OFFICIAL ORGAN OF

Glynn County, City of Brunswick, United States Court of Bankruptcy for Ten Counties in South Georgia.

Huerta is now a full-fledged member of the Down-and-Out club.

If this weather keeps up Santa will have to make his annual visit in a linen duster.

The high price of eggs does not seem to be improving the quality standard either.

The weather seems to be about the only thing that is obeying the prohibition law these days.

Wonder if that big poultry show in Atlanta is in any way responsible for the advanced price of eggs.

Twenty Texans met death Thursday as the result of a flood. That is a larger number than would have been killed in a year with Mexico.

Mr. Gilchrist, of Florida, has withdrawn from the race for the senate. Probably he thinks it is better to withdraw than to be defeated.

One reason we regret to see Christmas come and go is that the various candidates are waiting until after the holidays to start their campaigns.

If the illegal sale of whiskey in Brunswick cannot be stopped, then, as Mayor Hopkins says, a police force ought to be secured which can stop it.

Denver crippled by snow storm; twenty killed in Texas by flood; rain and sleet cover the east, but the South, Indian summer still prevailing.

Twenty-two deer hunters were killed in Wisconsin during the hunting season, thus proving that the American people are still devoted to healthy outdoor sports.

London claims it has the worst telephone service in the world, notes the Detroit Free Press, and it exclaims: How those Englishmen do brag, adds the Tokyo Journal.

The Southern Express company is doing something this year that it has never before attempted, that of advertising for Christmas business. Just see what opposition will do.

The Atlanta Constitution says that "Fathers' Day" will come at Christmas, when we will get more slippers than we will have time to wobble in.
We will have time to wobble in.

George Bernard Shaw has snubbed us again, but somehow or other the sunshine seems just as bright as ever and waffles taste just as good, says the Charleston News and Courier.

Governor Peck, of Massachusetts, who goes out of office on the first of the year, probably now realizes that when a man jumps too much he generally will, sooner or later, take a fall.

The News of Hutchinson, Kan., goes straight to the mark when it says that boys do not stay on the farm because they like to go to the city to see the things against which they have been warned.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

The editor of the Thomasville Times Enterprise must have been seeing things on the streets of his city.
Listen to what he says: "Ladies, don't misunderstand us; you may wear all the frilly garments you desire or as few as you desire, and it's none of our business. When you appear in them on the streets, it then becomes the right of any who see to comment, especially when they are so fashioned with the desire to elicit that comment."

WATCHFUL WAITING.

There is nothing ambiguous about the president's Mexican policy, as outlined in his message to congress.

Neither is there any doubt but that he voices the feeling of the great majority of citizens of the United States.

The president makes it certain that this country is not going to intervene, unless it becomes a matter of dire necessity. Intervention means war, and this country has no occasion, nor any desire, for war, even with Mexico.

The point is also emphasized that no Mexican government will be recognized by the United States until that government is founded on constitutional principles and maintained for and in the name of the people.

The United States is not obligated to exercise any sort of a protectorate over Mexico. It is an independent, sovereign nation. Until it gives some positive affront to this country—an offense committed by a nation toward a nation, not by irresponsible rebels—the present policy of "watchful waiting" is entirely appropriate.

This course is not calculated to satisfy the jingoes, who want to fight, anyhow and regardless.

Mexico is in a sad plight. But the United States is not its physician nor its moderator.—Macon News.

BARRING THE COOKS.

The proceedings of the federal government against the practice of large hotels in New York to import French cooks for service of their patrons is nothing less than cruel and tyrannous.
It is contended that the bringing of these benefactors to the country is a violation of the contract labor law, and the employers who are haled to court have been indicted under the federal statutes prohibiting such contracts.

The hotel men contesting the case set up the plea that a French cook is an artist and that in hiring them abroad the contractor is no more amenable to the contract labor law than the managers of grand opera who engage European singers. The argument is unanswerable. Not only is a French cook an artist, but any cook, whether French or American, white or black, is so and more than that. The only trouble is that they are so rare. If the supply is restricted even slightly in this country the civilization of the nation will be imperiled.

If a paternal government is going to deny the right to import cooks, is it going to supply the domestic artist to a nation despairing any dyspeptic?
The government should set up a school and a college for cooks to take the place of the barred artists.

OUR LITTLE UNCLE SAMUEL

We are protecting the birds so freely that it has become the duty of our very dignified customs inspector to pick dead birds even when they are only domestic fowls! says the Jacksonville Times-Union. Under this reading of the law, of course a sage old rooster would become contraband, and he could only shelter himself in the folds of the American flag by leaving his tail feathers behind him. We know this is so, because a man who brought over two English pheasants in the ice chest of a steamer to provide a New York holiday with cheer was required to leave the feathers behind him "subject to the decisions of the treasury department!" Isn't our Uncle Sam getting a bit too small?

Cecil Rhodes acquired the habit of carrying with him a coop of laying hens that he might have fresh eggs on his voyages—had he come to New York could he have secured a landing place for the male attendant of those birds who might sport a lengthened feather in the rear? If a hen acquired such an ornament, would she be contraband also?

Before Uncle Sam plucks feathers from dead pheasants and crowing hens it might be well that he send to jail some of those importers of gems who make a profitable business of smuggling. To pay a fine when you are caught and make a fortune when you win is to invite every sportsman to enter the game; now that Wall street has a black eye, shall we not see all the brokers getting the habit of ocean travel? We stopped the lotteries and condemned the horse races to promote the activities of the stock market—men will gamble and women just love it; alike they boast of their wins and hide their losses. Now the best gamble is to beat the customs and smuggling has been lifted into the realm of high art. To pluck feathers from fowls more or less domestic is a farcical performance while rubies and pearls pass through as a speculation which cannot be as immoral as draw poker or bridge whist.

