Dance at Waikiki. Last evening Mr. T. R. Walker, Acting British Vice Consul, and Mrs. Walker, gave a dance at their seaside residence, Waikiki, in honor of the Captain and officers of H. B. M. S. Conquest and U. S. S. Adams.

Dance at Emma Square. The following is the programme to be given this evening at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, under the auspices of the Blue Ribbon League:

Concert at Emma Square. The following musical programme will be given by the Royal Hawaiian Military Band this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at Emma Square:

The Label Case. In the Supreme Court yesterday morning Henry M. J. Whitney was arraigned on a charge of libel, and entered a plea of guilty as publisher of the "Hawaiian Gazette."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Likelike is due in port this morning. The Kinai is due from the Volcano to-morrow afternoon.

The sale of furniture at the residence of Rev. George Wallace takes place at 10 o'clock this morning.

Chief Engineer Ezra J. Whitaker, late of the U. S. S. Adams, leaves for San Francisco on the Zealandia.

The Royal Hawaiian Band serenaded H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani at her residence, Palama, yesterday morning.

Mr. M. D. Monsarrat, Foreman of Hose Company No. 1, has a notice to the firemen of Honolulu in another column.

Mr. Rudolph Spreckels, who has been visiting Honolulu the past month or so, returns to San Francisco on the Zealandia.

Entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. The entertainment given by the Y. M. C. A. last evening to the sailors of H. B. M. S. Conquest and U. S. S. Adams was fairly well attended.

F. J. Lowry, President of the Association; Rev. H. H. Gowen, President of the Blue Ribbon League, and Messrs. D. Fuller, General Secretary, and Messrs. P. C. Jones and C. M. Cooke were seated on the platform.

The programme was opened by Miss Jennie Grieve with a song, "When the Heart is Young," which was rendered with pleasing effect, her voice being heard to much advantage.

The English Upper Classes. Englishmen often make themselves quite merry over the easy divorce laws of the United States, while one disgusting divorce case after another comes up before the English courts and is reported at length in all the London and other leading journals.

Rev. H. H. Gowen then gave a brief address of welcome to the seamen. He said that this day was one of great importance to him, for a year ago he left the shores of England for a country which he knew nothing about; but knowing it was his duty he came.

D. Warne, of the Conquest, sang "Set the Bells Tolling" with fine effect. Mesdames Judd and Paty gave a duet called "The Lily and the Rose," and it was certainly the gem of the evening.

The audience were so pleased that the ladies were compelled to repeat a verse. W. Rook of the Conquest next gave a stump speech on "Phrenology."

Blue Ribbon Entertainment. The following is the programme to be given this evening at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, under the auspices of the Blue Ribbon League:

Concert at Emma Square. The following musical programme will be given by the Royal Hawaiian Military Band this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at Emma Square:

Firemen of Honolulu. A great amount of venom has been wanted on Pacific Hose Co. No. 1 as to how members had been picked up on the streets, etc.
