HAWAIIAN LEGISLATURE.

SESSION OF 1886.

MONDAY, June 14th.

Representative Thurston read for the first time bills, 1, relating to the property of married women; 2, for the relief of certain poor people residing at Makiki. To second reading in order.

Representative Dickey gave notice of intention to introduce an amendment to Article XLIII of the Constitution relating to privileges of Crown Ministers. Also a resolution requiring a two-thirds vote to carry a vote on the "previous question." To second reading in order.

Representative Kekoa read, first time, a bill to amend sections 2 and 9, chapter 43 of S. L. of 1882, relating to internal taxes. Referring to special committee on tax laws.

The Minister of Interior, under the suspension of the rules, reported from the Printing Committee that the bill relating to the establishment of the width and grade of streets in Honolulu cities, was ready for distribution.

Representative Nahinu read for the first time a bill to amend the law relating to internal taxes. To special committee on tax laws.

Representative Dickey read for the first time a bill to exempt native born Hawaiians from payment of road taxes. Withdrawn.

Representative Nahale gave notice of intention to introduce a bill to amend section 1, 116 of the Civil Code, relating to "unliquidated claims."

Representative Kaulukou gave notice of a bill to amend the Act relating to street railroads in Honolulu, passed in 1884, and on suspension of the rules read, the bill for the first time. The bill provides for the granting of a franchise to William R. Austin and associates for a period of 30 years, to build and operate street railways in Honolulu, the lines to run on King street from Moanalua to Kapiolani Park, and on Nuuanu street out to the Pali. To second reading.

Representative Kalua, on suspension of the rules, presented a petition from Hawaiian teachers in Honolulu Government schools, submitting a schedule of names of teachers and the pay at present received by them and asking that each teacher's pay be apportioned by the Assembly, similar to the apportionment made to policemen at last session. To special committee on items of Board of Education.

Representative Nahale gave notice of a bill to amend section 5, chapter 18, Penal Code, relating to punishment for adultery.

At noon, adjournment was had until 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

It was fifteen minutes after the hour set before a quorum arrived and the Assembly was enabled to reconvene for the transaction of business.

Representative Kaulukou, under suspension of the rules, presented a petition from Mrs. Antonette F. Swan, acting Chamberlain to Her Majesty, for an appropriation of $5,000 for the payment to her of the valuation of certain property situated near the Honolulu Iron Works and of which the Government had been receiving the rentals since 1847. To Judiciary Committee.

The Assembly now resolved into Committee of the Whole and, with Rep. Kaunamano in the chair, proceeded to discuss the items in the Department of the Interior, the following being passed as printed:

The item

Salary of Superintendent of Immigration ..... $ 4,200 00

caused Representative Brown to ask the Minister of the Interior what was meant by "Mausoleums," the speaker knew of only one, that was in charge of the Government, the one in Nuuanu Valley, the other mausoleum in the city was cared for, he believed, by the trustees of the Lunalilo Estate.

The Minister of Interior replied by referring Rep. Brown for answer to his question to page 11 of the report of the Department of the Interior.

Representative Kalua considered that nothing would be lost by referring the item to the care of a special committee; the report of the Minister had only been presented the previous day and sometime was required to study it up before being able to act intelligently. He moved that the Committee recommend reference to a special committee.

Representative Brown quoting from the Ministers report said that the item of $4,320 seemed to be made up as follows: Keeper Royal Mausoleum, $720; Keeper of Lots "o Mausoleum, $720; Keeper Tomb Kaawaloa, $720; Tomb Kamilo, $720; Tomb Kaanaolu, $720; Tomb Kalo ku, $720. He would ask if all of the above named mausoleums were in charge of the Interior Department?

The Minister of Interior said that the last four mentioned were new additions and for which no previous provision had ever been made.

Representative Thurston desired to know whether Kaawaloa, Kamoilo, Kamilo and Kaloko were the names of persons or places? They seemed to be presented as the names of persons but he was in doubt.

The Minister of Interior stated that the names were of places, not persons.

Representative Thurston, therefore, desired more definite information with regard to whose bones were thus supposed to be taken charge of by the Government.

The Minister of Interior did not care to be specific, but in a general way to would say that the places mentioned were old Kanaka burial places and well known to Hawaiians.

Representative Thurston expressed surprise at the answer of the Minister. Here was the sum of $4,320 asked for and, when was the sum of $4,320 asked for and, when the purpose is required to be made known, the head of the Department says "to take the head of dead men's bones, but does not care if dead men's bones, but does not know whose bones." True that road improvements could not be made without money, but the balance over and above that was really required to take care of the mausoleums would be sufficient to improve the roads in the whole of the district of Koloa, Oahu. The member for Hilo was willing the money should be appropriated without knowing whose bones were in the tombs. There were bones of Hawaiian chiefs scattered all over the islands, according to tradition. Was that any reason why they should not Hawaiians all over the kingdom to whom those bones? If a specific statement had been made that Kamehameha, his wife, or his consorts, or his aunts were buried at particular places, he would still favor the necessity of voting the money. He considered that those bones must be taken care of, a special committee could find out whose they are, what they are, and which of the lot should be taken care of.

On motion, the item was referred to a special committee.

The following items passed as printed:

Salary of Postmaster-General	$ 5,000 00
Salary of Deputy Postmaster-General	4,200 00
Salary of Chief Clerk	2,400 00

Questions started on the next item proceeded as follows:

Representative Kaulukou (the Postmaster-General) explained that the item, as presented was for the large amount of labor and also the personal responsibility involving on the Postmaster-General. He considered that a special committee would hardly be able to gain any information than the Minister had, therefore he moved that the item might be passed as presented.

