

TANKS. There are many places in town where the water will run but a few hours each day in the pipes. Such places are not bothered much, however, if provided with one of our

PATENT NON-SHRINKING WATER TANKS which we sell in all sizes, from 500 to 10,000 gallons, for it is an easy matter to get the tank full while the water is running in pipes, then you have all the water you want when water will not run. These are made of best quality, clear, seasoned redwood lumber, and every tank is fully guaranteed, both in material and workmanship. PERKINS WINDMILLS will also keep these tanks full. We sell Tanks and Windmills.

THREE EDUCATORS

ried into the home and she wished to meet the mothers at this session. From 8:45 to 9:30 she will conduct a practical kindergarten on the platform of the hall. The public is invited to this as well. Miss Allen said that all she asked was that the audience would keep quiet.

Mrs. Parker entered at once into the work of the session. She speaks easily and her English is choice. Her talk yesterday was on the use of the voice. There were many vocal crutches, and yet every mode of education was at the disposal of every human being. There was fundamental error. She had never found, for instance, a teachers' institution where a vowel was properly defined. She spoke then of the use of the voice and gave example of defective vocalization. The voice was merely a transmitter and a bad utterance, in fact everything that prevented a free utterance of the soul interfered with the soul itself. She talked of expression of thought through the body and showed how a shrug of the shoulders, a look, the expression of the face, helped to convey meaning.

Col. Parker lectured on the use of written and spoken language as transmitters. He said the only functions of words were to act upon the conscience to bring a mental image. The whole question of grammar laid in the image. Col. Parker used the blackboard to illustrate his meaning.

The afternoon sessions were held in the High school building. This will be the practice throughout the session. The morning lectures by Col. Parker, by Mrs. Parker and by Miss Allen will all be in Progress hall. There will also be a lecture in Progress hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening by Col. Parker on the Child and Nature. The public is invited.

A NOTED ARTIST.

Frank D. Millet Who Accompanied General Merritt to Manila.

One of the most talented men who accompanied General Merritt to Manila was Frank D. Millet, who goes as the correspondent of the London Times and as the representative of the publications of Harper Brothers of New York.

Millet left London on June 17, the day after he was engaged to go to Manila, and steamed to San Francisco as fast as possible. He has a beautiful home at Broadway, about 100 miles from London, where other artists, and also Mary Anderson Navarro, reside. This place has been described in print by admiring travelers. He hurried thither from London, packed what he needed, took leave of his family inside of an hour, and started across the Atlantic. He got to New York one morning, received his baggage at 1:20 o'clock in the afternoon, and at 1:50 o'clock was on the train for San Francisco. The trip from England was accomplished in eleven days.

Millet has been a war correspondent before this, and has gone over much of the world, and the hasty journey was no novelty to him. He is so young looking that it would not be thought, judging by outward appearances alone, that he has lived long enough to achieve the success and reputation which he has won as artist and author. Like W. W. Story, the deceased sculptor, Du Maurier, F. Hopkinson Smith and some others whose names are known to the readers of today, he has unusual literary talent coupled with artistic ability. He writes for the magazines, and his stories have been published in book form. Though he has not the aspect of a war veteran, he served in the Union Army as a drummer boy, enlisting when he was 15 years old. He graduated from Harvard in 1869. He began his newspaper work on the Boston Advertiser, and then went to the New York Herald. In 1877 and 1878 he was the Russo-Turkish war correspondent for the London News, and he furnished the London Graphic with sketches of battles. Out of eighty correspondents in the field he was the only one who remained to the end of hostilities. He received five decorations in that war, two being for personal bravery on the battle field.

He was director of the decorations at the Chicago Exposition, and the work of that position occupied his attention for a year and a half, beginning in 1892. He had charge of the coloring of the great fair. Then he returned to the painting of pictures, which bring high prices.

REWARD OF MERIT.

At the CHICAGO CYCLE SHOW in 1897, each visitor on entering the Show was handed a coupon reading as below:

"After viewing the exhibits, kindly fill in the name of the Bicycle which pleases you best as regards beauty and mechanical merit, and deposit the coupon in ballot box near exits. Name of Bicycle....."

The "Shirk" received 17,489 ballots against 12,377 the next highest. When it is known that all the leading makes of wheels in the United States were on exhibition at this Show, the above speaks for itself. THE HONOLULU BICYCLE CO. have secured the Agency for this strictly high grade wheel.

IT WILL INTEREST YOU TO CALL AND SEE IT.

HE TRIED SUICIDE,

A Despondent Sailor Seeks to End His Life.

Henry Leather, a sailor of the bark Amy Turner, attempted suicide several different times in his cell at the station house yesterday. He was recovering from a spree lasting several days. The man was arrested for disorderly conduct, incident to his debauch.

Leather is an Englishman and a church member. Preceding each attempt at suicide he repeated prayers. Had the guards not been so watchful any one of his four efforts to hang himself would have been successful. Last night Leather was sober and duty ashamed of himself.

Said a friend of his got off a good one yesterday, we hadn't an idea he referred to his undershirt. All wool—part wool—no wool—as you want it—and not a cent too much to pay. We'll fit you as others can't.

When you tempt fortune get the best odds you can. For instance, buying blue serge. You get best odds buying where you feel most confident of honest value. No serge unless tested. That's big odds to your favor.
