

"I as little expected to get a suit and top coat ready to wear, to fit me so perfectly at these moderate prices, as to hear of a night watchman dying in the daytime."

facetiously remarked a prominent professional man in our store, yesterday, who had just bought a Fifteen Dollar fancy worsted suit and a fine Vienna silk-lined Spring overcoat bearing this famous label. There are thousands of men in this city just as fastidious as this gentleman in whom we can convince just as readily if they will but come to our store and give us an opportunity. We tell you the Stein-Bloch clothes are the equals and in many respects the superiors of the best made-to-measure garments that can be produced in this city, but you do not have to take it on trust. Come and see for yourself.

M. McINERNEY. Merchant and Fort Sts.

We say it—but not boastfully—that we are showing this season the largest stock and best examples of Millinery productions that ever entered Honolulu.

Fashionable Millinery.

The greater part of our Millinery stock, trimmed and untrimmed, and the trimmings and ornaments, were personally selected, thus affording the correct styles, many of which are exclusive. London's latest ideas in Sailors and Hats for Walking, Bicycling, Horseback Riding, Golfing and Coaching; fine Milans and handsome Rough Straws, trimmed with wings, quills, ribbons, braids, in jaunty effects. Sailors in white and colors, rough and smooth effects; usual and odd shapes.

Flowers and Fancy Feathers and Ornaments and Millinery Novelties in great abundance and comprehensive variety—of our own direct importation, for Spring and Summer.

A HONOLULU WIN

Regiments Defeated in Season's Game.

Wilder and Lishman Were Absent Pitcher Jackson Starts in Well. Close Playing on Both Sides.

Although void of much excitement or enthusiasm, the game of baseball between the Regiment and Honolulu teams, played on the Makiki baseball grounds Saturday afternoon was undoubtedly the best played this season. There was nothing spasmodic as in the previous games, but a steady pull for success on both sides was manifest. The Regiments were minus two of their best men—Wilder and Lishman—but it is doubtful if they could have won even with these men. It was whispered about quite extensively that the Regiments "allowed" the Honolulu to win. For what reason, it is hard to explain, although several were given. The fact that the Regiment players deny this and that Hart was substituted in Bower's place in the fourth inning would go to argue otherwise. The Regiments played for all there was in it and so did the Honolulu. Toyo Jackson was put in as pitcher for the Honolulu and, although a little wild in the beginning, beat the record of Hart and Bower put together in the matter of strike outs. He is a cool headed fellow in the box and is a most valuable addition to the wearers of the blue and white. The teams with their positions and in order of batting were as follows:

Honolulu—Willis, 1 b.; Luahiwa, r. f.; Pryce, l. f.; Mahuka, 2 b.; Gleason, s. s.; Kaanoi, c. f.; Dayton, c.; Jackson, p.; Thompson, 3 b. Regiment—Moore, 2 b.; Jones, c. f.; Hart, s. s.; Scanlon, 1 b.; Bower, p.; Kiley, l. f.; Davis, c.; Gorman, 3 b.; Vincent, r. f. (Vincent substituted by J. O. Carter, Jr. in the sixth inning.)

In the first inning neither side scored. Jackson made a fine catch of a difficult ball sent in the direction of short by Scanlon.

The Regiments did not play very well in the second inning. Gleason got first on balls and came home on a wild throw by Bower to first. Kaanoi got first on a fumble by Moore and Dayton knocked a three bagger bringing in Kaanoi. Jackson knocked a home run but failed to touch third on his race around and could not get back before the ball's arrival at that place. Dayton came home, this making a score of three runs. The Regiments went out in one, two, three or four.

In the third inning Mahuka got caught in the ribs with the ball and took first. Gleason flew out to Kiley who sent the ball to first for Mahuka, making a double play. Again the Regiments failed to score.

Hart entered the box in the fourth inning and gave four men base on balls. Three runs resulted. The Regiments added another goose-egg to the string of three.

The tables were turned in the fifth inning. The Honolulu failed to score. A wild throw to first by Jackson, brought in Kiley and Davis for the Regiments.

In the sixth inning both teams got down on their hands and no run was scored on either side.

The Honolulu could not score in the seventh. The substitution of Jock Carter for Vincent in this inning was a signal of success for the Regiments. When he appeared at the bat with head bared and feet firmly planted, the first enthusiastic applause from the grandstand was heard. He had something peculiar on his bat for Willis could not stop the grounder sent to first. Moore got base on balls and Jones sent a hot one through Gleason's legs for three bases, sending in Carter and Moore.

The Honolulu scored two more runs in the eighth inning. Scanlon for the Regiments was caught at first by Dayton after trying to steal second.

In the ninth inning neither side scored, the game closing with a score of 8 to 4 in favor of the Honolulu. Following is the score by innings: Honolulu . . . . .0 3 0 0 0 2 0 8 Regiment . . . . .0 0 0 0 2 0 0 4

Ye Vain Chinese.

A new and interesting trophy in the old curiosity shop at the Police Station is the false bottom opium trunk turned over from the quarantine station by Jack McVeigh recently to Marshal Brown. The false bottom is in two sections of separate containers of copper. These flat little reservoirs held about five pounds each of the contraband drug. The arrangement was extremely ingenious. The Chinaman caught was willing to forfeit $750 to get out of the scrape, but when he found that jail for a month went with the fine of $500, promptly appealed the case and secured bond.

Handsome Window

J. J. Egan was busy all of Saturday evening, up to the time of closing in decorating his makai window. The ceiling is of blue bunting with gold stars, while the sides, back and front are white and red bunting. Gents furnishings are distributed promiscuously. In the center is a handsome palm set in a still handsomer porcelain vase, which makes a fine contrast to the other decorations. The window attracted a large crowd of pedestrians.

MRS. C. B. WILSON.

Sudden Death of a Hawaiian Lady Prominent for Many Years.

Early Saturday morning the spirit of Mrs. C. B. Wilson took flight. The death was a sudden one, the lady having been but a few days ill. Mrs. Wilson was born in Honolulu. Her name before her marriage to the ex-marshall was Evelyn Townsend and she was a companion to Liliuokalani. Mrs. Wilson was mentioned many times and in most complimentary terms in the book lately published by the former Queen of the Islands There survives Mrs. Wilson, her husband, C. B. Wilson and son. John H. The son now one of the city's successful business men, was the special pride of his mother. The late Mrs. Wilson was a woman of education, tact and most excellent qualities. Her circle of friends included the limits of the Islands and beyond the seas. In the society in which she moved she was always a leader and those who came to know her best were her most ardent admirers. During the imprisonment here of Liliuokalani in 1895 Mrs. Wilson was chosen by the ex-Queen as best friend and the relations between them were of the closest and most confidential nature. In the old court days here Mrs. Wilson was prominent both on account of her own position as a lady in waiting and her husband's official rank.

The funeral of Mrs. Wilson was held yesterday afternoon. It was very largely attended, friends coming from all sections of the district in great numbers. The floral tributes sent and brought included hundreds of leis, bouquets and pieces.

The funeral services were held from Kawaiahaoh Church and interment was in the family plot in Kawaiahaoh cemetery. The religious ceremonies were by Rev. H. H. Parker, assisted by Rev. Kaala.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled.