THE CONCEALED DEADLY WEAPON.

"At least 75 per cent of the homicides of the present day are the result of violations of the law against carrying concealed weapons.

"I know of nothing today that is causing more crime than the cowardly habit of carrying concealed weapons. The moment a man sticks a gun under his coat he puts society on notice that he is prepared for trouble.
He virtually says, 'Don't bother me. I am armed for you.' In my opinion many of the crimes of the present time would never be committed if the pistol-toting habit could be stopped. A man flies off the handle, and if he has a gun he'll use it, then he is sorry, as a rule, but it is too late. A human life has been taken."—Judge T. A. Parker, at Waycross.

The carrying of deadly weapons concealed is being denounced on every hand, says the Augusta Chronicle. The best thought of the times is being directed toward the breaking up of the practice.

Judge Parker's statement that 75 per cent of all the homicides is directly attributed to the hip-pocket is not much wild of accuracy. Many men are not equipped with a deadly weapon would not involve themselves in disputes and quarrels as quickly as when so equipped. Becoming so involved, and fortified with the knowledge of their preparedness, they become all the more reckless. Others, of quick temper, though not urged on by the mere fact of being armed, in a moment of anger and frenzy use the gun which, when they pocketed it, they did not believe they could be tempted or provoked to use recklessly.

The gun on the hip is not the equipment of the brave man. The fact of a weapon on one's person tends to demean rather than brave.

There is law against the weapon concealed. Time and time again there have been movements to have the legislature make this law more stringent and more exacting. But no statute is of value unless enforced. The more rigid enforcement of the law now of force would help. In many states imprisonment in the penitentiary without the option of a fine is being resorted to. When this mode of punishment becomes more general there will be less of the carrying of deadly weapons concealed.

Three three wise men of Gotham who went to sea in a bowl were probably misrepresented. They merely sat around the bowl with three sheets to the wind and an error in translation or transmission, occurred.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Blackshear Times, like many others in the Eleventh district, is not taking much interest in all of this political talk, all of which comes from Waycross. It says: "The opposition talk to Randall Walker, congressman from the Eleventh district, is fast dying out. There is nothing to it, boys!"

HEARD IN BRUNSWICK

How Bad Backs Have Been Made Strong—Kidney Pills Corrected.

All over Brunswick you hear it.
Doan's Kidney Pills are keeping up the good work. Brunswick people are telling about it—telling of bad backs made sound again. You can believe the testimony of your own townspeople.
They tell it for the benefit of you who are suffering. If your back aches if you feel lame, sore and miserable, if the kidneys act too frequently, or passages are painful, scanty and off color, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has helped so many of your friends and neighbors. Follow this Brunswick citizen's advice and give Doan's a chance to do the same for you.

F. L. Benerley, Brunswick, Ga., says: "Kidney trouble in my case was brought on by exposure and catching cold. I suffered from pains in the small of my back and was hardly able to stoop. My back ached at night and when I got up in the morning, I was so lame and tired. Headaches and dizzy spells were common and I felt languid nearly all the time. Colds settled on my kidneys making the trouble worse. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me in every way."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get

FACE COVERED WITH PIMPLES

Spread to Back, Could Hardly Sleep for Burning and Itching.
Caused Disfigurement. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Entirely Cured.

214 Brevard St., Tampa, Fla.—"Some three years ago I commenced to suffer from a rash on my face and back. Before the pimples came on my face there were a lot of blackheads. It looked as if the blackheads turned into pimples because after a little while all of them were gone and my face was covered with pimples. They were small at first but gradually grew and right at the end of each pimple it was all white. I carefully picked them with my finger nails, which made them spread and I soon discovered them on my back. My back was covered with pimples and my face the same way. At night I could hardly sleep on account of the burning and itching sensation they caused. I felt like a lot of small-sized crabs biting at my back. I did not like to go out because the pimples caused the disfigurement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in one of the macadams I sent for a sample. At night I would put the Cuticura Ointment on my face and back and I was pleased with the result. I thought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I am able to be able to say that I am entirely cured of pimples." (Signed) Jno. O. Darlington, Jan. 25, 1913.

How to Use Peruna

for Coughs and Colds

If Peruna were used at the beginning of every cold, coughs would generally be prevented.

After the cough begins Peruna will generally stop it just as quickly as it ought to be stopped. To stop a cough before all of the expectation has been removed is to do great injury.
After the expectation has been properly removed the cough will stop itself. That is the only proper way to stop a cough.

Occasionally a cough depends upon an irritable condition of the larynx or bronchial tubes, in which there is little or no expectation.

The problem of stopping such a cough is a slightly different one. Even in those cases Peruna ought to be taken, but sometimes it is necessary that local treatment be added.
Every one who has a troublesome cough or a lingering cold should write the Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio, for a free copy of the "Bills of Life." There is no free pamphlet distributed to-day of more real value to the sick and afflicted than the new "Bills of Life." It is filled from cover to cover with actual cases of cough, colds and other climatic diseases in all stages and complications. You could scarcely fail to find your case exactly described in this book.

To neglect to do everything possible to get rid of a stubborn cold or chronic cough is very unwise indeed.
Peruna has enjoyed a great reputation as a remedy in such cases for thirty or forty years. As a rule, a person who uses one bottle of it is always afterwards an enthusiastic advocate of Peruna. Peruna itself is a means of selling more Peruna than all advertisements put together.

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.
