Worshipping a Human God.

(Inter Ocean.)
In south Siberia there is an uncivilized race known as Bourats, who worship a human god. When their god reaches the age of 19, they poison him, and choose a male infant to be their god, who is likewise poisoned when he reaches that age.

A Rothschild's Reply.

(Exchange.)
On being asked lately why he did not give up business, Baron Alphonse Rothschild replied "I would take me twenty-five years to settle my affairs sufficiently to enable me to withdraw from the firm."

A Miserly Patient.

(Boston Globe.)
"The following true story is told of a Montreal physician: He was called late at night to attend a very miserly old man, whom we will call Hardpay. He found the latter in a very anxious frame of mind, and unable to articulate a single word, his jaw having been dislocated. The affected member having been reduced, Hardpay asked the doctor how much he charged. "My fee," said the doctor, "is $5."
"Five dollars," said Hardpay, affecting astonishment; "I'll give you $1; not a cent more."

A bright idea struck the doctor; and he pretended to waive the question, as if disinclined to baffle words about so trifling a matter.
"By the way," he said, taking a seat, "did you ever hear that story about the covering umbrellas?" and he proceeded to rake from the ashes of the past this ancient story and all the other chestnuts he could think of.

Mr. Hardpay stood it for awhile, without being visibly affected, but at last yawned and threw his jaw out of place. This was what the doctor anticipated.
"Good evening, Mr. Hardpay," he said, pleasantly, rising as if to take his leave.
Mr. Hardpay vouchsafed no reply, but gesticulated wildly, pointing to his mouth.

The doctor pretended for a time to misunderstand his signals of distress and continued to retreat; but finally relented (?) and signalled the old man that he would rescue the jaw for $10.
The old man looked at first as if resolved to allow the jaw to remain where it was, but soon saw that the doctor was firm and counted out the required amount. The jaw was then once more put in place, and the doctor took his departure, chuckling at the success of his stratagem.

Reproducing a Slugging Match.

(Chicago Tribune.)
A novel use to which instantaneous photography may be put has been recently suggested. Every one is familiar with the interesting experiments of Mr. Muybridge, whose photographic discoveries regarding the various positions assumed by a horse in motion so astonished the artists. Mr. Muybridge's instantaneous views will, if properly arranged and made to pass rapidly before the eye, be blended into the semblance of a single figure which has the appearance of the most life-like motion. Mr. Muybridge has recently been taking pictures of a boxing-match and it is suggested that he shall execute a series of views of the next prize fight in which the Boston slugger, John L. Sullivan, is engaged.

If this can be successfully accomplished the views may be reproduced by wholesale and sold all over the country, so that, with the aid of a "thaumatrope" such as can be bought in any toy-store, one can sit in his own parlor and view the fight from the first round to the final knock-out. In this manner, too, records may be kept of all great battles fought by the champions of the ring. It would thus be possible years hence, when Mr. Sullivan is dead, to see him knock out Mr. Mitchell or Mr. Pete McCoy, and from the opportunity thus afforded the student of the manly art to study the methods of fighters living and dead. Pictorial science would derive the greatest benefit.

She Gave Him Away.

(Texas Sittings.)
An Austin Israelite has his dwelling and place of business in the same house, which is quite a small one. There were several customers in the store, when his wife, who is a very affectionate creature, called out from the next room: "Oh, Schon, my dear Schon, come to dinner." A shade of rage passed over his Hebrew features, and going to where she was, he seized her brutally by the arm, and with a malignant voice, hoarse with annoyance, said: "Rebecca, does you want to ruin me in my pishness? What for you call me dear Schon ven I wants to be know as cheap Schon? Do you want to have dot peebles lose confidence in me."

A Serious Question.

(Philadelphia Call.)
A Cincinnati inventor claims to have a new telephone that will make the distance of a seashell perfectly audible 600 miles away. But it is a serious question whether the telephone won't cost more than a journey to the seashore.

Racing Reform.

Mr. Robert Bonner says he is aiming for reform as well as those who work in church matters. He cannot see why the devil or the goblins should have all the best horses. Isn't there an opportunity for reform here?

Although Canton, China, has a population of 1,500,000, there is not a newspaper in the place.

(Thoroughbred.)
By Jack Malone, he by Lexington. 1st dam
Ivy Lea, by imported Australian; 2nd dam, Bay Flower, by Lexington; 3rd dam, Bay Leaf, by imported Yorkshire; 4th dam, imported Maria Black by Philo da Patis, etc., etc.
Bazaar was bred at the great Woodburn Farm, near Lexington, Ky., by the late R. A. Alexander, and was sold to W. L. Pritchard, of Sacramento, Cal., for $5,000. He stands 15 1/2 hands, weighs 1,065 lbs., and is a bright chestnut color. During his racing career he downed many a favorite, and won many a hatful of money for his owners, and proved himself one of the greatest of horses over a distance, most of his races being at two and four miles. He has already sired several colts in California that are winners, among which are Lizzie Dunbar, Young Bazaar, Sophie, and another, called the Bazaar Minerva colt, he being out of Minerva by imported Leamington, the sire of Thorne and Troquois. Lizzie Dunbar greatly distinguished herself last year in her two year old form by defeating one of the largest fields of two-year olds that ever started in California, among which were the two beautiful fillies brought here last spring by Mr. Agnew, distance, 4 mile; time, 1:04 1/2 the fastest on record for two-year-olds at the distance. This year she has won several important events, and has proved herself to be a crack three-year-old.
Bazaar has now been brought back to Honolulu,
and will remain here the balance of this year, and breeders, horse owners, and stock raisers should avail themselves of the opportunity to obtain his services while they have the chance. Terms, $200. Payable at time of service.
The imported Clydesdale Stallion DONALD DINNIE, Jr., will stand at the same time and place as Bazaar. He was bred in Canada, sired by imported Donald Dinnie, and out of an imported Clydesdale mare. He is a beautiful dapple grey, 15 hands high, and weighs 1400 lbs; is a very active, and as fine a large horse as could be found anywhere.
Also, the fine large imported Kentucky Jack HARRISON. This is one of the largest Jacks that we could find in California, and is an animal of immense bone; is a very sure breeder, and should be liberally patronized as he is one of the very best animals of his kind. Terms, $300 for the season.
The public are cordially invited to call and inspect the above animals.
