WORK IN HOUSE

Outside Members Have a Grievance and Speak.

Complain of Members of Oahu Delegation—A Sample Half Day's Work.

Upon the adjournment of the House of Representatives the other day, Mr. Loebenstein was observed to be striding up and down the big hallway in a nervous manner. He approached Mr. Richards, the other member from Hilo, and said: "I have a strong notion to go home by the next boat." Mr. Richards replied: "If the salaries act was out of the way I would take the next boat for Hilo." Upon being questioned as to his unrest, Mr. Richards continued: "It is all very well for the Honolulu members to allow the House to go on day after day without anything being done. We have accomplished really nothing at all during the past week. Members from the outside cannot attend to their private business. Some of the Oahu men expect all the Representatives to adjust themselves to the convenience of a few private interests. They come late, or remain away altogether. Then there is too much maneuvering on some of the acts. Now this afternoon the income tax bill came up. Its friends were without enough votes to pass it, but they had enough to adjourn. They might have gone to work for an hour or two on the twenty-five or thirty other acts on the calendar, but instead they adjourned and another whole afternoon is wasted. This is not business."

Mr. Robertson, who gives "case in court" as an excuse for absence from the House, was approached with a version of what had been complained of by Loebenstein and Richards. Robertson, Gear and Atkinson are among those most severely censured by the outside members for tardiness, absence and refusals to agree to evening sessions. Mr. Robertson gave an account of the particular adjournment mentioned by Richards that agreed with the Hilo man's story. Then Mr. Robertson said that some of the Senate and House members had made a compact to kill both Schedule "E" and the income tax act and that it would not do at all to have both measures perish. As to why consideration of the income tax act had not been postponed and other acts taken up, Mr. Robertson said: "Probably that ought to have been done."

If the House does not reform radically in its working methods, the indulgence of an additional thirty days for the calendar will not be more than half enough.

SEASICK.

Sad Experience of Some New Men on the Charleston.

The old salts on the Charleston have a joke on a great many of the new men on that cruiser. During the first day out there were 23 of the recruits taken with that bothersome ailment known as seasickness. They were given special orders to feed the fishes on the starboard side but a great many of the men, not knowing one side of the ship from the other, unintentionally disobeyed orders. They were forgiven and ordered not to repeat the offense. However, the seasick ones got bravely over their troubles and "Remembered the Maine" to the extent of drilling every day.

One bluejacket of the Charleston was sent to the hospital yesterday morning on account of an injury sustained to one of his arms on deck while on the trip from San Francisco.

Hawaiian Sailors.

Year after year Hawaiians are taking more to the sea. Vessels that have left recently have taken quite a number of natives. Yesterday morning, Kahumoku, Keo and Kale all signed as members of the crew of the American ship A. J. Fuller which is to leave for New York on or about Thursday. The weather in the vicinity of Cape Horn does not seem to frighten them in the least. The masters of vessels who have had to do with Hawaiian sailors say there are no better to be had. They never complain and are always cheerful about their duties. Then again they are most efficient in the work about a ship and seem to have fear of nothing whatever.

ONCE PATRONIZED — ALWAYS PATRONIZED

Is the motto of those who visit the Criterion Barber Shop. Some shops experience a boom of customers for a time, but sooner or later the business drops back to the old rut. The reverse is the case at the Criterion Shop, business is steadily on the increase.

The Gazette (semi-weekly) will be issued in time for the outgoing mails today.

ISLAND CONVENTION.

Y. P. S. C. E. Will Have Annual Gathering Here June 7.

The Christian Endeavorers of the Hawaiian Islands will hold their third annual convention in Kawaiahao church next Tuesday, June 7th. There will be an early morning prayer meeting at 6:15, led by Mr. Southwick.

At the evening meeting the principal addresses will be made by Rev. D. P. Birnie of Central Union Church and Rev. J. M. Ezera of the Ewa church.

The feature of the evening meeting will be the presentation of a badge banner to the Island branch which has gained the most new members during the year. This banner is the silk Hawaiian flag taken to the San Francisco convention last year, covered with many Christian Endeavor badges from Australia and the United States.

At the roll call of the natives at the San Francisco convention the Hawaiian delegates had no distinctively Hawaiian song, while many of the other delegates had special state songs. Since then a Christian Endeavor song has been written to the air of Hawaii Pono, which will be sung for the first time at Tuesday's meeting.

The Gazette (semi-weekly) will be issued this morning in time for the outgoing island and foreign mails.

Our Big Business

is not the result of sentiment or personal friendship or anything of the sort. It is the result of discretion in buying and close selling. We always aim to cut profits to the minimum and our enormous trade enables us to do it. Before you buy anything in the Dry Goods line acquaint yourself with our prices—the chances are ten to one that we can save you money. If, after selection and trial, you fall to agree with us, a word from you, and the goods are back in our store exchanged for others, or the money you paid for them cheerfully refunded. We couldn't do this if our prices and gradings were not thoroughly correct. Just now we are showing the following seasonal goods:

LINEN DUCK, for suits, LINEN CRASH, OUTING FLANNEL.

Other leaders are: Woolen Blankets, Cotton Blankets, Colored Bedspreads, Toilet Bedspreads, Honey Comb Quilts, (All grades and sizes.) Colored Cheese Cloth.

AMERICAN FLAGS,

10, 12, 15 and 18 Feet.

HAWAIIAN FLAGS.

FLAG BUNTING.

In Red, White, Blue, Black, Green and Yellow.

Close Inspection.

We invite the closest inspection of every article of Dry Goods we offer for sale. In fact we prefer it. It shows that the customer "knows what's what," and as we keep nothing but that which is right, both as to quality and price, a close scrutiny of our offerings is certain to redound to our credit.
