A brief sketch of the results of the recent wool clip is as follows: We had wool of all the various classes and colors, and it was all of the highest quality. The wool was received and sorted by the well-known firm of B. & P. L., and was sent to market for the best price it could command. The wool has been sold and shipped to all parts of the world, and has met with great demand.

The wool was received in a most satisfactory condition, and was immediately sent to market for the best price it could command. The wool has been sold and shipped to all parts of the world, and has met with great demand.
