The Goat Went Home.

As soon as Mr. Dole announced the adjournment of the Council of State the buck signs went down, and the Merchant's Exchange is now only offering the delicious Enterprise beer, on which the "goat" is annually nursed. It is fresh, sparkling and a sure tonic for the constitution.

A Well-known Hawaiian.

George S. Baker, the well known hack-driver died yesterday morning at his residence on Queen street and was buried at Makiki cemetery in the afternoon, the services being conducted by the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Honolulu. The deceased was about 43 years of age, and before going into the hack business he was a skillful mechanic. He was very popular among the patrons of hacks and made many friends. The cause of death was phthisis and he passed away at the Victoria hospital. He left a large family to mourn his loss.

Happy Mated.

Mr. W. O. Crowell and Miss Kaaholei Kamaoaha were married last evening at the residence of Hon. J. L. Kaulukou by the Rev. J. Wai-mau. The bridegroom is a bright young Hawaiian, who was brought up under the roof of Mr. Kaulukou. He received his education at Iolani College and Kamehameha School and for some time was the principal of a government school in Kau. He resigned to accept a position as clerk in the Deputy Marshal's office, and he has performed his duty there to the satisfaction of his superiors, and has become very popular with the members of the Bar and with the people having business in the Deputy Marshal's department. Mr. Crowell is a young man with a bright future before him.

The bride is the daughter of Hon. G. P. Kamaoaha who during several sessions of the legislature represented South Kona. She has attended the Normal School and is one of the brightest of Hawaii's daughters.

The wedding was attended by the intimate friends of the contracting parties, and after receiving congratulations the young couple left for Waikiki where they will reside. The independent wish Mr. and Mrs. Crowell all possible happiness in their partnership.
