IN MRS. DOLE'S HONOR.

Mrs. Davis's "Progressive Breakfast."

W. E. Curtis in The Chicago Record.
The most original entertainment of the season was a "progressive breakfast," given today by Mrs. Davis, wife of Senator Cushman K. Davis of Minnesota, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, in her home in Massachusetts-ave., in honor of Mrs.
Dole, wife of the President of the Republic of Hawaii. There were sixty covers. The guests were seated at small tables in two rooms on the main floor of the house. In the space between the rooms was the table of honor, where the hostess was seated, with Mrs. Dole at her right and Mrs. Sherman, wife of the Secretary of State, at her left. One place at this table was vacant at the beginning of the breakfast, and just as the first course was brought in a pretty young girl carried a rosette of ribbons in the Hawaiian colors to one of the guests chosen by Mrs. Davis, and the favored one took the vacant seat at the table of honor, and had the pleasure of sitting opposite to Mrs. Dole during the time the course was in progress. At the beginning of the next course the ribbons were carried to another guest, so that during the breakfast most of the guests enjoyed the privilege of sitting with Mrs. Dole. Upon leaving the table of honor the guest did not go back to her old seat, but took the one left vacant by the guest who took her place with Mrs. Dole, so that before the affair was over the guests were well shuffled. There were no flowers on the tables. They were only decorated with the American and Hawaiian colors, but at the end of the feast a large basket containing generous bouquets of violets was passed, and each guest carried a bunch away.
There were souvenirs in the shape of gold pins tied with red, white and blue ribbons, which were supposed to pin the napkins to the gowns of the guests, so that in passing from table to table there would not be a shuffle of napkins as of guests.

Out for Himself.

Harry Armitage, who has been connected with Jas. F. Morgan in the auction business and commission house on Queen street for several years, is to branch out on his own account. Mr.
Armitage will open an office for the handling of such general business as may be entrusted to him. The gentleman has had wide experience in local business affairs and has long enjoyed the fullest confidence, not only of the Honolulu commercial circles, but of the best men throughout the Islands. Mr.
Armitage will likely make a specialty of the purchase and sale of stocks, in which particular line he has been very successful in the past.

Parallel Proposed.

Some gentlemen who are very much interested in the development of the Island of Hawaii, are talking of presented in the Legislature, a bill for a road to parallel the present splendid line from Hilo to the Volcano, through the Olaa coffee thoroughfare. The argument in support of this measure is that it would open up a new coffee district, valuable and extensive as Olaa, would at once greatly increase the population and the value of present wild land. The scheme is not a new one, but is now under consideration by men who will push it earnestly, if they once decide upon the launching.

Now in Singapore.

Mr. Crick, who earned considerable notoriety in this country in various ways, before going into the Far East, is now at Singapore. Crick was one of the foreigners engaged by the reform party to attempt the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty in China. There was a preliminary brush through the discovery of arms and ammunition by the customs authorities and a few Chinese lost their heads. Crick then went to Singapore. At that place he is said to be doing well. He is connected with one of the leading mining companies.

Fine Flood Views.

Photographer Davey has received a lot of orders for his excellent flood pictures. There are eight views in the series and the set gives a very comprehensive idea of the situation during the rush of waters on Thursday last. Mr.
Davey was up to his waist in the water while making some of the pictures.

REGISTRATION OF 1894.

Supreme Court Says to Use It for Maui Election.

The Supreme Court rules, as Attorney General Smith had advised, that the 1894 Senatorial register shall be used for the special election called on the Island of Maui. Judge Kepoikal will be chosen to succeed the late Senator Horner. This is what the Supreme Court said upon the question of the registration:
"We are of opinion that the register of voters to be used at the special election for Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Senator Horner must be that used at the last election of Senators, to wit, the register of voters for Senators at the general election of 1894. We construe Section 5 of Article 77 of the Constitution to refer to the register of voters and used at the last preceding general election for members of the house in question, that is, the registry of voters applicable.
Any other construction would lead to absurdities and would render other parts of the Constitution nugatory until the general election of 1899." Signed by Chief Justice Judd, Justice Frear and Justice Whiting.

Pair of Globe Circlers.

Two reporters belonging to a newspaper of Paris are making a tour of the world, for their own entertainment, and have reached San Francisco. After getting out a newspaper of one edition there, they will visit Honolulu on the way to Australia. The young men are to get back to Paris in time for the opening of the 1900 fair and must have bicycles when they get home.

Patriotic Sentiments.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the Chinese patriot who began life in Honolulu, has been urged to leave Formosa and the danger of losing his head and to settle in Honolulu as a practitioner. To this earnest invitation he has responded that as a doctor he might cure a few men of hurts or disease, but that as reform leader, he hopes to cure a sick nation.

When you answer in the affirmative be sure you are in a position that will bear out your assertions. There is no such word as "Fail." Say "Yes," and stick to it. Say "Yes," and prove it.

Have we good fitting shoes? Have we the latest

MR. J. G. SPENCER,
PACIFIC HARDWARE CO.,
Honolulu.

DEAR SIR:—The Secretary Disc Plow I purchased from you is giving us satisfaction. We are using it to plow under a crop of lupins. They are three feet high and very thick. Your plow turns them completely under, at the same time plowing the land fourteen inches deep.

I feel satisfied that with this plow the draft for the same quantity and depth of work is as 6 to 8. That is, with the old plow, to do the same work, it takes 8 good mules; with your plow it takes only 6, and they are less tired at night.

Please send me another plow by first schooner leaving for this.

You are at liberty to use this in any way you may see fit.

Yours truly,
A. LIDGATE.
