DID GOULD HAVE TWO WIVES?

That Is the Story of a Late Telegram.

FORGOTTEN DAUGHTER HAS A CLAIM.

Says That Her Mother Was the Multi-Millionaire's First Wife—No Divorce Ever Issued—Marriage Certificate in a Vault—Will Go to the Courts.

CHEYENNE, Wyo.,
Oct. 21.—The statement that the eldest daughter of the late Jay Gould, millionaire and railroad magnate, is the wife of a humble employe of the Union Pacific Coal Company, residing at Rock Springs, Wyo., will be surprising news to the world, but such is the claim of Mrs. B. F. Pierce and there does not appear to be much question that the lady has the proof to establish what she claims.

Mrs. Pierce says that her mother, Jay Gould's first wife, from whom it is claimed he was never divorced, is still living at Rouse's Point, Clinton County, New York. According to her story Jay Gould met his first wife, a Miss Sarah Ann Brown, at the little town where the woman now resides, and on the 16th of May, 1853, the couple were married in New York City by Rev. Hanna, a Methodist minister.

Mr. Gould was then comparatively a poor man. The couple did not live happily together and before a year of married life Mrs. Gould left her husband and returned to Rouse's Point, assuming her maiden name. She has lived there in obscurity all these years, but she claims that neither she nor Mr. Gould ever secured a divorce.

On the 15th day of February, 1854, a daughter was born to Mrs. Gould or Mrs. Brown as she was ever afterward known. When the child was 2½ years of age her mother gave her in adoption to James and Mary Morton, of St. Thomas, Canada. In 1866 the Mortons moved to Hamilton, Caldwell County, Me., and it was there that Miss Morton met Benjamin Franklin Pierce, to whom she was married on October 5, 1882.

Mrs. Brown never obtruded herself upon her husband after leaving him, but in 1889, after the death of the second wife, she called upon him in New York and informed him of the existence of their daughter, his eldest child. Mr. Gould acknowledged the claim and promised to make a settlement of a certain amount on the child.
This he failed to do.

The daughter never knew of her relation to the Gould family until after her marriage and removal to Wyoming. She was led to believe by her foster mother that her father was dead, but knew of the existence of her own mother, although she had never had any communication with her.
Early in 1891, Mrs. Brown, who had lost all track of the Mortons and of her daughter, began to trace her up and located her at Rock Springs, where Mr. and Mrs. Pierce had settled.

In July or August, 1891, Jay Gould's private car was in Rock Springs. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce solicited an interview with Mr. Gould, and a gentleman representing himself to be that individual met them, and the case was stated to him. The gentleman said to them that if their statements were true the best thing they could do was to make them public.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce now have reason to believe that it was not Mrs.

JAY GOULD.

Pierce's father with whom they talked, but Dr. Munn, Mr. Gould's physician.
Mrs. Pierce's mother was informed of the interview, but she advised her daughter to wait awhile and see if Mr. Gould was disposed to do anything. She desired, if possible, to prevent any publicity of the affair.
After the death of Mr. Gould in December, 1892, Mrs. Brown came to Rock Springs to ascertain if George Gould, as administrator of his father's estate, had taken any action in the matter, he having previously been informed of the existence of the child by a former marriage.

George Gould and his attorneys have entirely ignored all communications sent them on the subject, and failing to secure what they believe to be their legal rights, Mr. and Mrs.
Pierce have determined to resort to the courts. They have employed able counsel and expect to begin suit as soon as they have collected their evidence. They have secured the marriage certificate of Jay Gould to Sarah Ann Brown, and those who knew the late Jay Gould and who have seen Mrs. Pierce say she bears a strong resemblance to her father.

Mr. Pierce is the nominee of the Populist party for State Auditor of Wyoming, and himself and his wife enjoy the confidence and respect of the entire community where they reside.
It was with considerable reluctance that he consented to give out the facts of his wife's relationship for publication.

The marriage certificate of Jay Gould to Sarah Ann Brown is now in a safe deposit vault in the First National Bank of Rock Springs. Mr.
Pierce says that his wife has the only legitimate claim to the Gould estate, and he proposes to establish her identity and secure her rights. He says that he had hoped that he and his wife would be able to have their just claim recognized. Mr.
Pierce has been boss at the Union Pacific coal mines at Rock Springs for years, and is now engaged in making a canvass of the State.

