KAPEA IS HANGED

Assassin of Dr. J. K. Smith Executed at Oahu Prison.

WENT TO DEATH LIKE A STOIC

Had Nothing to Say—Farewell to Father—Had Received the Sacrament—Refused Liquor.

Kapea was hanged at Oahu Prison yesterday forenoon and appeared to be the least concerned man on the premises all during the preparations for his execution. He showed neither fear nor nervousness—exhibited little more than interest in the handling of himself for supreme punishment by law. Kapea was really nonchalant. He was a man of sufficient intelligence to appreciate as fully as anyone his situation, but he either did not care or was entirely reconciled. He refused brandy, saying that he needed no stimulant and that it was his desire further to go to the gallows quite himself in a natural way. Kapea had no speech to make, and when on the scaffold uttered words but once. This was when he remarked that the rope was very tight about his neck.

There were tiny, filmy drops of rain sifting through the sunshine when the young man was brought out to be hanged. The party appeared from within the prison just as four bells (ten o'clock) had been struck. In two minutes the fine form of the young man was dangling from the rope end. Fourteen minutes later the physicians informed the jailor that life was extinct. The body was taken down, placed in a coffin and carried to Makiki cemetery for burial. The interment was at Government expense. No friends followed the remains to the grave. The authorities refused to allow a post mortem by surgeons. Kapea's neck was broken. Death was instant and painless. The murderer said he was 21. His cousins said he was 25. He was of superb build, being six feet tall, handsomely proportioned and of good features.

At 9:55 Kapea was brought into the office at the jail. Here the death warrant was read by Marshal Brown in English and translated into Hawaiian by Judge Wilcox. Kapea was asked if he understood and without hesitation replied in the affirmative. As to final request, he wished only to thank his counsel, A. G. M. Robertson, and warmly shook that gentleman's hand. The murderer must have confessed and expressed contrition and repentance for the following was furnished the Advertiser by the priest in attendance: "Kapea (christened Peter) died as a good Christian, after having received from the Rev. Father Clement the sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church." At the last moment Father Clement read: "Amen. I say to thee, this day shalt thou be with Me in Paradise." The priest added: "Said our Lord to the repenting thief." This was followed by a brief prayer.

Between Kapea and Kaio, son and father, there was a touching farewell. They embraced and kissed and the elder man wept. Kaio was told on Sunday morning that his life has been spared by the pardoning power. He brightened up at once and in a few hours showed the beneficial effects of release from the strain which he had been under. Official notification was given Kaio of the commutation ten minutes before the death warrant was read to Kapea. The son had no complaint to make, when a few minutes before his death he learned that his father was to live on.

Those who witnessed the execution were: Marshal Brown, Jailor Low, C. A. Doyle, H. M. Dow, Henry Vida, H. Overend, S. F. Chillingworth, Luther Wilcox, John H. Coney, Capt. Robert Parker, Rev. Father Clement, Dr. N. B. Emerson, Dr. C. B. Cooper, Dr. H. W. Howard, Dr. Hessler, Mr. Prizes, Dr. W. S. Noblett, A. G. M. Robertson, Capt. Anderson and press representatives.

Young Kapea at Oahu prison executed a murder which has no parallel in the criminal history of the Islands. A half sister of his has been summoned as a leper suspect by Dr. Jared K. Smith, on the Island of Kauai. The whole family of natives at once plotted for the life of the Government physician. Several methods of assassination were suggested. Kapea practiced with a pistol. Late of a dark night he rode to the home of the victim selected. Dr. Smith came to his door in response to a knock. Kapea sent a bullet into the doctor's heart. Attorney W. A. Kinney and Marshal Brown were the principals in ferreting out the murderous plan. The crime was committed Sept. 24, 1897. Conviction of both Kapea and Kaio was had in Honolulu on Nov. 26 and sentence was passed on both Dec. 20. One man in the plot turned state's evidence. The jury found that Kaio, the father, had been "accessory before the fact." The Council of State, upon the showing that less criminality attached to Kaio than had been brought out in the testimony, reduced his sentence to imprisonment for life at hard labor. Upapa, another accomplice, is serving a term of three years at hard labor. News of the assassination of Dr.

J. K. Smith by these natives (part Malay) sent a thrill of horror over the Island. Dr. Smith, a brother of the Attorney-General, had been from his earliest years a devoted friend of the Hawaiians and had been especially kind and helpful to the people who encompassed his death in such brutal fashion.

Y. M. C. A. Postponement.

The general meeting of the Y. M. C. A. which had been called for Thursday evening next has been postponed for one week and will be held on the evening of the 21st inst. This is partly on account of the social which is to be held at Central Union Church on Thursday evening of this week. There are also other excellent reasons. Several reports are not yet entirely complete and it has become necessary to make further arrangements for the picture sale, as scheduled for the benefit of the building fund.
