TWO POINTED QUESTIONS AN-SWERED.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you cannot get a better price for it?
Answer.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.
How can you get the public to know your make is the best?
If both articles are brought promi-nently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use the better one.
This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years, and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by all dealers and druggists.—Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
INFALLIBLE SIGNS.