THEY SAY "BILLY" IS A "BAD 'UN."

Some Rough Remarks Made About Wm. H. Aldrich.

Accounts of Him by Witnesses in Court.
His Sister Wants a Guardian Appointed to Manage Him.

An application to have a guardian appointed for Wm. H. Aldrich is being heard before Judge Whiting of the Circuit Court. The petitioner is Annie Aldrich Barton of San Francisco. Her attorney is W. A. Kinney and V. V. Ashford is fighting Mr. Aldrich's sister. J.
O. Carter is mentioned as a proper person to become the guardian of the defendant.

The petition sets out that Mr.
Aldrich has an interest in a large estate and receives a fine income.
His allowance is estimated by outsiders to be about $8000 a year.
Miss Barton represents that her brother is incapable of handling the money which comes to him.
She says he is addicted to "drunk-ness, idleness and debauchery." This is what Mr. Kinney is trying to prove to the satisfaction of Judge Whiting. Mr. Ashford, on the contrary, contends that Aldrich is entirely capable of caring for his income.

Only witnesses for the plaintiff were heard yesterday. Aldrich listened to some rather uncomplimentary accounts of himself during the forenoon. He was not in attendance after lunch. Several business men had no hesitation in declaring that "Billy was a dead beat" and a thorough spendthrift.
He is now a bankrupt, promises to pay, but never yields. The witness said he was a heavy drinker and seemed only to want to have a good time.

It was when Mrs. Arnold took the stand that a search-light was thrown on Aldrich's private affairs.
She had cared for Mrs. Aldrich and two children for a number of weeks.
During that time the only financial transaction she had with the husband and father was when he borrowed money from her. It was not returned. One day "Billy" negotiated a loan of $150 from Mrs.
Arnold. He said he wanted to bring home some small supplies.
He went away in a hack, came back several hours later staggering under the load of a jag and two bit's worth of 11 a.m. fishmarket beef.

Mrs. Arnold said that when Mrs.
Aldrich was very ill "Billy" took prescriptions to have them filled and failed to return with the medicine. In several instances of this sort Mrs. Arnold obtained duplicates of the prescriptions and had them filled herself.

AT THE END OF THREE YEARS

The Concordia Society Has a Birthday Party.

GAVE A CONCERT AT THEIR HALL.

An Occasion of Melody and Mirth—Club Founded in 1891—To Have a Building of Its Own—Committee and Officers.

RIVERS of melody and mirth floated from a hall at the corner of Beretania and Alapai streets last Thursday night. Perhaps this word-figure is a trifle far-fetched.

But there was nothing distant about the good time. The Concordia Society celebrated the third anniversary of its foundation.
The main entrance and hall and rooms of the club house were crowded from early in the ev-

M. G. SILVA, CONCORDIA'S PRESIDENT.

ening until after midnight. The grounds were illuminated and paths served for promenade purposes.
Those present were the wives, families, sweethearts and friends of the members.

The hall was decorated with Hawaiian, Portuguese and American flags, and with ferns. Some very pretty effects were produced. Japanese lanterns were used without stint. The Concordia has a full brass band, which is trained and led by Libornio. It plays well and that it is seldom heard in public is to be regretted. There were twelve numbers on the concert programme.
Several selections were encored. Li-bornio introduced music of his own arrangement or composition seven times, and made a decided hit with the Portuguese selections and "New Hall" and "Foundation Day" marches.

After the concert brief addresses were made by a few prominent members. The Concordia has an earnest membership and is in prosperous circumstances. It has secured land near the Mormon church on Punchbowl street and will put up a building. It is purely a musical organization. When a young member of the colony evinces musical talent he is taken up by the Concordia and encouraged and assisted.

Frank Cabral was chairman of the committee which managed the celebration. His assistants were J.
T. Figuerado, J. Correa, M. G. Sa-musca and A. Nunes. They deserve praise for making the affair a complete success.

These are the present officers of the Concordia:

President—M. G. Silva.
Vice-President—M. D. Freitas.
Secretary—J. T. Figuerado.
Treasurer—J. V. Fernandes.

The band may soon give a public concert in connection with a Concordia entertainment.

Martin Luther.

"Martin Luther" is the subject for Dr. Hutchin's discourse tomorrow evening at Central Union Church. The lecture will be given in recognition of the 411th anniversary of Luther's birth, which falls on the 10th instant.
