CAPT. DYER SPOKE.

(Continued from First Page.) and emerging struck the cylinder of port 6-inch gun on quarter-deck temporarily rendering the gun unfit for use. In its mad flight it also struck a box of 3-pounder ammunition, exploding one shell which in turn slightly wounded a few of No. 4 guns crew. The other hits were as follows: One shell pierced our starboard side forward of No. 2 sponson and lodged in a clothes-locker on the berth deck; another one struck us on our port beam a little above the water-line, and a few feet forward of and above this another shell came crashing across the berth deck striking a steam pipe and exploding behind starboard blower-engine with no serious results. A fragment of a shell went through one of our ventilators and the Colors at our main were shot through during the first part of action. The concussion from our 8-inch guns on poop shattered our two whale-boats and they had to be cut adrift. The engagement lasted from 5:43 until 7:35 a. m., when the flagship signalled: "withdraw from action." We then stood out in the bay, the men left their stations and "mess-gear" was sounded. There was hand-shakings and congratulations on every hand as smoke-begrimed friends, parted during the battle, met again, and loud were the cheers that went up from the various ships in passing.
