This is the Time of year when every true woman is thinking of house cleaning and getting the house ready for summer. Now, if there is any one thing that helps to "tone up" a reception room, parlor or sitting room it is a handsome

CENTER RUG.

Every housekeeper makes some changes in her home appointments every spring. Such changes can be made economically and still have the effect of brightening the rest of the fittings.

You'll be interested in our assortment of Rugs, because we placed the order for them under most favorable conditions.

Our stock does not contain a pattern of which there is any doubt as to good wear. We have many pretty patterns for you to choose from, and the qualities can't be duplicated for less money than we ask.

Isn't one of them that isn't a beauty. Some large, some small, some plain, some fancy.

Arch Squares or Grand Cloths

Should also have your attention. Old furniture looks like new after it has passed through our hands.

MEN NOT WANTED

United States Will Not Accept Any Outsiders.

Negative Reply to a Honolulu Offer—A Quiet Movement and Its Disappointment.

When it was known positively that war between Spain and the United States had broken out, the idea was conceived here of furnishing a company from Honolulu for service with troops of the American Government. It was planned to organize a company of 100 men, with seventy per cent or more of drilled marksmen. This command was to be landed at San Francisco without expense to the United States and was there to be equipped, mustered in and detailed to duty where there was action.

First was the money consideration. Not more than half a dozen men who are rather well known had been told of the scheme when "all that might be needed for expenses" was guaranteed. Next there were hasty confidential interviews with men supposed to have appetite for the enterprise. A promising nucleus for a strong company was pledged. At this stage the plan was presented to a resident who was known to be able to have prompt communication with the highest authorities at Washington. This gentleman was enthusiastic, at once volunteering to do all in his power to assist the project along. His dispatches went forward by the S. S. City of Peking, which left here the night of April 30. The telegrams were plain and urgent.

While waiting for answer from the United States, those who had started the movement kept on securing men until there were more than 140 on the list. The "A B C" advertisement in this paper brought quite a number of replies, but most of the business was done quietly by personal selection. The most important understanding perhaps was that each man would be required to pass a physical examination before departing these shores.

Replies to the April 30 telegrams came by the Gaelic. They were of a disappointing and discouraging nature, as follows:

"Secretary of War regrets that offer one hundred Americans of Honolulu cannot be accepted. Only quota furnished by Governors received." (Signed) Schwan, Asst. Adjt.-General.

"War and Navy (Departments) have no use for more men at San Francisco." (Signed) J. B. Moore, Asst. Secy.

Despite these dispatches, four ex-regulars of the N. G. H. and a dozen or more civilians who had wanted to go with the Honolulu expedition, went on to the Coast by the Zealandia with the purpose of enlisting at San Francisco. The ex-regulars are Dunn, Scott, Schu-ley and Fitzgerald.

It is figured that the United States will not at any time during this war need more than say 250,000 men. According to Zealandia advices the number in the country ready to enlist is not less than 700,000. Jas. Kelley, of the Customs, is proud of the fact that at his old home in Ohio, men are offering a bonus for the purpose of getting a chance to go to the front. The papers have it that it is nearly that way everywhere.

The Honolulu men who were in this enterprise are glad they have shown their aloha to the United States and are much obliged indeed to the gentleman who took their case to Washington and to the men of means here who stood ready to furnish the cash.

D. W. C. NESFIELD.

Death of a Former Newspaper Man of This City.

David W. C. Nesfield, who has been identified for more than a quarter of a century with journalistic work in California, died at Fresno on the 7th inst., says the Examiner of the 10th. Deceased was a son of William Andrews Nesfield, the famous water-color artist of England of whom Ruskin speaks in "Modern Painters." He was educated at Eton and entered the Civil Service. After receiving his diploma he went to the continent and devoted himself to the study of languages, spending much of his time in Germany and Italy. He was an accomplished musician. He came here early and wrote considerably for both the daily and weekly press of this city, and was for a long time editorial writer for the Alta-California when that paper was under the direction of Frederick McCrollish. He leaves a widow and three daughters. He was 54 years old.

Mr. Nesfield was in Honolulu at the same time as Dan O'Connell. Mr. Nesfield was for years the "Town Crier" man of the San Francisco News Letter and was subsequently a writer for the Post. He was at various times organ-ist for leading Roman Catholic Churches of San Francisco and Oakland. In 1875 he was a writer for the Los Angeles Times and in those early days was prominent with the firemen. Mr. Nesfield composed several of the most popular Moody and Sankey hymns. He was a clever versifier and excellent at prose sketching. He was a linguist and an artist. David Nesfield experienced many "ups and downs" in his lifetime. He was once a wandering musician. With all this the man was of a peculiar, child-like disposition and of an innocent character. Sometimes he was brimming over with fun and again would seem despondent. While in Honolulu he was with the Daily Hawaiian. He is remembered lovingly by many residents. W. Horace Wright of the Independent and Mr. Nesfield were close friends of many years standing on the Coast.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rosville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, spains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. QUO VADIS!

Whither Goes Thou?

THIS IS NO DOUBT A DIRECT QUESTION. IMPORTANT IN ITS tone, but concise in its meaning. It is not our wish to question the intent of individuals, nor to pry into the affairs of others. Our main object of inquiry is in a business sense. Do you need a pair of Shoes? Are you looking for value? Are you seeking the latest style? Why not? If not. The one thing you cannot go without is Shoes.

To get a pair, where are you going?

A Big Cut!

For one month I propose to make a big cut in Horse Supplies.

Here is a partial list of the goods on which the cut will be made: Salt Sacks, Horse Boots, Sheets, Hoods, Scrapers, Bits, Sponges, Brushes, Bandages, Ointment, Condition Powders, Embrocation.

Many of these goods are cut 50 per cent, making them lower than ever before and lower than you will be able to buy them for a month from now.

SPECIAL NOTE:—This ad. made its appearance for the first time May 1. Since that time the response has been very generous. Don't wait too long.

SPECIAL NOTE NO. 2:—The fact of active war being in existence will bring the price of these goods up higher than before the cut. Better invest now.
