

TICKETS FOR "PENNY PLAZZ" ON SALE TODAY

SECOND RUSH EXPECTED WHEN PUBLIC WILL BE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY OF AGAIN WITNESSING PRODUCTION, WHICH HAS SOME ADDED FEATURES.

The sale of tickets for "Penny Plazz" opens this morning at Reynolds Music Store, and as might be expected there will be another rush for tickets. Many of those who have seen the show before will be in line, and the many hundreds who were unable to get tickets the last time, will be there to get choice seats. Judging from the sentiments expressed on the streets and elsewhere, there will be another record breaking audience for "Penny Plazz."

It is an acknowledged fact that never in the history of theatrical annals in Pensacola has there ever been an amateur show take with such wildfire effect as this little hedge-podge of nonsense and music. The theme is written around the commission form of government, and as the election takes place the next morning after this show, why naturally there will be new puns to be "got off" in favor of such "conditions."

Mr. Clarence Avery who made such a whirlwind success in his monologue, has an entirely new monologue—even new songs, and this feature alone ought to attract.

Mr. Clifford Greve, whose presence in the city from New York was tried to be kept as a secret surprise for Monday night, has been "found out," and the result is that P-nscolians will be treated to one of the cleverest bits of nonsense ever heard in our city.

Dr. Mallery Kennedy, Messrs. Geo. Hervey, Stephen Harvey, Harry Waelheim, Clarence Avery, Willie Brent, John Frenkle, Joe Grant, the Poutless Kids and the Misses Fannie Wagenheim and Belle Berlin will all be cast in the same parts in which they created such a favorable impression last performance.

The scenic environment will be just the same as before. All in all, it looks like a "mighty good show" for Monday night. Curtain 8:15 prompt—no waits.

WARE FOREIGN NOBLEMAN WARNS YANKEE GIRL WHO DIVORCES HER ITALIAN COUNT

Irma Guthrie Wright, Countess Mile Fiori.

Boston, May 1.—The blandishments of foreign noblemen in general and of Italian counts in particular are named as pitfalls for American girls abroad, by Miss Irma Guthrie Wright, now doing concert work here.

Miss Wright knows whereof she speaks, for she has but recently escaped by the divorce route what for a time amounted to an imprisonment in the Roman villa of the Count Mile Fiori. She met him while singing in the Tetra Nazionale of Prodo, Italy. He wooed and won her. Now she is back in America, considering it her mission to warn American girls against similar action.

Miss Wright is a native of Columbus, O., where she was brought up. Her father, the late Judge Robert Raymond Wright, was for thirty years a member of the Ohio supreme court. Tall, titian-haired, with blue-gray eyes, she somewhat resembles Mary Garden. Both are of Scotch ancestry.

"I want to give the girls of my own country the benefit of my own disappointing experience with a title," says she.

"There are so many pitfalls for a girl going abroad to study. There is something about the atmosphere that is deadly. A title, even without any-

"We had better let that servant go."

"What's the matter? Wouldn't she work?"

"Oh she does her work all right, but she couldn't get along with the children."

"That so?"

WISE PEOPLE HAVE STOPPED USING DANGEROUS CALOMEL

A Safe, Always Reliable Remedy Has Taken Its Place in the Drug Store and the Home.

A few years ago, men, women and children took calomel for a sluggish liver and for constipation. They took great risks when they did so, for calomel is often a dangerous drug. Your family doctor will be the first to tell you this if he discovers you dosing yourself with calomel.

But the drug trade has found a safer, more pleasant remedy than calomel in Dodson's Liver Tone.

The Balkcom Drug Co. tell us that their drug store sells Dodson's Liver Tone in practically every case of biliousness and liver trouble where calomel used to be taken.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable liver tonic that is absolutely harmless for children and grown people. It sells for 50 cts. a bottle and is guaranteed to be entirely satisfactory by the Balkcom Drug Co., who will refund you money with a smile if it does not give entire satisfaction.
