Wilson Talks to Legislators About the Tariff

Attest: FRANK REILLY, Mayor.
ADRAIN E. LANGFORD, Mayor.
Dermott took exception to the president's speech last night which he characterized as one of denunciation of the legislature. At the president's request he pointed out what portions of the speech he considered denunciations—those in which the president said that he thought some of the legislators had acted in bad faith with reference to the measure. The president listened intently and then, it is reported, he replied: "That's not denunciation; those are facts." He was surprised, he added, according to those who attended the meeting, that Mr. McDermott had seen fit "to put the cap on."

The Woman of It.
The St. Paul Dispatch quotes this dialogue:
"Then you refuse me?" he asked dramatically.
"I do, John," answered the maiden.
"Is it because I have no fortune."
"Not at all."
"Is it my looks?"
"Ye-e-e-s. I have just been reading that people who marry grow to look like each other, and although I love you, John, I—I really don't think I could stand to look like you."
"You silly girl," he exclaimed.
"Maybe it will be I who will grow to look like you."
"Oh, John," she said joyously. "I never thought of that. I'm sure it would be great for us to look like each other, wouldn't it? Won't you please forgive me?"
