SALE OF LANDS

New Prices Develop at an Auction on Maui.

Comparison With the Old—A Japanese Syndicate—Nahiku and Kihel-Bark Hesper.

(Special Correspondence.)

MAUI, Dec. 23.—The afternoon of the 17th, a public sale of Government lands was held at the office of Sub-Land Agent W. O. Aiken, of Paia. The lands sold were lots Nos. 9, 38 and 39 of the Nahiku lands. Lot No. 9, which had been forfeited by its former owner (a Portuguese who had failed to fulfill the conditions under the Homestead Law) was sold to Police Justice W. A. McKay, of Wailuku, for $1,700. It contains an area of 95 acres. Lot No. 38, containing an area of 108 1/2 acres, was sold to E. M. Hanuua, of Hana, for $940. This lot is heavily wooded. Lot No. 39 was sold to Jutaro, a prominent Japanese employee of Hamakua plantation, for $405. Its area is 40 acres. The bidding was very lively, representatives of Paia, Wailuku, Honolulu and Hana, people taking part. The prices prevailing at the sale are most remarkable and significant when compared to the $3 or $4 an acre formerly paid for the same kind of lands. It was reported that a syndicate of Japanese was ready to pay $2,000 for Jutaro's lot but was deterred by the belief that aliens were ineligible as bidders.

Lahaina has been filled with strangers during the last two weeks and more, but today ends the December term of court—both native and foreign jurors being excused.

The Wailuku plantation began grinding on the 19th. Wednesday, the 21st, a U. S. Volunteer, very straight and very tall, made quite a sensation among Makawao school children, who saw a real soldier for the first time in their lives. It was Mr. Spraul, of the Engineers, who had walked to and fro from Haleakala dressed in uniform with a heavy knapsack fastened to his back.

Kihel plantation already has an embryo village, viz: Four laborers' houses, a manager's residence, a club house and a large stable.

The bark Hesper, from Honolulu, arrived in Kahului, the 22nd.

Maui presents the compliments of the season to island friends.

Weather—Very cool during the week. A slight fall of snow on the summit of Haleakala, Wednesday, the 21st. The thermometer registered 39 degrees at Haleakala Dairy.

HAPPILY MATED.

Pretty Church Marriage of Popular Young People.

On Christmas Eve at 8 o'clock at St. Andrew's Cathedral, the popular and efficient young Deputy Marshal, Charles Frederick Chillingworth, and Miss Anna Victoria Stratemeyer were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Vincent H. Kitcat. Though the affair was announced as private it was impossible to keep away from the church the friends of the young couple, who were there in large numbers. The strains of the Lohengrin Bridal March announced the arrival of the bride, who leaning on the arm of her father, Gen. C. Stratemeyer, the well known Port Surveyor, slowly walked to the chancel up the center aisle, where stood the bridegroom and the officiating clergyman. As the interesting ceremony proceeded Wray Taylor played very soft music on the organ, including De Koven's "Oh Promise Me." Miss Mary Chillingworth, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, and Mr. A. L. Atkinson, Deputy Attorney General, the best man. The bride looked very pretty in her becoming bridal costume and the wedding ceremony was a very interesting one, joining together as it did two very popular young Hawaiians. Mendelssohn's Wedding March and Hawaii Poni were played at the conclusion of the ceremony after the newly married couple had affixed their signatures to the register. A reception followed at the home of the young couple on Emma street.

THE SAILOR DROWNED.

Swam for His Hat and Was Overcome by Breakers.

Nakookoo, one of the crew of the steamer Iwalani, was drowned at Kilauea, Kauai, December 22nd. The boat which he was in upset and the sailors with much difficulty, Nakookoo being among them, swam to a sand spit, where they were secure. In the struggle through the breakers Nakookoo had lost his hat and insisted on again making out to sea for it. He plunged into the surf, which was boiling around the spit, and never came to the surface. It is supposed he was covered with the sand with which the water was thick at the time and could not make headway. Search was made for the body but of no avail.

Nakookoo has been a sailor for the Wilder's Company for the past seven years, only leaving them a few weeks ago to sign with the Inter-Island Company's steamer Iwalani. He was many years with the Kinau and considered one of the most skillful of the men in swimming through the breakers. The water around the Hawaii coast was deep, however, and he had no treacherous sands to encounter, which probably in the end cost him his life.

Nakookoo had several sailor brothers belonging to the Island steamers. His family lives in Manoa valley.

An important branch of this great business is the Mail Order Service—managed by an expert, assisted by a large corps of competent mail order people. The same low prices that visitors to the store enjoy, are charged to customers at a distance. Goods are shipped the day order is received or on first out-going steamer thereafter. The Emporium Economist, a 130 page book in beautiful 7 color cover, contains 1500 illustrations. It gives the lowest price for everything to wear, eat, drink or use in your home and tells how to shop satisfactorily by mail. Mailed free to any address on application to the ## Executors' Notice of Sale of Real Estate.

By order of John F. Colburn, executor of the will of Antone Rosa, late deceased, acting under order of the Probate Court of the First Judicial Circuit, I shall, at 12 o'clock noon

ON SATURDAY, THE 7TH DAY OF JANUARY, 1899,

At my auction room in Honolulu, C. Lunaillo, situate at Kaalawai, East Island of Oahu, offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, all of the right, title and interest of the said Antone Rosa and his estate in and to that certain real estate and fishery bounded and described as follows:

- 1st. Those certain 2 apanas of land situate at Kailih, being covered by L. C. A. No. 1,949, R. P. No. 4,978, to Keawepoo no Keaka, containing an area of 5 86-100 acres more or less.
  - 2nd. The sea fishery of Kaalawai, being a portion of L. C. A. No. 6,252, R. P. No. 5,552, to Kekuhiko.
  - 3rd. A portion of L. C. A. No. 8,559 B Apana 32 Illaina of Kapahulu to W. C. Lunaillo, situate at Kaalawai, East of Diamond Head, being subdivided into 8 building lots.
- The lots at Kaalawai lie beyond Kapiolani Park, a short distance beyond the residence of President Dole and in the immediate vicinity of the residences and lots of Cecil Brown, J. A. Magoon, T. R. Walker, F. M. Swanzy, and other permanent residents. The soil is good and water is obtainable on the lots in wells only a few feet deep. There is access to the beach from all of the lots. There is a fair carriage road to the lots from the Park. The fact that almost all of the beach lots at Waikiki have been sold to permanent residents renders this an unusually fine opportunity to secure good beach lots; an opportunity not likely to recur again, for present purchasers of beach lots buying for their own use and not for sale.
- Sale subject to the confirmation of the Court.
- Deeds at expense of purchasers.

JAS. F. MORGAN, Auctioneer. 5193
