Fashion's Headquarters.

The movements of the fashion world are reflected here. We're selling as we never sold before, and each day goods are cleaned out and scenes changed. This ever changing panorama furnishes callers with new interest and pleasure daily.

MILLINERY needs underscoring. Cases of creations from Europe's capitals as well as from our own fashion centers—bowers of Flowers such as the French excel in making—miles of the novelties of the season in Ribbons greet you on every side.

In spite of the fineness—the elegance—the exclusiveness—prices take a new turn to lowness here. We could guarantee, if necessary, that goods of equal quality can't be bought at like prices anywhere.

REV. W. M. KINCAID

Central Union Calls Minneapolis Clergyman.

Known to a Number of People Here—Is Strongly Recommended.

Rev. William M. Kincaid, D. D., of Minneapolis, will be chosen pastor of Central Union Church, to succeed Rev. Douglas Putnam Birnie, who will retire in the latter part of July.

At present Rev. Dr. Kincaid is the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Minneapolis. He will be expected to reach Honolulu sometime in August that he may be ready to take up his new work early in September. During August, the Central Union pulpit will be temporarily filled, possibly by some California pastor.

Chief Justice Judd presided over last night's business meeting of Central Union Church members. W. W. Hall officiated as secretary. Chairman W. F. Frear reported for the Pastoral Committee, consisting also of Professor W. D. Alexander and W. A. Bowen.

Justice Frear stated that the committee, after the most careful investigation, had decided to recommend to the church that a call be extended to Rev. Dr. Kincaid. He had been highly recommended by Rev. J. A. Cruzan, Rev. Mr. Beckwith, of Maui, Dr. McLane, of Oakland, and President Northrup, of the University of Minnesota. The first three named gentlemen were formerly pastors of Central Union. Mr. Frear added that Rev. Dr. Kincaid was pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Francisco for a period of eight years. When he took charge the church had a total membership of 200 and a debt of $40,000 hanging over it. When he left the membership roll had increased to 600 and the debt had been liquidated. About eight years ago Rev. Dr. Kincaid changed his faith in baptism and took charge of the First Presbyterian Church of Minneapolis. The membership has increased three-fold since his ministrations and the church has built a handsome stone edifice.

Professor Alexander said that Rev. Dr. Kincaid had always been popular with the young people. He was very successful in the Secretary's office of the Y. M. C. A. in Oakland some years ago. J. B. Atherton believed that the church would make no mistake in calling Rev. Dr. Kincaid. "His hold on the young people and the young men in college makes me feel that he would be a grand man for us here."

Captain Bray, of the missionary packet Morning Star, is personally acquainted with the new pastor. He spoke very highly of his work. Miss Charlotte Hall, daughter of W. W. Hall attended Rev. Dr. Kincaid's church in Minneapolis for two years.

Rev. Dr. Kincaid is an earnest and deliberate pulpit talker. He is a thinker and a ready speaker, never requiring notes.

Mrs. Kincaid is an active church worker. She occupied the pulpit in Minneapolis on one occasion when her husband was ill. The Kincaids have three children, a son, fourteen years of age, a daughter of twelve and a baby boy of three.

Last evening's meeting voted unanimously for Rev. Dr. Kincaid. The rules governing Central Union require that two-thirds of the members must cast their ballots for a nominee for pastor before the candidate can be called. Over seventy members voted in the affirmative last evening. Circulars and ballots will be sent out today to those members who were absent.

MANSLAUGHTER.

Keaka is Charged With Causing Death of His Mother.

The coroner's jury in the case of Kaua (w) who died at Punahou Tuesday evening under suspicious circumstances, met before Deputy Marshal Chillingworth yesterday afternoon and returned the verdict "That said Kaua came to her death on May 24th from heart disease, said death being caused by violence used upon deceased by Keaka, such violence causing unusual excitement, resulting in death." The jurors were as follows: John Kuaana, George Cox, Joe Kalana, C. B. Malle, S. H. Uni and Albert Trask.

Immediately after the verdict was handed in Keaka was charged with manslaughter in the first degree.

Haalilo was the main witness in the case. He saw Keaka strike the woman. She fell and was dragged by Keaka. Then came groanings and death. Haalilo testified that Keaka was in the habit of striking the mother when angry.

Dr. Emerson gave testimony to the effect that Kaua was a sufferer from heart disease.

The Dingley Tariff Bill

Which became a law in the United States on July 24, 1897, places the duty on at forty per cent. ad valorem. Paragraph 159, Schedule C says:

"Sheets, plates, wares, or articles of iron, steel or other metal, enameled or glazed with vitreous glasses forty per centum ad valorem."

This means that

for use in your culinary department which now comes in duty free from the United States and 10 per cent. from other countries.

Annexation

the prices, on account of the increased duty, are bound to advance. By fortunate foresight on our part in placing a large order for this line of goods, we can offer you a very complete assortment of

Agate and White Enameled STEEL WARE.

While the stock and assortment is large it cannot last forever, and our suggestion would be to you to lay in whatever you need, then in case annexation does come you will profit by it.
