ALASKAN LEAVES HILO.
 The big S. S. Alaskan, Captain Bantfield, sailed from Hilo last Thursday with 11,000 tons of sugar for the Atlantic seaboard.
PERU BRINGS NEXT MAIL.
 Unless some transport or tramp steamer happens to come along within the next few days, there will be no mail from San Francisco until the afternoon of May 23, when the Peru will probably be sighted. She is not due until May 24, but she came in ahead of time on her preceding trip, and may repeat the occurrence this week.

AMERICAN MARU THIS WEEK.
 The American Maru will be three days late in reaching here from the Orient. Figuring that she runs a day ahead of her regular schedule, she should be sighted on Wednesday, May 21. She will probably leave for San Francisco, within a few hours after reaching Honolulu.
ALAMEDA FOR THE COAST.
 The Alameda will sail at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, for San Francisco. She will take a large crowd of passengers, among them being R. O. Yardley, the former artist of the Advertiser.
RAPID LOADING.
 The record day for loading sugar in Hilo harbor was made last Wednesday when 10,481 bags were transferred from the warehouses to the capacious hold of the Alaskan in one day by one gang of men—Hilo Tribune.
WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.
 The U. S. Army to Establish a System in Alaska.
 WASHINGTON, May 7.—An object lesson in the use of the wireless telegraph was made yesterday in the office of Brigadier General A. W. Greely, chief signal officer of the army, where bids for establishing a system in Alaska were opened.
 Five proposals were received, and another from the Sigsbee-Arcos Company is on its way to Washington. These were the bidders: Queen & Co., of Philadelphia, for Professor Fessenden, who with Professor Moore has developed a system of wireless telegraphy for the Weather Bureau; Roote, Pierson & Co., of New York; Marconi Company, of London, England, which has a branch house in America; American Wireless Telegraph and Telephone Company of Philadelphia; De Forest Wireless Telegraph Company, of New York.

 The bids were received and opened in accordance with an advertisement issued by General Greely, who invited proposals for "furnishing and installing a complete system of wireless telegraphy in the Territory of Alaska."
 General Greely required bidders, before the contract was awarded, to demonstrate their ability to transmit legible records for two consecutive days at a distance of sixty miles and before acceptance each separate system would be required to work satisfactorily for not less than ten consecutive days.
 General Greely expressed gratification at the number of proposals received. He says he will refer them to a board of examination of the systems and a report.
