ARMY OF SALVATION

Sixth Anniversary To Be Celebrated.

DELEGATES FROM ISLANDS

Reunion of the Clans Arranged Sunday Morning--Interesting Program.

Great times are promised by the Salvation Army people for the coming week. The program of their sixth anniversary conference and demonstration is out. The gathering of the clans will first take place on Saturday, when the steamers will bring the delegates from the different Islands. Among those expected are the following: Ensign Lydia Allemann and Lieutenant Elsie Allemann, of Hilo; Captain Bamberry and Lieutenant McLeod, from Wailuku, Maui; Adjutant Sharpe and Captain Jensen of Waimea, Kauai, and Captain Lewis, of Koloa, Kauai.

Major and Mrs. Wood are in charge of the arrangements and meetings, and they will be ably assisted by Captains Matthis and Mills, and Lieutenant Elliott, who commands the Honolulu corps; also, by Captain and Mrs. Gillett, who have recently arrived from the Coast, and the visiting delegates.

The sessions of the conference, which will be held every morning, will be devoted to a thorough discussion of the army's work on the Islands in all its different phases. The work among the natives, Japanese and Chinese, also the children's work, will receive special attention. These meetings will be private but the evening services in the army hall will be public and free to all.

On Saturday evening a welcome is to be tendered to the visitors, and on Sunday evening the sixth anniversary of the army's arrival in Honolulu will be celebrated. The Y. M. C. A. hall has been secured for this gathering. A report of the army's labors during the past six years will be given by the major, while the different delegates will report upon their respective fields.

It will be seen that something unique in the line of religious meetings is promised by the program, such as an auction sale of children, an international demonstration, a half night of prayer, and a musical festival.

It is the first time in the army's history in Honolulu that such a series of gatherings has been attempted, but the major and his assistants have faith to believe that they will prove very successful.

Following is the program:
Saturday, Sept. 22--7:30 p. m., open air, Ensign Allemann; 8 p. m., welcome to our visitors.

Sunday, Sept. 23--9:30 a. m., knee drill, Captain Bamberry; 10 a. m., wharf meeting, Captain Lewis; 11 a. m., holiness meeting, Major Wood; 12:30 p. m., jail meeting, Captain Gillett; 2:30 p. m., junior companies, J. S. S. Lyman; 3:30 p. m., Bible class, Mrs. Major Wood; 7:30 p. m., open air, Mrs. Captain Gillett; 8 p. m., sixth anniversary meeting, in the Y. M. C. A. hall.
Monday, Sept. 24--7:30 p. m., open air, Captain Mills; 8 p. m., war memories, Adjutant Sharpe.

Tuesday, Sept. 25--6:30 p. m., officers' and soldiers' banquet (private); 8 p. m., officers' and soldiers' council (private).
Wednesday, Sept. 26--7:30 p. m., open air, Captain Jensen; 8 p. m., auction sale of children--a unique allegorical service.

Thursday, Sept. 27--7:30 p. m., open air, Captain Lewis; 8 p. m., musical and ice cream festival. Tickets for ice cream and cake, 25 cents.

Friday, Sept. 28--8 p. m., holiness convention and half night of prayer.

Saturday, Sept. 29--7:30 p. m., open air, Adjutant Sharpe; 8 p. m., international demonstration (representatives in national costumes).

Sunday, Sept. 30--9:30 a. m., knee drill, Mrs. Captain Gillett; 10 a. m., wharf meeting, Ensign Allemann; 11 a. m., holiness meeting, Major Wood; 12:30 p. m., jail meeting, Captain Bamberry; 2:30 p. m., junior companies, Lieutenant McLeod; 3:30 p. m., Bible class, Mrs. Major Wood; 7:30 p. m., open air, Captain Matthis; 8 p. m., farewell to visitors.

CHINESE BUREAU ARCHIVES.

J. W. Girvin Is Putting Them In Excellent Order.

James W. Girvin of the Census Bureau, formerly secretary of the Chinese Bureau, has a large task on hand, which he is gradually completing. When the Chinese Bureau was removed from the Judiciary building to give room for Marshal Ray there were taken from the shelves a large number of volumes of federal reports, of the executive, legislative and judicial departments. They were splendidly bound volumes, all in perfect condition, but as they were part of the archives of the Chinese Bureau, which has gone out of existence, no one seemed to know what to do with them, and a proposition was made to have them destroyed. Mr. Girvin agreed to put them all in order provided a place was set apart for them, so a room was arranged in the basement of the capitol building, and for the past few weeks Mr. Girvin has been hard at it. The task was a monumental one, for the volumes were all mixed up in transit from the Judiciary building, but order is gradually coming out of chaos, and the result will be a valuable reference library.

Besides the records are all the archives of the Chinese Bureau, and these also are being put in order, so that when any question comes up that will need reference to the records of the office, it will be but a small task to find the requisite information in this well arranged library.

Arthur Harrison has been given the contract for the brick work in the Pacific Hardware Company's new warehouse on Merchant street, his bid being the lowest.
