Be just and fear not: Let all the ends thou aim'st at be Thy Country's, thy God's, and Truth's.

MONDAY, MAY 29, 1893.

Owing to the pressure on space caused by the interesting budget of foreign news, received by the barkentine Irmgard, our editorial comment is necessarily curtailed this morning.

GENERAL ARMSTRONG.

The sad news of the death of General Samuel Chapman Armstrong is printed in another column. He was born in the Hawaiian Islands and first made his mark here as an organizer and leader of public movements.

But the greater part of his life work was performed in the establishment and successful carrying out of the great industrial school at Hampton, Virginia, whose original aim was to ameliorate the conditions of the newly-freed negroes.

He was at the time of his death considered one of the foremost men of the United States. He was loved and honored wherever known.

THE POST OFFICE CLERKS.

A Busy Week Staring Them in the Face.

The post office employees have a busy week before them, as no less than four steamers will arrive from and depart for foreign ports.

Naval News.

Lieutenant-commander W. H. Reeder has been appointed executive officer of the Charleston.

Admiral Gherardi is said to be anxious to have command of the Brooklyn navy yard, if his request to remain in charge of the North Atlantic station cannot be complied with.

Admiral Irwin, who was formerly commandant at Mare Island navy yard, has gone to the Asiatic station to relieve Admiral Harmony, who is on the flagship Lancaster.

Successful Sale of Stocks.

Jas. F. Morgan held a successful sale of stocks at his salesroom on Saturday. Fifteen shares of Inter-Island stock sold for $133 per share; fourteen shares of Wilder S. S. Company stock at $110; eight shares People's Ice Company stock at $96, and ten shares of Fruit and Taro stock at $28 a share.

Any kind of printing at the GAZETTE Office equal to work done abroad.

BLOUNT'S AUTHORITY.

WILL PROBABLY BE INSTRUCTED TO MAKE A NEW TREATY.

The Tenor of the Commissioner's Report Still a Secret.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The president has appointed James H. Blount of Georgia envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the Hawaiian Islands.

The report from Blount, mailed in Honolulu during the last week in April, came to Secretary Gresham yesterday morning, and was taken by him to the cabinet meeting.

Now that Mr. Blount's official status has been changed from commissioner to minister, there is naturally great anxiety to know what will be the next move in Hawaiian matters.

What the tenor of Blount's letter is must remain a secret until such a time as the administration is willing to make known its position in regard to Hawaii.

It is believed that the instructions authorize him to negotiate a treaty of some kind which will insure American supremacy in the islands without interference with internal affairs.

It is understood that Mr. Blount's appointment is not permanent, but was made expressly for the purpose of having him conduct negotiations which will determine the future relations of this country with Hawaii.

A SOCIAL EVENT.

Samuel M. Shortridge and Miss Emma Spreckels to be Married.

There is at present a matrimonial union on the tapis of no inconsiderable interest to social, financial and political circles.

This means that Miss Emma Spreckels, the daughter of Claus Spreckels, the well-known capitalist and sugar magnate, will in the near future be led to the altar by Samuel M. Shortridge.

The bride, besides being a millionnaire in her own right, is a member of a family known all over the country because of the great enterprises in which the male members have achieved wealth and prominence.

With the freshness of youth yet upon him Mr. Shortridge has achieved such prominence in the field of politics that he is spoken of in certain quarters as likely to be one of the candidates for the gubernatorial nomination.

Of Miss Spreckels it is unnecessary to speak, except to say that she is a young lady who has been noted for her retiring manners, when she had every opportunity to shine in society.

and prominence of her family easily placed within her reach. Without being secluded in her habits she has never shown any special fondness for gaining social triumphs.

As for Mr. Shortridge, he owes his enviable position solely to his own talents and energy. Through his own unaided exertions he has risen, in a few years, to an elevation that few men reach after more difficult and longer struggles.

Among the first and strongest friends he made when he began the practice of his profession in this city was John D. Spreckels, of the Oceanic Steamship Company.

Diogenes when a member from his country to the state legislature used to go with a lantern, looking for an honest man. History does not record whether he found what he was looking for. The trouble was not in the legislature-however or in the men, the difficulty was entirely with the lanterns.

It has been a question in our minds whether any dealers in Honolulu sell more garden hose than we do. We have decided in the negative.

The demand for the Fischer Steel Range continues, and we are sending them to the homes of our customers nearly every day.
