

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Semola at your grocer's.
Two days more, display Easter bonnets, Mrs. Hanna.
Special meeting of Pacific Lodge to-night. Work in first degree.
Fairchild's Honolulu Shoe Store has an interesting ad in this issue.
Read the ad of the Temple of Fashion about ribbons just received.
The Davey Co.'s flood photographs seem day by day to attract more attention.
At 9 last night there were clouds of dust on King, Nuuanu and other streets.
There was quite a rush to the tax office yesterday to pay personal and dog taxes.
A meeting of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, will be held tomorrow evening.
At the American League open meeting this evening the Income Tax Act will be discussed.
Colonel Little returns to Hilo today after representing clients before the Supreme Court here.
J. J. Egan is offering the latest in organdies, dimities, fancy draperies, negligee shirts, collars, cuffs, etc.
The Y. M. C. A. year ends on Thursday of this week. There will be election of officers on next Monday evening.
A Fort street young man raffed a diamond set ring a few evenings ago and was lucky enough to win it for himself.
The China is confidently expected in from San Francisco this evening. She will bring several days' later news from the States.
The Minister of the Interior will receive sealed tenders until noon, Monday April 4, for alterations in the Post Office Building, Honolulu.
The gate receipts of the Rugby match on Saturday will be paid to Rev. and Mrs. Alex. Mackintosh for the education of three orphan children.
There was a very good practice again yesterday afternoon of Rugby football and the players are now in good shape for the match on Saturday.
If the weather is good tonight there will be a meeting of native Royalists on Union Square. The anti-Annexation commission will once more report.
At the Hawaiian Electric Co.'s works yesterday such repairs were made to the broken machine that nearly all of the customers had light as usual last night.
An appeal is to be made for commutation of the sentence of Ka'o, condemned to be hanged with Kapea for the murder of Dr. J. K. Smith on Kauai.
Walter Cassett, a gentleman for several years engaged in the range horse business in Wyoming, is now in Hawaii with the purpose of permanently locating.
Viggo Jacobson has submitted to Minister Cooper designs for the "Department Trophy of 1898." The first shoot of the series will occur on Saturday next.
Medeiros and Decker, the Hotel street tailors, say that it is just as cheap to buy clothes that fit and wear well as to buy those that don't fit or wear. See ad on page 2.
F. J. Jessup, a kamaaina who left here 18 years ago and who has since been in South America and the United States, is back again and in the service of the Oahu Railway.
Marks and Saunders, the local representatives of Willison's circus are hard at work now preparing for the opening of the show season under tents near the fish market.
Sealed Tenders will be received by the Minister of the Interior until 12 o'clock noon Wednesday, April 20th, for 84 pieces of cast iron pipe. Specifications at Public Work's office.
The Marshal wishes to extend his thanks to the Union Express Company for their kindness during the flood on Thursday. The carts worked all afternoon without asking for any pay whatever.
Wm. M. Pond, an employe of the Makee Sugar Company, died at the Queen's Hospital on Saturday last and the funeral was held on Sunday. Mr. Pond had been under treatment several weeks for tumor on the brain.
Judge John W. Kalua has been directed by the Chief Justice to proceed to Kailua, Hawaii, and there preside at a session of the Circuit Court for that Circuit in the place of Judge E. G. Hitchcock, whose illness has been recorded.
A stranger who looked like a Klondiker left from the last steamer was about the streets yesterday looking for the loan of a strong glass to search for gold that he believed was hidden in some volcanic rock he carried very carefully.
Ignes de Mattos, widow, has brought an action against the Portuguese Benevolent Society of Hawaii for an accounting in the matter of the benefits to which she claims her husband was entitled as a member in good standing of the Society.
There was a big crowd out for the concert at Emma Square last evening. Miss Kanoho, who has been missed for several weeks, was given a most cordial welcome. She sang three songs. Mr. Kreuter's cornet solo was even better than usual.
Marshal Brown has filed at the offices of the Clerk of Courts in the Judiciary building his official return on the execution of the two Japanese hanged at Oahu prison on Friday last. C. A. Doyle's signature appears as one of the resident witnesses.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Isenberg gave a luan complimentary to Messrs. Alex. and Walter McBryde at their home in Niu on Sunday. A right good time was had. There were present besides the guests of honor the following: Miss L. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad, J. O. Carter, Jr., Ernest Wodehouse and C. Mett.

If "SEMOLA" is not the best of kind why does everybody ask for it? And why do all the grocers keep it?

The meeting of Aloha Branch, T. S., will be held as usual this evening.
Kewalo is quite dry again and the avenue to Cycnomere park can be used by wheelmen.
During the heavy rains of the past six weeks there has been one bad break in the Volcano Road. This is within a few miles of Hilo.
