

GAY CHILDHOOD'S DAYS.

Special Exercises at Kindergarten Schools Yesterday.

Pleasant Tribute to Mrs. Coleman—Many Hearts of Many Nations Were Happy.

The various kindergartens in the city had special exercises yesterday morning. One of the features of kindergarten training is making much of times and seasons, anniversaries, birthdays and national holidays. The children were in their best clothes and on their best behavior yesterday morning. The various school rooms had some special decorations, suitable for the season. The children enjoyed the various performances, though they have hardly been sufficiently long under training to make all their motions with the precision and grace which is one of the aims of the system. But they did most thoroughly enjoy the hour. The teachers say it is a great trial for the little ones to be kept away from school for any reason. Ten minutes after 9 a. m. was the time assigned to the Portuguese and Chinese schools. In the Portuguese school, under Miss Pires, the distinctive feature was the representation of the different phases of a butterfly's life. In the Chinese school, of which Miss Mildred Kinney has charge, some very fine specimens of modeling in clay showed what artistic power lies latent in the Chinese mind and fingers. At Queen Emma hall, 10:11 a. m., the wee Hawaiians, whom Mrs. Larbell teaches, and the Japanese tots, under Miss Osaka's guidance, were as cunning as any Brownies that are such a fad just now in pictures and jewels. The abandon with which the little ones danced and sang would bring fresh life into any superannated bachelor heart or what passes for such. The children of the Foreign school were most numerous, but not so lively as such little chicks might be. Perhaps the tropic languor has taken out some of the Anglo-Saxon virility, though every European nation, almost, contributed its quota to the Free Kindergarten school, which Miss Eastman manages in addition to the kindergartens whom she has in training in the afternoons. The closing visit was made to Miss Smith's school, on Beretania street, where the children of some of our own Honolulu families, of long residence, are enjoying the privileges of being trained under an expert kindergartner. In all the schools there were gifts ready to be taken home, the work of the children's own hands. As was natural under the circumstances these gifts prepared by Miss Craik's children were of choicest design and tasteful workmanship.

A pleasant feature of the morning was a happy thought of Mr. F. W. Damon's in taking a representative child from each of the kindergartens, each having a bouquet of flowers, which they presented to Mrs. H. W. Coleman at her home. She is the financial secretary of the kindergarten committee and has been most diligent and successful in getting the money to meet the large expenses of so many schools and teachers. Mrs. Hyde, as president of the Woman's Board, under which these kindergartens have been organized, went with Mr. Damon and the children, whose gifts were a sweet surprise to this kind-hearted and open-handed benefactress.

THE KAU DISTRICT.

Kilauea Not Very Active—Personal and Industrial Notes.

KAU, Dec. 19.—This district is having its share of miserable weather. It has been blowing steadily for over two weeks and the indications are that it will keep up for some time. The fire has disappeared from the crater, leaving a large deep hole, with little smoke. The question is, where is the fire now? It must be running some place, and will soon find an outlet.

E. W. Fuller, manager of the Hawaiian Agricultural Company, has resigned, and leaves for San Francisco with his family on the next Australia. He has been connected with the plantation for over fourteen years, and consequently he leaves a great many friends here.

Mrs. Gallagher, wife of the head overseer of Pahala, died this morning and will be buried tomorrow, the 20th inst.

It is reported that all persons working on the Government road, who have not taken the oath to the Republic, will have a chance to do so; otherwise they will lose their places. On the up trip the W. G. Hall was unable to land passengers or mail at Punaluu. They were landed at Honuapo.

W. H. Hoogs, who has been rusticated here for about a week, has left for Hilo. "Billy" was looking fine. He had a "Brownie" with him. He says the "Brownies" are all the fashion now.

New Year's Day promises to be very interesting, if weather permits. There will be several horse races and other sports.

At the present rate it will be a long time before the road from Hilea to Pahala is completed. Only one bullock cart is used, where there should be at least three. It is now over four years since this road was commenced and it is time it should be finished.

Work has now been stopped on the Peter Lee road for over a month. Residents are disappointed, as they were in hopes they could drive to the volcano with ease in a short time.

Tracing That Big Check.

The head of the firm of John D. Spreckels & Bros. denies positively the statement published in a morning paper that the check for $1,500,000 drawn by Claus Spreckels went to pay for the Chino beet sugar plant near Anaheim. Mr. Oxnard, who owns a heavy interest in Chino, makes the same denial, and adds that the only paragraph of truth in the published story lies in the fact that Richard Gird has sold his railroad to C. H. Phillips. This road is a narrow-gauge, extending up the valley ten miles from Chino, and the Spreckels family have no interest whatever in the transaction.—Examiner.

Born a Genius
Disease Threatens to Cut Short a Noble Career
But Hood's Sarsaparilla Restores Good Health.

Lillie May Bentley is an accomplished elocutionist and natural born speaker of only 12 years of age. She is the only child temperance lecturer before the public. Her genius, however, did not exempt her from an attack of a disease of the blood. Her own words best tell the story: "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "I heartily join with the many thousands that are recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla. I had been troubled from infancy with gatherings in the head. I was compelled to leave school upon the doctor's advice. He thought it was the only thing to save my life, but I

Continued to Grow Worse. I was persuaded finally by a friend to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The use of one bottle acted effectively upon the blood and I began to improve. After the use of three bottles the gathering ceased and I am cured of my former trouble. I owe my life and will always remain a true friend to Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mother's Nestlé's Milk Food for infants has, during 25 years, grown in favor with both doctors and mothers throughout the world, and is now unquestionably not only the best substitute for mother's milk, but the food which agrees with the largest percentage of infants. It gives strength and stamina to resist the weakening effects of hot weather, and has saved the lives of thousands of infants. To any mother sending her address, and mentioning this paper, we will send samples and description of Nestlé's Food. Thos. Leeming & Co., Sole Ag'ts, 29 Murray St., N. Y.
