PALAMA SCHOOL HOUSE.

Plans Being Rushed for Its Immediate Construction.

Ripley & Dickey are rushing plans for the new twelve-room school house in Palama. Some slight alterations were made by the Commissioners of Education in the original drawings, making it necessary to revise the work. Just as soon as the plans are ready tenders will be invited, and building operations will be expedited by the department as much as possible. It is hoped that the house can be called into service by January 1.

The new building will go on the front of the lot occupied by the Reformatory school. During the Autumn the latter will not be interfered with, but it is the purpose of the department to remove it as soon as possible to a site in the suburbs. This removal is necessary, not only to get the house of correction away from the school, but to secure tillable lands upon which the boys may be employed.

Shingle's Good Work.

A friend writing from Omaha to Prosecuting Attorney A. L. C. Atkinson, says that Robt. W. Shingle, the Hawaiian Commissioner to the Trans-Mississippi Exposition, is doing magnificent work for the Islands. The opinion is ventured that the exhibit of the Islands is doing better work for its territory than any other representation on the grounds. Mr. Shingle has the show now in good running order and is on hand all the time to explain everything to visitors. Mr. Shingle, in connection with a Minneapolis newspaper man, is arranging to run a series of excursions to the Islands and the writer from Omaha says that hundreds are eager to sign for the trip and that the transportation companies are willing to make good rates.

Come to Attention!

At this time, when the minds of the people are absorbed with greeting and aloha toward the army of visitors, attention should not be forgotten to personal wants. Note the attitude of the soldiers when attention is called. They are all business, so should be the civilian when attention is called to their personal needs. Newspapers are the medium of attention and thought and through them we call the public to attention. Shoes need attention, your feet need consideration. We have shoes to suit everybody in price and style. We ask your attention and patronage.
