A GRAND CONCERT

Success of the Benefit Entertainment Unqualified.

Music for Native Church Funds. A Large Audience - Every Number Was Pleasing to All.

Even the most sanguine did not believe that there would be as large a crowd present at the Opera House as there was in attendance upon the grand concert for the benefit of the Kailih and Moanalua churches on Saturday night. At 8 o'clock, there was hardly a seat left. The box on the right hand side was occupied by Princess Kaiulani and party and the one opposite by Mrs. S. B. Dole and party. The box above Princess Kaiulani's was reserved for the performers. Large delegations of both the Kawaihau Seminary and Kamehameha school girls, all dressed in spotless white, were present in the audience.

The program opened with an overture by the band. Next came a chorus by the Kamehameha Glee Club and then a very well done vocal duet, in point of acting and singing, by Misses Helen Desha and Lydia Aholo. The audience was much disappointed when the announcement was made that Paul R. Isenberg was unable to sing. Wm. J. Coelho took his place. After a selection by the Kawaihau Seminary girls, Miss Kulamann Ward gave her soprano solo, entitled "Sancta Maria," with violin obligato by Mrs. C. B. Cooper and piano accompaniment by Miss Patch. Miss Ward responded to a very hearty encore and was the recipient of a bouquet of beautiful red carnations. The mandolin and guitar duet "Il Trovatore" by Messrs. Hennessey and Jackson, was one of the very best numbers on the program. Certainly the young musicians handle their instruments in a masterly fashion. There was immense applause when the Kawaihau club sang "Lei no Kaiulani." When the three singers appeared on the stage, they bowed gracefully to Princess Kaiulani, then to the audience and began their song. They responded to an encore.

After a short intermission came the second part, beginning with another overture by the band. Four native singers presented a solo and chorus and were called back twice. Miss Kamaioipili and John Bright sang a delightful duet in English and then responded to an encore with a Hawaiian selection. The Kawaihau Seminary girls gave two selections after which Jas. W. L. McGuire sang a solo. He responded to an encore, bringing three native singers along with him to join in the chorus. A selection by the Kamehameha girls was heartily encored. They responded by singing "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," at the end of this, they joined hands and with the words "They danced by the light of the moon" tripped gracefully across and back on the stage. This last touch took so well that the girls were encored again. Miss Rosina Shaw's solos were much enjoyed. The quality of Miss Shaw's voice is most sweet and she has a simple way of singing that at once captures her audience. Then too her enunciation is clear which is a most satisfactory point. Another mandolin and guitar selection by Messrs. Hennessey and Jackson, a selection by the Kawaihau club, "Hawaii Poni," and the concert was at an end. It is estimated that close upon 900 people were present at the concert so that the receipts for the two churches will be between $700 and $800.

Masonic Condolence.

A committee of Hawaiian Lodge, No. 21, F. & A. M., consisting of Messrs. Archibald Gillilan, E. I. Spalding and J. M. Oat, has drafted a letter of condolence to the widow of the late T. C. Porter, who held the highest office in the gift of the order, paying tribute to the sterling qualities of their late brother Mason, and expressing in feeling and eloquent terms, their sorrow at his loss.

Viggo Jacobsen has prepared a beautifully engrossed copy of the letter, surrounded by a very chaste and effective border in black and white of a conventional lily design. The Masonic symbolic sign and the inverted torch, with the flames ascending - emblem of death and resurrection - have not been forgotten.

The Next Regatta.

The next boat races will be on July 4th. There will be at least two clubs, the Myrtles and Healanis, entered in these. The Lellanis may come in, but that is doubtful. There will be a six-oared sliding seat and a four-oared shell race. The boys are already getting in trim.

Of course the Myrtles will not row in their new shell. It is of a class superior to any here and would not be allowed. However, there is something besides this to stop its use. The clubs have an agreement for two years yet, to row in none but their Australian made boats.

AT MR. KENNY'S.

The Jolly Cricketers Have a Fine Practice Meet.

In response to the invitation of British Commissioner and Consul General Kenny, the following gentlemen met at Mr. Kenny's home at Palama last Saturday afternoon: Dr. H. V. Murray, Judge Stanley, Rev. J. F. Lane, H. L. Herbert, A. St. M. Mackintosh, R. A. Jordan, Chris Willis, J. Harvey, A. Pihanaia, J. Catton and Viggo Jacobsen. A very good and level pitch had been prepared on the turf at the rear of the premises, where excellent practice was indulged in upon a single wicket with netting, each player being given exactly seven minutes batting exercise. All were most enthusiastic, some in good form, and even Barrett, the half-white retainers of the late Mr. Hawes, now in the service of his successor, was given his turn and showed that he had "caught on" to a trick or two.

A very sociable and pleasant time was had and after play, tea and other liquid refreshments with a light collation, was served "al fresco." The Commissioner extended another general invitation for Wednesday afternoon next, and everybody came away voting him a most delightful and genial host. Mr. Kenny deserves the warmest thanks of the club members for his liberality in furnishing them with so good a practice ground, the more that they are now threatened with the loss of the further use of the old baseball grounds. This sport is dear to the heart of the Anglo-Saxon in general and to that of the Britisher in particular, and while such friends remain, it will not be allowed to die out.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for 12 years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. MR. J. G. SPENCER, PACIFIC HARDWARE CO., Honolulu.

DEAR SIR:-The Secretary Disc Plow I purchased from you is giving us satisfaction. We are using it to plow under a crop of lupins. They are three feet high and very thick. Your plow turns them completely under, at the same time plowing the land fourteen inches deep.

I feel satisfied that with this plow the draft for the same quantity and depth of work is as 6 to 8. That is, with the old plow, to do the same work, it takes 8 good mules; with your plow it takes only 6, and they are less tired at night.

Please send me another plow by first schooner leaving for this.

You are at liberty to use this in any way you may see fit. Yours truly,

A. LIDGATE.
