TEN CONSPIRATORS SENTENCED.

Bipikane, Poole, Palau and Clark

Get Ten Years Each.

FINES REMITTED BY PRESIDENT.

Term of Sentences of Prisoners Date

From January 26th.

BIPIKANE POSSES AS A MARTYR.

Major George Potter and Marshal

Hitchcock Read the Sentences.

Widdifield and Lot Lane Pleaded Guilty and Got Light Sentences.

Third Act in the Conspiracy

Drama Played.

VEN now a number of those who took part in the recent but abortive attempt to overthrow the Republic of Hawaii

by force and arms, are undergoing lengthy sentences, and will, before their time expires, have abundant evidence of the old and familiar adage that the way of the transgressor is hard.

Yesterday it became known that findings against ten of the natives concerned in the insurrection had been approved by the Commander-in-Chief. In accordance with the act recently passed by the Councils, giving the Marshal authority to carry out sentences inflicted by the Military Commission, Major

McLeod, commanding First Regiment,

National Guard Hawaii, was instructed to cause Solomon Kauai,

Apeleham, Lot Lane, Thomas

Poole, Robert Palau, J. W. Bipikane, Kiliona, Joe Clark, William

Widdifield and Ioela Kiakahi, prisoners under arrest on the charge of treason, to be transferred to the custody of the Marshal. After the formalities necessary to this end had been accomplished, the papers issued by President Dole containing the term of sentences of the convicted conspirators were placed in the hands of Major

George C. Potter to be served.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon that gentleman, in company with Marshal Hitchcock, repaired to Oahu prison and the sentences read to the guilty parties.

The ten persons named above were brought into Jailor Low's office. They all appeared somewhat grave and anxiously awaited what they had good reason to expect from the visit of the officers.

After the men had been drawn up in line Major Potter read the sentences of each in English. Marshal

Hitchcock translated them into Hawaiian. The sentences were as follows and included hard labor in Oahu prison or other places in the Republic.

SOLOMON KAUI, eight years.

APELEHAMA, seven years.

LOT LANE, five years.

THOMAS POOLE, ten years.

ROBERT PALAU, ten years.

J. W. BIPIKANE, ten years.

KILIONA, five years.

JOE CLARK, ten years.

WM. WIDDIFIELD, five years.

IOELA KIAKAI, eight years.

A fine of $5,000 was added to each sentence by the Military

Court, such a course being compulsory under the law defining treason, and of which the men were convicted. As the prisoners had no property from which the amount of the fines could be collected, the Commander-in-Chief exercised the prerogative allowed him and remitted the sums.

The terms of imprisonment date

from January 26th.

While the sentences were being read the prisoners paid the closest attention, but with stolid countenances
