Built Me Up

Have you been ill? Are you still weak and discouraged? Do not get stronger as fast as you think you should? Then take a good tonic, something that will aid your digestion and build you up quickly.

Here is a letter from Mr. R. Bartholomew, Jr., M.L. Toronto, So. Australia. He also sends his photograph. "After a very severe attack of rheumatic fever I was left in a very weak condition. It was found that I could not possibly pull through. I could get no help from any medicine. I feel sure that unless there had been a change just at that time I could have recovered. But a friend of mine had taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla and knew what a splendid tonic it was. So he urged me to try it. I did now gratefully say that I felt better even after the first dose. It seemed to build me right up from the very start, and in a few weeks my recovery was complete."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas. Be sure you get "Ayer's". Promptly correct any tendency to constipation or fullness. Ayer's Pills are sugar-coated, easy to take, mild in action. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

RULERS NARROWLY ESCAPE

(Associated Press Cable)

PARIS, June 1.—Last evening an anarchist threw a bomb at the carriage containing King Alfonso of Spain and President Loubet as those dignitaries were leaving the opera. The bomb exploded doing no damage to the occupants of the carriage but wounding soldiers of the escort and killing a horse. Many arrests were made.

"In Case of Sudden Death," is an article recently published which shows what the social democracy might gain by the death of King Alfonso. It is as follows: In Spain the disappearance of the nineteen-year-old King from the scene would bring to the throne his little nephew, aged four, the eldest child of his sister, the late Princess of the Asturias, who died last year. This would make necessary another long regency, and trouble would certainly ensue concerning the disposal of the latter. For whereas it might appear natural that the principal guardian of the infant King should be his father, yet the latter, owing to his foreign birth and to his being a member of the most reactionary branch of the Bourbons of Naples, is so unpopular in Spain that his appointment as regent would be out of the question, and, if the strict letter of the law and of the constitution were complied with, the reins of power would be vested in the hands of the only surviving sister of the present King, the unmarried, twenty-two-year-old Infanta Marie Therese. That the present Spanish dynasty survived the sixteen years of the minority of Don Alfonso XIII was entirely due to the sagacity of Queen Christina, to the patriotic forbearance of Canovas and to the devotion and political skill of Sagasta. That it would live through another regency of twelve years is extremely doubtful, indeed well nigh improbable. For Canovas and Sagasta are both dead and Queen Christina would be debarred by the constitution from resuming her former position at the tiller of the Spanish ship of state, even were the people willing to confide to her the task. Menaced by Carlism and even still more by republicanism, the growth of which is making enormous strides in the Iberian Peninsula, the present dynasty would be doomed in the event of the death of King Alfonso.

JUDGE GEAR WAS THE PARTY KAMEHAMEHA COMMENCEMENT

While on his recent visit to the coast Judge George D. Gear was visiting some friends near Mountain View. Late in the afternoon he was driven up to Mountain View station to take the 7 o'clock train for San Francisco. It was a warm evening, the horses lagged and he missed the train, the last San Francisco bound train stopping at Mountain View that night. "As the judge had an important engagement in San Francisco early the next day he seemed worried until he learned that there was a San Francisco express which passed Mountain View at 9 o'clock. Then he smiled. Going to the telegraph office he directed a telegram to the superintendent of the road in San Francisco, and sent the following message: "Will you stop the 9 o'clock express at Mountain View tonight for a large party for San Francisco?" The answer came back: "Yes, Will stop train."

Judge Gear read the message and smiled. When the train pulled in Gear quietly started to board it, when the conductor said: "Where is that large party we were to stop for?" "I am the large party," replied the Judge, and he boarded the train.
