend the luncheon.

We are not going to entertain Mr. Daniels so much that we will have no time to show and attempt to convince him. He is to be here a day. Our program calls for a half day of inspection and conference with a small committee, first, the other and latter half of the day to be occupied in public entertainment. I think both are desirable and may be effective.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF EDUCATION IN QUANDARY; HUNDREDS OF CHILDREN ON STRIKE AGAINST SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT ACQUITTED OF GRAVE CHARGE; TOWN IS STIRRED

School children on strike in Pittsburg, Ethel Fisher and Superintendent Heeter.

Pittsburg, April 29.—The board of education of this city would be glad to know how to get out of a very unpleasant situation. It has undertaken to stand by Supt. S. L. Heeter despite the scandal connected with his name and the ensuing strike of hundreds of school children has made the board very nervous.

Supt. Heeter was accused by Ethel Iva Fisher, a domestic in his home. He was indicted, but when tried was acquitted. Two other girls who wished to tell what they knew of Heeter were not permitted by the judge to testify.

FLORIDA AND FLORIDIANS

Not a Side Line.—Frank A. Walpole announces that his Manatee Record is for sale. He finds it impossible, on account of other business, to give the paper the attention it requires.

Gives Them a Pain.—The Sanford Herald has a cartoon of the stork presenting Forrest Lake with the newly born county. The expression on Lake's face is enough to give the baby the colic.—Orlando Sentinel.

They All Envy Us.—Pensacola is the first Florida town to get a commission government. This is one instance in which Tampa envies Pensacola.—Tampa Tribune.

Causes Anguish.—That "mental anguish" bill has already caused considerable anguish to certain parties in and about the state capital, if reports be true.—Palatka Times-Herald.

Results Demonstrate That.—Florida's congressional delegation is divided as a result of a patronage row. Why so? We don't expect Florida to get much more than few local post-offices, although Florida is a pretty good egg.—Montgomery Advertiser.

NINETY-FOURTH ANNIVERSARY IS CELEBRATED

Local Odd Fellows, visitors and the Rebekahs last night gathered at their regular meeting hall and celebrated in manner befitting the occasion the 94th anniversary of Odd Fellowship organization and a great time was held.

While there was no announced set program, there was much enjoyment of the following: Opening, by N. G. Prayer, by the chaplain. Questions and Answers on Order, by N. G. and M. G. Address, by Mr. Foster, of Minnesota.

Objects of Odd Fellowship, by Claude Wilkins. Piano and vocal solo, by Mrs. Flynn and Miss Wentworth. Recitation, by Mr. J. D. Pulliam. Odd Fellowship: What It Is, by F. H. Cranston. Piano solo, by Mrs. Flynn. Benediction, by the chaplain. Refreshments in abundance were served.

The anniversary date of the order was last Saturday, but the celebration thereof was purposely postponed until last evening.

Washing, April 30.—In a case unique in the history of the interstate commerce commission, it was decided today that a tunnel 1,200 feet long, wholly within the state limits of Kentucky, made the traffic via the Baltimore and Ohio from Huntington, W. stirring up the children. Supt. Heeter kept right on working. He said that many of the paraders were pupils from parochial schools. The police assisted by arresting a number of the boys, and locking up some of them. The press of the city, with the exception of two afternoon papers, endeavored to assure the people that Supt. Heeter had been vindicated, and that there was no cause for commotion.
