The Young Women's Christian Association rooms were thrown open yesterday afternoon, many calling between the hours of four and six, the reception taking the form of a "shower." Not only were articles of linen received, but many other useful contributions.

The home, which is situated at the old LeBaron house, 214 North Barcelona street, is admirably adapted for a Y. W. C. A. building, such as it is hoped to establish at this time in Pensacola. The rooms are large and high-pitched, and will be delightfully cool in summer.

- Following is a list of firms who have made contributions: Rhodes-Futch-Collins—bedroom suite. Marston and Quins—bedroom suite. Dubulson—washstand set. Ray Hardware Company—Range. Harrison Bros—Refrigerator. Gibbs Hardware Company—Some kitchen utensils. Forbes, Quigley and Morgan—Paints and brushes. Homes Furniture Company—Two rugs. Pensacola Mattress Company—Three mattresses and three pillows. Moore Ice Company—Twenty-five pounds of ice each day during summer.

Receiving yesterday afternoon were Mrs. R. M. Welles, Miss Anna Orr, Mrs. L. H. Pierce, Miss Carrie Horner, Mrs. R. Pope Reese, and Mrs. J. H. Collins. Y. W. C. A. house committee. Delicious fruit-punch was served during the afternoon.

Who loves not knowledge? Who shall rail Against her beauty? May she mix With men and prosper? Who shall fix Her pillars? Let her work prevail. But on her forehead sits a fire: She sets her forward countenance And leaps into the future chance, Submitting all things to desire.

Half-grown as yet, a child, and vain— She can not fight the fear of death. What is she, cut from love and faith. But some wild Pallas from the brain

Of demons? Very hot to burst All barriers in her onward race For power. Let her know her place; She is the second, not the first.

A higher hand must make her mild. If all be not in vain, and guide Her footsteps moving side by side With Wisdom, like the younger child. For she is earthly of the mind, But Wisdom heavenly of the soul.

A SENSATIONAL CASE IN GULFPORT

Lawyer, Against Whom Charges Have Been Made to Arrange "Frame-Up" In Damage Action Has Been Put Under Bond for Grand Jury Investigation.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Gulfport, Miss., April 29.—E. M. Barber, an attorney, against whom sensational charges were made Saturday by P. M. Harrell, a detective who testified he arranged with Barber to "frame up" a damage suit against the traction company here, was today ordered held under $1,000 bond, pending a grand jury investigation. Harrell is also being held as a witness under $1,000 bond. W. F. Gorenflo, manager of the Gulfport and Mississippi Traction Company will be asked to testify, although he was not placed under bond.

The charges against Barber were made in the trial of a suit for $50,000 damages brought by Mrs. Nettie Gill against the company for the death of her daughter, who was killed by one of the company's cars. Mr. Barber was Mrs. Gill's attorney. When Harrell took the stand he testified he had been offered $200 by Barber to testify he had witnessed the accident. He declared the testimony he was supposed to give had been "framed up."

Heart and Home Problems

By Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I have been going with a fellow for a year. Recently he said that he will not give me up. He used to say, "Never tell a girl that you love her," but now he says that he loves me. Do you think that he does? What would you advise me to do? (2) I am almost nineteen but I have always done as my mother wished. My friend thinks that I should obey her but he thinks that I am old enough to marry if I want to. Am I? He used to say that he didn't care if I went with other fellows, but he cared who I went with but now he doesn't want me to go with anyone else. Please give me your advice. BETTIE.

Better marry him, my dear. I think he loves you all right. Of course I hope you will do everything to get your parents' consent and make it a happy wedding. . . .

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl of sixteen and very quiet and modest. I have never cared for dancing, skating and such pleasures; in fact, I don't approve of it. I have always had plenty of boy friends, but for the past year I have only gone with one young man, whom I deeply love. He is twenty. We are engaged to be married in another year. He wants to kiss me. I have never approved of a girl and boy kissing before marriage. Please advise me what to do. (2) What is good for making the hair grow? BLONDY.

(1) Boy friends, and the man you are engaged to marry, are very different. When you told the young man you were willing to marry him he supposed you loved him, and if you love him you will want him to kiss you. (2) Rub yellow vaseline into the scalp, after a shampoo. Dip your hair brush into kerosene once a week and give your hair a thorough brushing with it. Keep your brush and combs clean and brush the hair well once a day. . . .

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Should a girl enter a room before a boy when he visits at her home or should she let him enter first? (2) Should food be passed to a boy first if he is a visitor or always to the right of the hostess regardless of other members of the family? MABEL B.

(1) The girl enters first, though she need not do it conspicuously. (2) The oldest members of the family should be served first, at a family dinner. . . .