Representative Dole said that the talk about increased labor, etc., did not amount to anything, because the Post Office had formerly been conducted just as well, if not better, as now and on about half the amount. He hoped the instalment of the honorable member for Hilo as head of that department was not going to make it more expensive. Ability was not shown by spending a great amount of money, but on the contrary, doing a great deal with little money. He was puzzled as to where members expected this money to come from—not for improvements, but for bare running expenses. The Government was just like a man. If his income was $10,000 and he spent $12,000 he must go under. When members were voting away moneys they ought to remember that Government taxes represented the labor and sweat of their constituents, and it did not do for them, the Representatives of the people, to come there and pour it out by the barrel ful simply because it suited the Ministers. A good deal had been previously said but he was sorry to hear patriotism only mentioned in connection with a horse race. If the Hawaiian members loved their country, here was something for them to do, that was to be economical in their money appropriations, and keep the credit of the Kingdom up to the top notch. He did not want to see the present state of things continued and get worse, but the majority seemed disposed to increase this extravagance and discredit the Government.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs begged to say that the Government had not been dishonored by any action of refusal to pay any honest obligation. There might have been a disputed question between the Government and another party; but there was no dishonor there. It would be well for every government in the world if its business was on as good basis as that of this Government. It was not right for members to be constantly raising this cry about the Government, simply to have it go into newspapers and abroad, that the Government cannot pay its debts. The laborers on the wharf or in the taro patch were well worthy the attention of the Legislature and of His Majesty's Ministers. There was, however, another picture that might be drawn of an honorable member of this Assembly who drew his $500 on the first day of the session, obtained out of the sweat of the poor laborers, before he had done one day of service. He would mention no names, but they should all be considerate of the poor laborer. (Laughter).

Representative Dole said, he had drawn his salary, but then it was only the habit of a lawyer to draw his fee in advance. (Laughter). He did not intend to run away, and he had stuck out the Session so far. He had a perfect right to discuss the financial affairs of the Government, even if he did draw his salary. To instance that the Government's credit was bad, he mentioned a claim it refused to pay the Lunalilo estate—$283.84 for the rent of Honolulu Hale—and stated that, as a trustee of that estate he had dunned the Minister of the Interior till he was ashamed. He cited another instance by charging the Government with having mortgaged the taxes in advance for a special loan at 12 per cent. when there was a loan act in force. (Sensation).

The Minister of Foreign Affairs called the chairman's attention to the fact that the consideration of a certain item was before the Assembly, but the member was discussing the general action of the Government. He considered Rep. Dole was out of order.

Representative Dole said the Ministers asked for special instances of discredit, he was supplying them, but perhaps they had had enough. The mortgaging of incoming taxes was a result of the extravagant way the Assembly was going on now. The fact of the Cabinet asking for permission to sell a loan at a discount of five per cent was something never before necessary because the credit of the country had always been good. He had nothing against the Ministers personally, but considered it his right and duty to criticize them for their official acts. The Minister of Finance had been requested by resolution to present a list of unpaid bonds, but he had failed to do so. The business of the country might be in a worse position than any member there knew. He thought he represented his constituents as they wished him to do by refusing to vote for this item till it was explained.

Representative Ahoke was in favor of referring the item to a select committee. He thought there were many reasons for that course, some of which had already been stated. In addition he would also be in favor of referring succeeding items, when reached, to the same special committee.

The motion to refer to a special committee was then put and carried, and that item with the two following ones

Fee of Postmasters	$ 27,000 00
Fee of Mail Carriers	25,000 00

were so disposed of for the time being.

The next item

Postal Money Orders	10,000 00

caused more discussion, Rep. Dole asking for information relative to the proposed expenditure.

The Minister of Interior, rather cavalierly, referred the inquirer to the report of the Department saying that, he did not just then remember the details of the matter.

Representative Hayselden moved the item pass as in bill, saying that $7,500 had been expended for the purpose last biennial period, and the business was likely to increase.

The item was finally passed as above printed.

The next item

Incidentals of Post Office	10,000 00

would probably have passed but that the Minister of the Interior moved for an increase to $22,000 on account of a further cause for expenditure by increased business. Also to provide for the settlement of claims amounting to over $8,000 which had been presented and unpaid.

Representative Thurston said this was very interesting information, that the Minister had, since making up the report of the Department, discovered claims of $8,000. Perhaps if the Minister looked carefully he might discover some other claims in his old or new pants pocket. (Laughter.)

The Minister of Interior said that, in answer to the facetious remark of Rep. Thurston he would inform him that the claims were not discovered in his (the Minister's) pants pocket but in those of the previous incumbent.

Representative Kaulukou mentioned certain claims that he said had been presented lately. The ex Postmaster General had also presented a bill from the HAWAIIAN GAZETTE. [Quite in proper form, the ex Postmaster General was acting in his official capacity as Manager of the GAZETTE. Ed.] He favored reference to a special committee.

On motion the item was referred to a special committee.

The Committee now rose, and reconvened in Assembly, received and approved of the report of the Committee and gave leave to sit again.

The following were appointed as members of the special committee to consider items referred at this sitting viz.: Kaunamano, Dole, Hayselden, Kalua and the Minister of Interior.

At 4:40 the Assembly adjourned until 10 a.m. the next day.
