The Mauna Loa is due from Maui and Hawaii ports early this afternoon. The C. D. Bryant hauled over to the Inter-island wharf yesterday to discharge.

The City of Peking did not get on her way to San Francisco until 3 o'clock yesterday morning. It is said the name of the British man-of-war expected here from the Colonies soon is the Leader.

There are at present in the harbor, 12 sailing vessels, 1 steamer and 1 man-of-war from foreign ports. The Paroo came in alongside the Pacific Mail wharf to discharge her coal, early yesterday morning.

Application has been made to Hawaiian registry for the Argentine bark Himalaya. John Ena is the owner. The Himalaya and Carrier Dove have both been chartered by W. G. Irwin & Co. to load sugar for San Francisco.

At 5:45 p. m. yesterday, a four masted schooner, evidently coal laden, was sighted off Koko Head. She was bound eastward.

There will be a good race between the Martha Davis and W. H. Dimond to San Francisco. Each started out with a fair breeze. On account of the length of time the King Cyrus took to get here from Newcastle her charter with W. G. Irwin & Co. to load sugar, has run out. She may be re-chartered.

FIRST COURT DAY

Opening of May Term, Judge Perry Presiding.

Young Luning Given His Liberty. A Rule of Practice—Calendar Called.

Judge Perry presided for the opening of the May term of Circuit Court for the First Circuit at the Judiciary Building here yesterday.

Perhaps the principal item of the day was the calling of the boy Henry Luning, who after serving nearly half of a two year sentence on the "Reef," was lately granted a new trial on what laymen call "technical" grounds.

General Hartwell presented the matter of preparation of decrees by attorneys. His suggestion was that the prevailing party should, within a specified period, offer to the judge a form of decree to be filed.

Chas. Ojo, lottery, paid his fine. Geo. Malina, assault, pleaded guilty. Kaapana, assault, paid his fine. Mahoahoa, larceny, plea of not guilty.

A jury was secured and the trial opened to Inuwa, native, on two counts of liquor selling without license.

Last evening the jury returned a verdict of guilty on both counts in the case of Inuwa and he will be sentenced in a few days. Most of the natives in the case were natives.
